{width=6.

6in}

Strand Road, the following September — Ten things to find. Three of them are new words for old things.

Who do you become after?

By the end of this unit you can write a reflective piece about how a place — or a person — changed. One hundred and ten words.

♦ A • THE WORLD

A town being offered a story about itself, and asked to agree to it

♦ B • THE SYSTEM

articles and determiners, reviewed · abstract nouns · 23 words for identity and change · 17 determiners · the as /ðə/ and /ði:/

♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

A hundred and ten words about what a place has become

0A • Find it

Find ten things in this picture. Three of them are new words for old things.

a new town sign · a repainted shopfront · a visitor centre leaflet · a watermark left on purpose
· a plaque · a bus of visitors · a For Sale sign taken down · a scaffold coming off · a camera ·
a hand-painted notice in a window

0B • Guess it

One thing in this picture has been kept deliberately. Which, and who decided?

0C • Say it

Record thirty seconds. Think of a place you know that changed. Is the story people tell about it true? You will record it again at the end of this unit.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

{width=6.

6in}

Who tells the story, and who is in it — Five nodes. The dashed line is the seven households that are not on any of them.

1A • Meet — the words of who you are now

Match each word to one place on the map.

identity · change · community · memory · story · reputation · local · outsider · newcomer · truth

1B • Sort — about a person, a place, or both?

Three columns.

identity · reputation · community · local · outsider · memory · belong · newcomer

One of them is given to you by other people, always. Which?

1C • Meet — three words about the story

marketing · genuine · truth

Marketing is not the opposite of truth. What is the difference between a true story and a genuine one? Give an example.

6in}

Eimear's kitchen, in section — Four levels, one year, and one of them has been left exactly as it was.

Look at Eimear's kitchen, in section. Four levels, one year. Which level has been deliberately left as it was, and why?

1D • Stretch — the phrases

Complete each one with one word.

1. Some of them want to put it behind _____ and some do not.
2. You cannot move _____ until somebody has said what happened.
3. The brochure calls it the town _____ came back.
4. She said she would rather tell the _____ and have fewer visitors.
5. It took eight months to live _____ the photograph of the kitchen.

1E • The saying

f That's not what happened.

Four words that one person says in every town meeting, and that nobody wants to hear.

Write what comes next — once from somebody who is right, and once from somebody who is wrong but sincere.

1F • Own it

Think of a story people tell about where you are from. Tell a partner three sentences: what the story is, who tells it, and what it leaves out.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

6in}

The brochure — One of them has a campaign. The other has a year of arguing about accuracy.

2A • The brochure 📞 Track 10.1

Before you listen. A tourism agency has offered to market the town as the town that came back.
Guess: who objects, and on what grounds?

Listen once. One question. What would the campaign be worth, in visitors?

Listen again. Complete the table.

	What they want	What they are afraid of the agency
Sinéad
Eimear

Listen again. Choose.

- The campaign would run for one season / three years / indefinitely.
- Eimear objects because the story is false / incomplete / embarrassing.
- The agency offers to change the words / drop the campaign / add a page.
- The decision will be made by the agency / the committee / a public meeting.

Noticing. Four sentences from the recording.

- It's a story about a town.*
- It's the story of this town.*
- A town came back.*
- The town came back.*

Two of these are about any town. Two are about this one. Which, and what single word does the work?

2B • Decoding clinic 🎧 Track 10.2

Twenty-five seconds of Eimear. Four jobs.

1. How many times does she say the?
2. Can you hear the difference between the town and the other?
3. Catch the number of visitors.
4. She says one word with heavy stress twice. Which?

Transcripts, page 159.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

The small words that decide what you mean

3A • Notice

Look at the four sentences in Part 2.

1. Sentences 3 and 4 differ by one word. Which town is each about?
2. In sentence 1, a story — why not the story?
3. When do you use no article at all? Try: Water came in. / The water came in.
4. this town, that town, such a town. What does each one add?
5. Try "It's story about the town." What is missing, and does it matter?

Describe a place to a partner in six sentences. Your partner's job is to catch any article that should not be there, and any that is missing.

3G • Check — six items

1. _____ water came in at ten. (we know which water)

Part 4 • Speaking ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — a, the, nothing

Your teacher says a noun: water. Each learner must use it three times — once with no article, once with a, once with the — and all three must be true.

Six nouns. Six rounds.

4B • The functional core — saying what a place has become

Fifty-one households, and forty-four

Learner A has the brochure. Learner B has the survey. The same town, a year apart.

the correction	That's not what happened. · It's more complicated than that.

Role play. Learner A works for the agency. Learner B lives in the town. Six minutes. Neither may say lie.

4C • The performance — one hundred seconds

Describe how a place or a person changed. One hundred seconds. You must give:

what it was · what it is · what has not changed · the story people tell, and what it leaves out

Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did the speaker say what had not changed?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Were my articles right where the meaning depended on them? ☐ Is there one thing in my account that the official version leaves out?

Part 5 • Reading A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

A feature article. The title is "The town that came back, and the seven people who did not." What do you expect the writer to be doing? One sentence.

5B • Read — one hundred and twenty seconds

The town that came back, and the seven people who did not

The campaign is good. I want to begin there, because the easy piece to write about Ballinmore this autumn is the cynical one and it would also be wrong.

The photographs are of real people doing real things and nobody is pretending the hall is finished. The line — the town that came back — is three years of work by people who were not paid for most of it, and the agency did not invent it. Somebody in the town said it first, in the hall, in February, and nobody wrote down who.

Here is what it leaves out. Of the fifty-one households surveyed, seven have gone. Two sold, two were bought out, and three are simply not here and the houses are shut. Seven out of fifty-one is

The town did come back. It came back smaller, and it is carrying a sea wall decision it has not made and a hall it has decided to keep without quite saying why.

5C • Answer

- ## 5D • Vocabulary in context

the cynical one · bought out · an edit · insisting on · available to be photographed

5E • The counter-text

6in}

The brochure page — Six photographs, four numbers, and the number fourteen does not appear.

Read the brochure page and answer.

1. What is the headline, and how many photographs are there?
2. Which numbers appear in the brochure, and which do not?
3. What does the small print say about who the campaign is funded by?
4. One caption describes something that is still unfinished. Which, and how is it worded?

5F • Two texts

The feature says seven of fifty-one households have gone. The brochure says "a community of fifty-one households".

Put those two facts together. Is the brochure lying? Two sentences.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

The words you cannot point at {width=6.

6in}

A thing, a kind of thing, and the thing — Four steps from a noun with nothing in front of it to one with a finger pointing at it.

6A • Sort — concrete or abstract?

Two columns, and put the right article beside each.

hall • memory • boat • truth • community • pier • identity • reputation • wall • change

Two of the abstract ones can also be concrete. Which, and in what sentence?

6B • Chunk completion

1. The whole _____ took fourteen months.
2. It is a kind _____ apology, though nobody calls it that.
3. The one _____ said it first was never named.
4. In the _____ they voted to keep it.
5. She can sum _____ the whole year in one sentence, and does.
6. It's not _____ simple.

6C • Abstract nouns and the article

Truth matters. — all truth, everywhere. The truth about that night. — one particular truth. A truth that nobody wants. — one of several.

Write the three versions for each of these: memory · change · community.

A STORY ABOUT A TOWN, and THE STORY OF THE TOWN

Two sentences, four articles, and only one of them can be argued with.

_____ memory is unreliable.

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

One word, two sounds

One word, two sounds, three jobs

The has a weak form, a strong form, and a stressed form that means something else again.

the town

before a vowel sound: /ði/

the hall

stressed: the real one, and no other

{width=6.

6in}

One word, two sounds, three jobs — The has a weak form, a strong form, and a stressed form that means something else again.

7A • Hear Track 10.3

the town → /ðə taʊn/ — before a consonant the only one → /ði: əʊnli wʌn/ — before a vowel
THE town → /ði: taʊn/ — stressed, and it now means *the real one

7B • Say

Say all three. Then say the sentence three times, faster:

The truth about the only night that matters.

7C • Make it mean something

Say these two:

It's a story about a town. (any town) It's THE story of THE town. (this one, and no other)

The second one is doing something the first cannot. What?

7D • Fluency 20

Twenty seconds: three nouns, each said with no article, with a, and with the. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing C • THE PERFORMANCE

How a place changed • 110 words

{width=6.

6in}

Fifty-one households, before and after — The same street, counted in January, in September, and a year later.

8A • Read the model

The kitchen is finished. The floor went down in August, eight months after the water, and it is a slightly different colour from the one that came up, which I did not choose and have decided not to mind. [a concrete thing, a date, and one small refusal of sentiment]

What has not changed is that I still look at the yard drain every time it rains hard. I expect I will do that for the rest of my life and I am fairly relaxed about it. [the continuity, and it is a habit rather than a feeling]

People say we are the town that came back. We are a town that came back smaller, and I would rather be in a true sentence than a good one. [the correction, and the whole argument is in the difference between the and a]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. The first paragraph is about the colour of a floor. Why not about how she felt?
2. The last sentence turns on one article. Point at it, and say what it does.

8B • The anti-model

Our town has been through a difficult time but we have come back stronger than ever. The community spirit here is amazing and everyone has pulled together. We are proof that a town can survive anything.

Correct English, and no town in it. Name three things it does not say — and the one word in it that the feature in Part 5 would object to.

8C • Plan

one concrete thing, with a date → one thing that has not changed → the story people tell → your own sentence, and make the articles do the work

8D • Write — 110 words

8E • Peer review — two criteria

☐ Is there one concrete object with a date attached? ☐ Does one article in the piece carry an argument?

8F • Write it again • 8G • Publish

On the wall, with the brochure page from Part 5E beside it.

WORK FILE • The Client Problem

Saying no to a client and still being there at minute ten Four moves. The second one is where most of these conversations fail.

The captions aren't."	3 something real, not a gesture  "We can add a page, and you write it."	4 and now it exists  "Your page, our line, and we both sign off the proof." minute 20

{width=6.

6in}

Saying no to a client and still being there at minute ten — Four moves. The second one is where most of these conversations fail.

9A • Twenty minutes and a disagreement 📞 Track 10.4

The agency's account manager meets the committee. Listen.

1. What does the agency say it is willing to change?
2. What does the committee ask for that the agency cannot give, and why not?
3. Who proposes the thing that is eventually agreed?

9B • The four moves

hearing the objection properly · separating what you can and cannot change · offering something real · agreeing what is written down

Match each to one phrase.

"Say that again — I want to get it right." · "The line is in print. The captions aren't." · "We can add a page, and you write it." · "So: your page, our line, and we both sign off the proof."

9C • Saying no to a client without losing them

Which of these four is the strongest, and why?

1. "I'm afraid that's not possible."
2. "We can't change the line. Here's what we can change."
3. "I'll see what I can do."
4. "That's a fair point and I don't have an answer today."

9D • Your turn

In pairs. Ten minutes. One of you is a client who wants something you cannot give. You must say no in the first three minutes and still be talking at minute ten.

9E • Transfer

Find one thing this week that you have to refuse. Refuse it, and offer one real alternative. Bring what happened.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

{width=6.

6in}

A sentence about yourselves — Half the class sees the brochure. Half sees the feature. Rebuild the argument by speaking.

10A • Relay

Half the class sees the brochure. Half sees the feature. Rebuild the whole argument by speaking. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify

Explain the brochure page from Part 5E to somebody who lived through the flood. Four sentences only.

Plan: what it says → what it does not say → who paid for it → what you can ask for

10C • Compress

The feature in Part 5 into thirty-five words, keeping the last sentence's point.

10D • Online

Write one message to the agency: you support the campaign, you are asking for one page, and here is the sentence you want on it.

10E • Your language

Does your language have articles? If not, how does it say a town and the town? Say it's the story of the town in both languages, and explain to a partner what carries the difference.

Part 11 • The Decision ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

A sentence about yourselves

The agency will run the town that came back for three years. It would bring about nine thousand visitors a year. Seven of the fifty-one households have gone.

- Agree. It is true. The town did come back, and the money would pay for the drain.
- Refuse. Eimear says it is a story about what happened to the town told by people it did not happen to, and that the town spent a year insisting on accuracy.
- Agree, with a page. The campaign runs. The town writes one page of the brochure, in its own words, including the seven.

11A • The evidence

1. The brochure page from Part 5E — and the numbers that are not on it.
2. The chart — households, before, after, and now.
3. The voice. One of the seven, by phone, twenty seconds: "I've no objection at all. I'd like to be in it, actually. I'd like somebody to put in writing that we were there, because in about ten years the only record of it will be the brochure, and we are not in the brochure."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Everybody says one. Use the frame.

I think the town should _____, because _____.

Words you can use: identity • truth • story • reputation • community • belong • outsider • genuine

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think the town should _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

Agree, with the page, and put the seven on it by name with their permission. The line is true and refusing it costs the drain; but a town that has spent a year arguing about eleven-minute clocks and forty-one-word notices cannot then accept a sentence about itself without a footnote. The page is the footnote. It also solves the thing the woman on the phone actually asked for, which nobody in that room had thought to ask her about.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. They agreed, with the page. The agency accepted in one meeting and was, by every account, relieved — it had expected a fight about the line itself.

Six of the seven agreed to be named. The seventh asked not to be, and the page says and one household who has asked not to be named, which Eimear says is the best sentence on it.

The campaign ran. Visitor numbers were about six thousand in the first year, not nine. The drain was funded in the second year, partly from visitor levy and mostly from the county, who had been going to fund it anyway and had not said so.

They got the page. The numbers were two thirds of the promise. And the money was coming regardless.

Was it the right decision? Say why — and say what the page is actually for.

Part 12 • Landing all three lines

12A • Recycle — ten items

- _____ water came in at ten. (we know which)
- _____ truth matters. (in general)
- It's _____ story about _____ town. (any town)
- Some want to put it behind _____ .
- It's not _____ simple.
- (Unit 9) _____ of the last two has insurance. (zero of two)
- (Unit 8) The hall, _____ was built in 1884, is the oldest.
- (Unit 6) The rope _____ (must / break) in the night.
- (Unit 3) By the time we arrived, it _____ (already / start).
- (A2.1 U10) Could you tell me where the office _____ ?

12B • Consolidate
