The year after your first year.

A2 picks up where A1 left off, on the same street, with the same eight people. You tell a story in the past, say what you have done, describe a person, read a label and a timetable, and write the letter that gets you the job. Nothing is explained in words you have not met.

Every unit has nine parts

- Warm Up — three ways in
- Words & Sounds — the new words, and how to say them
- Grammar — the form, shown before it is named
- Listening — four tasks, every script printed at the back
- Speaking — four tasks you do with a partner
- Reading — real things: a notice, a receipt, a message
- Writing — a form, a frame, then your own lines
- Real-World File — the thing outside the classroom
- Review & Can-Do — what you can do now, ticked by you
