

Table of Contents

English Animated — A1.1 • Starting Out

Escola Monte, Lisbon

About this volume

English Animated A1.1 • Starting Out — Escola Monte, Lisbon.

This volume contains 10 of 10 units, written in full: every text, every task, every figure drawn. Units are 20 pages each at B-level and 22 at A-level, which is the extent specified in the series plan.

A1.1 • Unit 1 • The Yellow Building

English Animated · Starting Out · Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 6–27 · 22 pp · ~9 hours This is the first unit of the first book. Nothing is assumed.

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

```
{width=6.
```

6in}

Escola Monte, Monday, 9.05 — Fourteen things to find. One of the cats has a name tag, and you can read it.

Who is in this room?

By the end of this unit you can introduce yourself and one other person to a group.

◆ A • THE WORLD

The people in a new place, and how they say who they are

◆ B • THE SYSTEM

am · is · are · I, you, he, she, it, we, they · 22 words for people and places · numbers 0–100 · the sounds /ɪ/ and /i:/

◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

You stand up and introduce yourself and one other person

0A • Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ a teacher ☐ a student ☐ a desk ☐ a door ☐ a window ☐ a clock ☐ a cat ☐ a café ☐ a table
☐ a chair ☐ a bag ☐ a phone ☐ a tram ☐ a street

Four of these words are not in the picture. Which four?

a car · a dog · a bus · a book · a tree · a bicycle

0B • Guess it

Look at the people in reception. Who is new here today? How do you know? Say one thing. You can use these words:

bag · map · looking · he · she

0C • Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

Who is in this room?

Say the names you know. Say "I don't know" for the others. That is fine — it is Monday. You will listen to this again on the last page of this unit.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — people

6in}

Six people, and what joins them — Not a list of jobs. A ring of people, and a word on every line.

Ana • Portugal	reception	She is here every day.
Teresa • Portugal	teacher	She is in room 3.
Yusuf • Egypt	student	He is new.
Lin • Korea	student	She is here for three years.
Marco • Brazil	café	He is next door.
Bruno • ?	cat	He is on the step.

1B • Meet — the words

name • country • city • student • teacher • class • friend • man • woman • people • address • email

Write each word under the right picture.

Twelve things. Twelve words. Put each word under the right one.

- name · address · email

- class · teacher · student

- bag · phone · people

— man · woman · friend

6in}

1C • Sort — people or places?

country · woman · class · city · name · friend · address · teacher · school · student

1D • Countries and people

Now say them. Where is the strong part of the word? Mark it.

One of these six is different from the other five. Which one?

first name · family name · Where are you from? · This is my friend.

1. Somebody asks you to fill in a form. → _____
2. You meet somebody for the first time. → _____

3. You are with a friend and you meet your teacher. → _____
4. Somebody says a long name and you only need the short part. → _____

1F • The hard one

f How do you spell it?

Practise it three times. You will use it in Part 9 and you will use it for the rest of your life.

1G • Own it

Write four things on a card. Do not write your name.

a city · a number · a country · a word you like

Give the card to your teacher. The class guesses whose card it is.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

2A • Monday morning, nine o'clock 🎧 Track 1.1

6in}

Monday morning, nine o'clock — He is new. She is here every day.

Before you listen. Look at the picture. What does Yusuf want? Choose one.

☐ a coffee ☐ a classroom ☐ a taxi ☐ a cat

Listen once. Answer one question.

What is Yusuf's room number?

Listen again. Complete the table.

First name

Family name

Country

Room

Listen again. True or false?

1. Ana knows Yusuf's name. ☐ T ☐ F
2. Yusuf spells his name for her. ☐ T ☐ F
3. Yusuf is in room 2. ☐ T ☐ F
4. The grey cat has the name tag. ☐ T ☐ F

Notice. Here are four sentences from the recording.

I am Yusuf. · She is in room 3. · You are in room 3 too. · They are always there.

One word changes four times. Which word? Write the four forms.

2B • Decoding clinic Track 1.2

Twenty seconds of the same conversation, at full speed. Four times, four jobs.

1. How many words in Ana's first sentence?
2. Catch the two numbers.
3. I'm — how many words is that really?
4. Say the alphabet with Ana. She goes fast. Keep up.

Transcripts are on page 148. Not before you finish.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 B • THE SYSTEM

am • is • are — and who they belong to

3A • Notice

Look at the four sentences in Part 2 again.

1. Which word goes with I?
2. Which word goes with she, he and it?
3. Which word goes with you, we and they?
4. One of these three groups has three words in it. Which?

3B • See

{width=6.

6in}

Who gets which word — One person speaking. One person spoken about. More than one.

3C • Know

I	am	I am a student.
he · she · it	is	She is a teacher.
you · we · they	are	They are in room 3.

Short forms — what people actually say.

I'm · you're · he's · she's · it's · we're · they're

Watch out. You is one person and more than one person. It is always are. You are my teacher. You are my class.

Why it matters. This is the most common verb in English. You will say it a hundred times today.

{width=6.

6in}

Not, and the swap — For a negative, put not after the verb. For a question, swap the first two words.

–

I am not / I'm not · she is not / she isn't · they are not / they aren't

?

Am I...? · Is she...? · Are you...?

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with am, is or are.

Ana (1) _____ at the desk. She (2) _____ Portuguese. Yusuf and Lin (3) _____ students. Yusuf (4) _____ from Egypt and Lin (5) _____ from Korea. I (6) _____ in room 3. You (7) _____ in room 3 too. We (8) _____ in the same class. The cats (9) _____ on the step. They (10) _____ always there.

3E • Use — guided

Make the sentences negative, then make them questions.

1. She is a teacher. → _____ → _____
2. They are in the café. → _____ → _____
3. I am late. → _____ → _____
4. You are Brazilian. → _____ → _____

3F • Use — open

Find three people in the room. For each one, find out and write down:

their name · their country · one more thing

Then tell the class about one of them. Start: This is _____. She is...

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. I _____ a student.
2. Marco _____ from Brazil.
3. We _____ in the same class.
4. _____ you Teresa?
5. The cats _____ not in the café.
6. She _____ not my teacher.

0–3 → Workbook pp. 4–6. 4–5 → Part 6 will fix it. 6 → the extension on p. 21.

The verb that goes missing

✗ She teacher.

•

and then a noun, with no verb between them

She

Many languages join a person to a job with nothing in between. English will not do it. Without is there is no sentence, only two words, and a listener keeps waiting for the rest.

✓ She is a teacher.

•

is - the verb, and then a

She

Two small words do the work: is joins the person to the job, and a says one of many. English needs both, every time, in every sentence of this kind.

What the writer thought:
This is the commonest sentence in the first month of English and the commonest thing to leave out. Say it aloud ten times: She IS A teacher.

6in}

The verb that goes missing — The verb that goes missing

{width=6.

Part 4 • Speaking ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — the circle

Stand in a circle. Say three things about yourself. Ten seconds. Move one place to the left. Say the same three things to a new person. Eight seconds. Move again. Six seconds.

Same words. Faster every time. That is the whole exercise.

4B • The functional core — saying who you are, and who somebody else is

Language Bank

you	I'm ____ . · I'm from ____ . · I'm a ____ .
somebody else	This is ____ . · He's from ____ . · She's a ____ .
asking	What's your name? · Where are you from? · Sorry — how do you spell it?
answering a mistake	Not quite — it's ____ . · Almost! · That's it.

Two name badges
The same badge, filled in twice. One of them has six mistakes.

right

Mariana COSTA · Brazil · room 3

wrong

costa mariana · room3 · (no country)

Find the six. Which one would you give to a new student?
6 differences — find them all

6in}

{width=6.

Two name badges — The same badge, filled in twice. One of them has six mistakes.

Information gap. Learner A has a sign-in sheet with six names and three gaps. Learner B has the same sheet with the other three gaps. Complete it. You may only speak.

4C • The performance — the introduction 🟡

Stand up. Twenty to thirty seconds. Introduce yourself and one other person to the class.

Hello. I'm ____ . I'm from ____ . And this is ____ . He's / She's from ____ , and he's / she's a ____ .

Record it. You will need it on the last page.

4D • Observer

One person in each group does not speak. You listen for one thing only:

Did everybody get their name said correctly?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Did I say my name clearly enough for a stranger to write it down? ☐ Did I say something about the other person that was not just their name?

Part 5 • Reading ♦ A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title of the text is "The cats on the step." What do you think the text is about? Choose one.

☐ a pet shop ☐ a school ☐ a problem with cats ☐ a café

5B • Read — sixty seconds

The cats on the step

Escola Monte is a yellow building on a very steep street in Lisbon. There are four floors and sixteen classrooms. Ana is at the desk. She knows every student's name, and she knows every student's name before they arrive, because she reads the list on Sunday.

There are two cats on the step. They are not Ana's cats. They are not anybody's cats. One is grey and one is orange, and the orange one has a name tag. The tag says Bruno.

Nobody knows who put the tag on the cat.

5C • Answer

1. What colour is the building?
2. How many classrooms are there?
3. What is Ana's job?
4. Why does Ana know the names on Monday?
5. How many cats are there?
6. What is the question at the end of the text?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Find these in the text. Do not use a dictionary yet. Write what you think each one means, then check with a partner.

steep • floor • tag • nobody

5E • The counter-text

The sign-in sheet

Everybody writes on it and nobody reads it. Today it has eight lines.

NAME (CAPITALS)	ROOM	TIME
SILVA, ANA	reception	08.30
LOPES, TERESA	3	08.45
KIM, LIN	3	08.52
OKONKWO, CHIKA	2	08.55
DEKIR, EMRE	2	09.00
yusuf	?	09.05
NOGAK, PIOTR	3	09.06
SANTOS, MARCO	cafe	07.10

THE RULES AT THE TOP OF THE SHEET

Family name first	yes
Capital letters	yes
Room number	yes
Signature	no - this is not a contract

THE SIXTH LINE:

"yusuf" - one name, small letters, no room. He arrived at 9.05 and nobody had told him any of the three rules.

Family name, then first name.
Every line but one

Five people before nine o'clock

One name, no capitals, no room

No signature. It is a list, not a contract

Nobody told him. That is the whole of Part 9

{width=6.

6in}

The sign-in sheet — Everybody writes on it and nobody reads it. Today it has eight lines.

Read the sheet.

1. How many people signed in before nine o'clock?
2. Who signed in first, and where do they work?
3. The rules at the top ask for three things. Which of the three does the sixth line have?
4. One line is different from all the others. What would you do about it?

5F • Two texts

The story says Ana knows every name. The sign-in sheet shows one name she could not read.

Which one is true? Talk about it. There is more than one answer.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Numbers 0–100

One room number, six places
The same number. You have to read it and say it in six different ways.

1  On the door: 3	2  On the form: Room 3	3  On the phone: "R3"	4  Said to you: "room three"
5  In the list: 3 (Lopes)	6  Said by you: "I am in room three"

{width=6.

6in}

One room number, six places — The same number. You have to read it and say it in six different ways.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

13 thir-TEEN

30 THIR-ty

The stress moves. The meaning moves with it.

14 four-TEEN

40 FOR-ty

15 fif-TEEN

50 FIF-ty

Listen 🎧 Track 1.3. Which do you hear? Ten items.

6B • Say the number

a room • a phone number • an age • a price • a floor • a date

Your teacher says one. You say which it is. Then swap.

6C • Chunk

phone number • room number • How old are you? • How do you spell it?

Complete.

1. What's your _____ ? — It's 2-1-4-9-0-3-3-7.
2. _____ are you? — I'm twenty-two.
3. I'm in _____ 3.
4. My name is Yusuf. — Sorry, _____ do you _____ it?

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. Each one has a number and a form of be. Both must be right.

1. I ____ (be) twenty. 2. She ____ (be) in room ____ (13 / 30)?
 2. They ____ (be) fifteen and seventeen. 4. We ____ (be) on floor ____ (4).
 3. ____ (be) you forty? 6. The class ____ (be) at ____ (9.15).
-

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

/ɪ/ and /i:/ — a short sound and a long one

A short sound and a long one
The tongue hardly moves. The difference is the length, and it changes the word.

/ɪ/short, and the tongue is a little lower ship • this • it • live • fill

/i:/
long, and the tongue is high and forward sheep • these • eat • leave • feel

{width=6.

A short sound and a long one — The tongue hardly moves. The difference is the length, and it changes the word.

7A • Hear

/ɪ/	/i:/
it	eat
sit	seat
this	these
live	leave
fill	feel

Track 1.4. Which do you hear? Ten items.

7B • Say

Say each pair. Then say these sentences.

This is it. These are the seats. Please sit here. I live in Lisbon. I leave at six.

7C • Make it mean something

Two sentences. One letter different. Completely different meaning.

I'd like to live here. • I'd like to leave here.

Say each one to a partner. Your partner says which one you said. If they get it wrong, say it again — do not explain.

7D • Fluency 20

Twenty seconds: your name, your country, your city, and one thing you like. Three times. Faster each time. Record the first and the third.

Part 8 • Writing C • THE PERFORMANCE

Introduce yourself • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

My name is Mariana Costa. Mariana is my first name and Costa is my family name. I am from Recife, a city in Brazil. [says where, then says where that is – the reader may not know] I am twenty-four and I am a nurse. I am in room 3. My friend Lin is in room 3 too. She is Korean.

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. Why does she explain which part is her first name?
2. She says from Recife, a city in Brazil. Why does she add the second part?
3. The last two sentences are about somebody else. Why are they there?

8B • The anti-model

My name is Mariana. I am from Brazil. I am twenty-four. I am a nurse. I am in room 3. My friend is Lin. She is from Korea.

This is correct English. Why is the first one better? Say one thing.

8C • Plan

my name → which part is which → my country → my city → my age or my job → one other person

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

Swap with a partner. Read once. Tick, then sign your name.

☐ Can I write your name correctly from this? ☐ Is there one other person in it?

8F • Publish

Your text goes on the wall by the door, with your photo. The wall is how the school learns your name.

Part 9 • The File A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

WORK FILE • The front desk

6in}

The desk from behind — Four layers. The learner only ever sees the first one.

9A • The form

6in}

Spelling a name out loud — Five steps. Step four is the one everybody forgets.

Complete the form for yourself.

FAMILY NAME (block capitals)

First name

Country

City

Email

Phone

9B • Spelling out loud

 Track 1.5. The alphabet, twice: slowly, then at normal speed.

The eight that cause trouble. Say them. Then say them to a partner with your eyes closed.

A • E • I • G • J • M • N • Y

Now spell these: your family name • your city • your street.

9C • Role play — the front desk

Card A — you arrive. It is your first day. Nobody is expecting you, because your name was written down wrong. You have to fix it without being rude.

Card B — you are at the desk. You have a list. The name on the list is close to the name you are hearing, but not the same. You have four people waiting.

Run it. Then swap cards and run it again.

9D • The thing that always happens

Somebody says your name wrong.

Choose a reply. There are no wrong answers, but they are not the same.

☐ That's fine. ☐ Almost — it's ____. ☐ Not quite. Can I show you? ☐ Sorry — it's ____.
With the stress on the second part.

When would you use each one?

9E • Transfer — before next week

Find out how to say one person's name correctly — a classmate, a colleague, a neighbour. Not from a list. Ask them. Come back and say it.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

6in}

One morning at Escola Monte — Half the class has the sign-in sheet. Half has the pigeonholes. Rebuild the morning.

10A • Relay

Half the class sees the left side. Half sees the right. You cannot show each other.

Build the whole picture by speaking. Ten minutes. You may say: Who is in room _____ ? • Where is _____ from? • How do you spell it?

10B • Simplify — for one person

A new student arrives tomorrow. She speaks no Portuguese and very little English.

Write her four sentences. Only four. Which four does she actually need?

10C • Online

Write one message for the class group chat:

Hi everyone — I'm _____ ...

It will be read by twenty people you have not met. Keep it to twenty-five words.

10D • Your language

How do you say "What's your name?" in your language? Teach it to one other person. Then write both versions side by side.

English: _____ My language: _____

Is one of them longer? Is one of them more polite?

Part 11 • The Decision ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

Yusuf, or Joseph?

Yusuf is from Cairo. His name is Yusuf.

At the café next door, Marco calls him Joseph. In the first week, Yusuf corrected him twice. Marco said sorry twice. Now it is week three and Marco still says Joseph, and he says it in a friendly way, every morning, in front of other people.

Yusuf has two choices. Neither one is free.

11A • The evidence

Two ways to put the names on the pigeonholes
Learner A has the list as it is. Learner B has the list by first name.

by family name

DEMIR · KIM · LOPES · NOWAK · SILVA

by first name

Ana · Emre · Lin · Piotr · Teresa · (Yusuf?)

Which one would you find your own name in faster, and which one would Ana find a name in faster?

6 differences — find them all

{width=6.6in}

Two ways to put the names on the pigeonholes — Learner A has the list as it is. Learner B has the list by first name.

 Track 1.6. Lin, 25 seconds: "I changed mine in my first month here. It was easier. Now nobody at work knows my real name and I don't know how to start."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think Yusuf should _____, because _____.

Words you can use: easy · difficult · polite · his name · every day · in front of people · friendly · tired

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think Yusuf should _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

I think Yusuf should say it one more time, but differently. Two corrections did not work, and Marco is not unkind — he is friendly, and that makes it harder. So: say it when nobody is waiting, and write it down. People remember a name they have seen.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. Yusuf wrote his name on a napkin and gave it to Marco on a quiet afternoon. Marco kept it. He now says Yusuf, and he says it slightly too carefully, which Yusuf finds funny.

Lin never went back to her name. She says she does not mind. She also says she minds.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

Yusuf's reasoning was good and it worked. Would it still have been good reasoning if Marco had not kept the napkin?

Part 12 • Landing ♦ all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

This is Unit 1 of Book 1. There is nothing before it. So everything here is from this unit — and from Unit 2 onwards, four items will come from earlier in this book and two from the book before.

1. She _____ a teacher. 2. They _____ from Korea. 3. I _____ not late.
2. _____ you in room 3? 5. Marco is from Brazil. He is _____ .
3. What's your _____ name — Yusuf or Hassan?
4. Sorry, how do you _____ it?
5. Thirteen or thirty? (listen) _____
6. I am twenty-two. = I _____ twenty-two years old.
7. _____ is my friend Lin.
8. The cats _____ on the step.
9. Ana is at the _____ .

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Write six sentences about the people in your class. Use am, is and are — all three. Use two numbers. Use two countries. Name three people.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

I can...	My evidence	Sure?
say my name and spell it so a stranger can write it down	your Part 9C role play	☐ ☒ ☒
introduce myself and one other person to a group	your Part 4C recording	☐ ☒ ☒
use am , is and are correctly	your Part 3G score	☐ ☒ ☒
understand and say numbers 0–100	your Part 6A score	☐ ☒ ☒

12D • Replay

Find your thirty seconds from Part 0C. Listen. Now record it again: Who is in this room?

Listen to both. Count the names. The first time, how many? Now?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

PEOPLE • student • teacher • friend • man • woman • people • class WHERE FROM • country • city • address • Portuguese • Brazilian • Egyptian • Korean • Nigerian • Polish NAMES • name • first name • family name • How do you spell it? • What's your name? CONTACT • email • phone number NUMBERS • zero • one • two • three • ten • twelve • twenty • thirty • forty • fifty • a hundred MEETING • Where are you from? • This is my friend.

12F • Next

Unit 2 • What does your body do all day? You can say who you are. Next: what you do.

A1.1 • Unit 2 • The Six O'Clock Class

English Animated • Starting Out • Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 28–49 • 22 pp • ~9 hours

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

The same street, twenty to seven — Fourteen things to find. Two of the clocks do not agree, and one of them is wrong.

What does your body do all day?

By the end of this unit you can say what you do every day, and when you do it.

◆ A • THE WORLD

A street at twenty to seven, and four people who are already working

◆ B • THE SYSTEM

present simple: I, you, we, they • 22 words for the day and the body • days, times, o'clock, half past • the sounds /s/ /z/ /ɪz/

◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

You tell the class about one day, from waking up to going to bed

0A • Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ a clock ☐ a cup ☐ a bed ☐ a light ☐ a door ☐ a window ☐ a hand ☐ a head ☐ a cat ☐ a tram ☐ a chair ☐ a bag ☐ a street ☐ a café

Three of these words are not in the picture. Which three?

a teacher • a student • a desk • a phone • a book

0B • Guess it

Look at the four people. Who gets up first? How do you know? Say one thing. You can use these words:

work • open • early • tired • six

0C • Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

What do you do every morning?

Say three things. Use I. It does not have to be interesting. You will listen to this again on the last page.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — the day

6in}

A day is a circle — Six moments, and the hours on the lines between them. It comes back to where it started.

wake up	6.00	Marco wakes up at six.
get up	6.05	Five minutes later.
have breakfast	6.30	At the café. He makes it.
work	7.00–15.00	Eight hours.
study	19.00	Two evenings a week.
go to bed	22.30	Early, for a city.

1B • Meet — the words

wash • brush • eat • drink • work • study • sleep • tired • hungry • thirsty • happy

Write each word under the right picture.

One flat at six in the morning

Eleven things. Eleven words. Put each word in the right place.

the bed

somebody wakes up, and does not get up sleep · tired · the bed · the window

the bathroom

wash · brush · the light is on wash · brush · the hand · the head

the kitchen

eat · drink · the cup · the chair eat · drink · hungry · thirsty

the door

the bag is here, by the door, from last night

the bag · the door · and then the street

6in}

One flat at six in the morning — Eleven things. Eleven words. Put each word in the right place.

1C • Sort — a thing you do, or a way you feel?

Put each word in the right box. One word can go in both. Which, and why?

sleep · drink · happy · tired · wash · hungry · work · study · eat · thirsty

YOU DO IT	YOU FEEL IT	BOTH
-----------	-------------	------

1D • The body

head	I wash my head.
hand	I wash my hands.
arm	My arms are tired.
leg	My legs are tired.
back	My back is tired.
eye	My eyes are tired.

Now say them. Five of these six are usually said in the plural. Which one is not, and why?

1E • Stretch — the phrases you will need today

have breakfast · go to bed · feel well · wake up · get up

Match each phrase to the moment you need it.

- The alarm makes a noise. → _____
- You put your feet on the floor. → _____
- You eat at seven in the morning. → _____
- The doctor asks you a question. → _____
- It is half past ten at night. → _____

1F • The hard one

f What time is it?

Practise it three times. It is four words and people say it as two.

1G • Own it

Write three times on a card. Do not write your name.

the time you get up • the time you eat • the time you go to bed

Give the card to your teacher. The class guesses whose card it is.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

The counter, twenty to seven
He has been here ten minutes. She has fourteen hours in front of her.

Marco
he opens at half past six

Ana
she opens the school at half past eight

6in}

The counter, twenty to seven — He has been here ten minutes. She has fourteen hours in front of her.

2A • Twenty to seven 📻 Track 2.1

Before you listen. Marco opens the café. Ana opens the school. Guess: who starts work first?

Listen once. One question. What time does Marco get up?

Listen again. Complete the table.

	Gets up	Starts work	Goes to bed
Marco
Ana
the cleaner

Listen again. True or false?

1. Marco gets up at six. ☐ T ☐ F

2. Ana works on Saturday. ☐ T ☐ F
3. The cleaner starts at five. ☐ T ☐ F
4. Marco goes to bed late. ☐ T ☐ F

Noticing. Four sentences from the recording.

1. I get up at six.
2. We open at half past six.
3. They start at five.
4. You work on Saturday.

All four use the same shape. What is after I, we, they and you?

2B • Decoding clinic Track 2.2

Twenty seconds of Marco at speed. Three jobs.

1. Count the times he says a number.
2. Which word does he say twice — work or open?
3. He says half past six very quickly. How many sounds do you hear?

Transcripts, page 148.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 B • THE SYSTEM

What you do every day

3A • Notice

Look at the four sentences in Part 2 again.

1. Is the verb different after I, we, they and you?
2. Where is the time — at the start of the sentence, or at the end?
3. Can the time go in the other place?
4. One of the four sentences is about more than one person. Which?

3B • See

Four people, one verb

Look at the four boxes. They are the same colour because they are the same word.

I work	you work	we work	they work	he work ?
I	you	we	they	Unit 3 - here it changes

Four boxes, one word. The verb does not change for I, you, we or they. In Unit 3 it changes for he, she and it - and that is the only place in the whole language where it changes at all.

{width=6.

6in}

Four people, one verb — Look at the four boxes. They are the same colour because they are the same word.

3C • Know

I	work	I work at six.
you	work	You work on Saturday.
we	work	We work together.
they	work	They work at night.

The verb does not change. Not yet. In Unit 3 it changes for he, she and it, and that is the only place it changes in the whole language.

Do, and where it goes
For a negative, do not drops in before the verb. For a question, do jumps to the front.

NEGATIVE I do not work on Saturday

↕ the verb does not move. Only do moves.

QUESTION Do you work on Saturday ?

Negative: do not, or don't, goes in front of the verb. Question: do goes to the very front of the sentence. The verb stays as it is, both times. It never takes an s and it never moves.

{width=6.

6in}

Do, and where it goes — For a negative, do not drops in before the verb. For a question, do jumps to the front.

–	I do not work / I don't work · They don't open on Sunday
?	Do you work on Saturday? · Do they open early?

Where the time goes. I get up at six. · At six I get up. Both are English. The first one is normal. The second one puts the time first because the time is the news.

Why it matters. This is how you say anything that is true every day, and most of what you say about your life is true every day.

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with work, don't work, get up, open or don't open.

Marco (1) _____ at six. He (2) _____ the café at half past six. Ana and the cleaner (3) _____ in the same building. They (4) _____ on Sunday. I (5) _____ on Saturday — I study. (6) _____ you work on Saturday?

3E • Use — guided

Make each one negative, then make it a question.

1. They open at six.
2. I eat breakfast at home.

3. We study on Tuesday.
4. You work at night.
5. They go to bed early.

3F • Use — open

In pairs. Say five true things about your day. Your partner says the same or not the same.

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. I _____ (get up) at seven.
2. They _____ (not open) on Sunday.
3. _____ you _____ (work) on Saturday?
4. We _____ (study) on Tuesday and Thursday.
5. × I am get up at six. → correct it.
6. × Do you works on Saturday? → correct it.

Two verbs in one slot

✗ I am work at six.

There is room for one verb here and two have arrived. English takes am for things you are and work for things you do, and it will not take both at once. A listener hears am and waits for a job or a place, and then gets a verb instead.

✓ I work at six.

One verb, and the time after it. This is the shape of almost everything you will say about your own life: a person, a thing they do, and when they do it. Three parts, in that order.

What the writer thought:
 Am, is and are are not helpers here. You learned I am a student in Unit 1 and the am stuck. For an action, drop it: I work, I get up, I study. Say it aloud: I work at six - not I am work at six.

{width=6.

6in}

Two verbs in one slot — Two verbs in one slot

0-3 → Workbook pp. 8-11. 4-5 → Part 6. 6 → page 47.

Part 4 • Speaking ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — the clock round

Everybody says one thing they do and the time. The next person repeats it and adds theirs. Stop when somebody forgets.

4B • The functional core — saying when

Two timetables for the same week

The same template, filled in twice. One of them you can meet somebody with.

with times

Mon 7.00 · Wed 19.00 · Sat 10.30

without times

early · after work · in the morning

Find the six. Which one can you use to arrange to meet somebody, and why can you not use the other one?

6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

Two timetables for the same week — The same template, filled in twice. One of them you can meet somebody with.

Language Bank

the time	at six · at half past six · at seven o'clock
the day	on Monday · on Saturday · every day
the part of the day	in the morning · in the afternoon · in the evening · at night
how often	every day · two days a week

Information gap. Learner A has Marco's week. Learner B has Ana's week. Find one hour when they are both free.

4C • The performance — one day

Tell the class about one day. One minute. You must say:

what time you get up · two things you do in the morning · one thing you do in the evening · what time you go to bed

Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did every sentence have a time in it?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Did I use at, on and in correctly? ☐ Did I say six sentences without stopping?

Part 5 • Reading ♦ A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title is "Four people, one street, one morning." What time do you think the first person gets up?

5B • Read — sixty seconds

Four people, one street, one morning

Marco gets up at six. He opens the café at half past six. He does not have breakfast at home — he makes it at work and eats it standing up. He goes to bed at half past ten.

Dona Filipa cleans the school. She starts at five. She finishes at eight, and then she goes to another building and starts again. She sleeps in the afternoon, from one to four.

Ana gets up at seven. She opens the school at half past eight. She has breakfast at home with the radio on, and she says this is the best half hour of her day.

Yusuf gets up at eleven on Saturday and he is not sorry about it. On Monday to Friday he gets up at seven, and on Saturday he sleeps.

Four people. One street. Nobody is in the same place at the same time, and they all think the street is quiet.

5C • Answer

1. What time does Marco open the café?
2. Where does Marco eat breakfast?
3. What time does Dona Filipa start?
4. What does she do in the afternoon?
5. Why does Ana say the half hour is the best of her day?
6. The last sentence says they all think the street is quiet. Why do they all think that?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Guess from the text. Then check.

standing up • finishes • another building • with the radio on • he is not sorry about it

5E • The counter-text

The sign on the school door
Seven days down the side. Read it before you answer, and then read the bottom.

DAY	OPEN	CLOSE
MONDAY	08.30	21.00
TUESDAY	08.30	21.00
WEDNESDAY	08.30	21.00
THURSDAY	08.30	21.00
FRIDAY	08.30	19.00
SATURDAY	09.30	13.00
SUNDAY	CLOSED	-

THE EVENING CLASSES
Monday and Wednesday	19.00 - 21.00
Tuesday and Thursday	19.00 - 21.00
The last tram up the hill	21.10

AND AT THE BOTTOM, IN PEN:

"The cleaner comes in at 5 by the back door. Do not ring the bell before 8.30 - nobody at the desk." Written by Ana, for the delivery drivers, and read by everybody except the delivery drivers.

Five days the same. Two days different

Saturday is on the sign - and it is an hour later
One day closed. Only one

The class ends at nine. The tram goes at ten past

Written in pen, so it was not true when the sign was printed

{width=6.6in}

6in}

The sign on the school door — Seven days down the side. Read it before you answer, and then read the bottom.

Read the sign and answer.

1. What time does the school open on Monday?
2. What time does it open on Saturday, and is that on the sign?
3. Which day is it closed?
4. What does the handwritten note say, and who is it for?

5F • Two texts

The sign says the school opens at half past eight. The text says Dona Filipa starts at five.

Is the sign wrong? Say one sentence.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Days, hours and half hours

Half past six, in six places
The same half hour. You have to read it, and then say it, in six different forms.

1

On the clock: the hand halfway down

2

On the phone: 06:30

3

In the timetable: 6:30

4

In the note: "1/2 past 6"

5

Said to you: "half six"

6

Said by you: "half past six"

{width=6.

6in}

Half past six, in six places — The same half hour. You have to read it, and then say it, in six different forms.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

Wednesday

three syllables are written, two are said: WENZ-day half past six

not half to seven

at night

not in the night

on Monday

not in Monday

6B • Say the time

6.00 • 6.30 • 7.00 • 7.30 • 9.00 • 9.30 • 10.30 • 11.00

6C • Chunk

1. _____ past seven
2. _____ o'clock
3. _____ day — Monday to Sunday, all of them
4. in the _____ — before twelve
5. at _____ — when it is dark
6. _____ Saturday — one day a week

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. at, on or in?

1. _____ night

2. _____ Monday
3. _____ Saturday afternoon
4. _____ six o'clock
5. _____ the morning
6. _____ half past eight

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

/s/ /z/ and /ɪz/ — one letter, three sounds

One letter, three sounds
Nothing changes in the spelling. What decides the sound is the letter in front of it.

/s/	/z/	/ɪz/
after a quiet sound, the s stays quiet cats books eats works stops your voice is off for /t/ /k/ /p/ /f/, so it stays off for the s	after a loud sound, the s turns on too days eyes legs opens feels your voice is on for a vowel and for /h/ /g/ /l/, so it stays on	after a hissing sound, a whole syllable appears buses watches washes closes finishes two hisses cannot touch, so English puts a small vowel between them

{width=6.

6in}

One letter, three sounds — Nothing changes in the spelling. What decides the sound is the letter in front of it.

7A • Hear

/s/ after a quiet sound: cats · books · eats · works /z/ after a loud sound: days · eyes · legs · opens /ɪz/ after a hissing sound: buses · watches · washes · closes

7B • Say

Say each group three times. Then say this:

He washes, he works, he opens. — three endings, one sentence.

7C • Make it mean something

Say these two:

My eyes. /z/ My eye's tired. /z/ too — and it is not a plural at all.

One sound, two jobs. Which is which?

7D • Fluency 20 ●

Twenty seconds: six things you do every day, with the time. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

My day • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

I get up at half past six. [a time, in the first sentence]

I wash and I have breakfast. I drink coffee, not tea. [two ordinary things, and one small true detail]

I start work at eight. I work until four. [the long part of the day, in one sentence]

In the evening I study English on Tuesday and Thursday. I go to bed at eleven. [the days, and the last time]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. The first sentence is a time. Why not a name?
2. I drink coffee, not tea. What does that one small detail do?
3. Work is eight hours and it is one sentence. Is that right?

8B • The anti-model

I get up. I wash. I have breakfast. I go to work. I work. I come home. I eat. I go to bed.

Correct English, and it could be anybody. Add four words to it and make it one person.

8C • Plan

the time you get up → two things in the morning → work or school, with the hours → the evening, and the time you go to bed

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

☐ Is there a time in the first sentence? ☐ Is there one small thing that is only true about this person?

8F • Publish

On the wall, with no names. The class matches the day to the person.

Part 9 • The File ♦ A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

STUDY FILE • When do you actually study?

6in}

One week, in section — The top layer is what a student plans. Each layer down is nearer to what happens.

9A • The week

6in}

The same week, five times — Five panels. Four of them are real and one of them is Sunday evening.

What people plan

two hours, five days a week

What people do	twenty minutes, three days a week
When they do it	late, and tired
What they say	I don't have time.

9B • Twenty minutes

Twenty minutes every day is more than two hours on Sunday. Not because twenty is more — because Sunday does not always happen.

When in your day is there twenty minutes that always happens? Write the time.

9C • Role play — the honest timetable

In pairs. One of you plans a week out loud. The other asks, after every line:

And what do you do now at that time?

9D • The thing that always happens

Everybody has one: a bus, a queue, a kettle, a lift. Find yours. That is where the twenty minutes is.

9E • Transfer — before next week

Write down what time you actually studied, for seven days. Do not change anything. Bring the seven times.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

6in}

{width=6.

One street, twenty-four hours, four people — Half the class has two of these people. Half has the other two. The bottom line is the answer to a question nobody asked.

10A • Relay

Half the class has Marco's day. Half has Dona Filipa's. Rebuild the street's twenty-four hours by speaking. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify — for one person

A new student asks: What time is the school open? Answer in three sentences. No lists.

10C • Online

Write one message to a classmate: say when you are free this week, and ask when they are. Two sentences.

10D • Your language

Does your language say at six and on Monday with different words? Say both in your language. How many words do you need?

Part 11 • The Decision ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

The six o'clock class

Escola Monte has an evening class at seven. Eleven students come.

Four of them work until seven and arrive late, every week. They miss the first fifteen minutes. Teresa starts again for them, every week, and the seven students who came on time wait.

The school can move the class to half past seven. Then nobody is late. But the class finishes at nine, and the last tram is at ten past nine, and three students walk home.

11A • The evidence

Room 3 at seven, and at half past seven
The same room, drawn twice, from the same place in the corridor.

seven o'clock

7 here · 4 chairs empty · light outside half past seven

11 here · 0 empty · dark outside · tram at 21.10

Find the six. One of them is in the corridor, not in the room - and it is the one that decides the question.

6 differences — find them all

{width=6.6in}

6in}

Room 3 at seven, and at half past seven — The same room, drawn twice, from the same place in the corridor.

 Track 2.6. Lin, 20 seconds: "I come at seven. I wait. I am not angry. But I get up at six and now I go home at half past nine."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think the class should start at _____, because _____.

Words you can use: work · late · tired · tram · wait · early · every week

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think the class should start at _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

Keep it at seven and do not start again. The first fifteen minutes is speaking practice, and you can walk into speaking practice late. Put the new grammar at half past. Nobody waits and nobody misses anything.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. Teresa moved the grammar to half past seven and left the first fifteen minutes for speaking. The four late students still came late. The seven others stopped waiting.

Then something she did not expect: two of the seven started coming at twenty past instead of seven, because they had worked out what the first fifteen minutes was.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

Teresa solved the problem for the four. Did she make a new one for the seven?

Part 12 • Landing ♦ all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

1. I _____ (get up) at six.
2. They _____ (not open) on Sunday.
3. _____ you _____ (work) on Saturday?
4. _____ six o'clock
5. _____ Monday
6. _____ the morning
7. _____ night
8. It is half _____ seven.
9. I have _____ at seven. (the first meal)
10. I go _____ bed at eleven.
11. My legs are _____ .
12. (Unit 1) She _____ a teacher.

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Write six sentences about one person in your family. Use they. Put a time in every sentence. Use one negative and one question.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

☐ I can say what I do every day. Evidence: 4C, 8D ☐ I can use at, on and in with times and days. Evidence: 6D ☐ I can make a negative and a question with do. Evidence: 3G ☐ I can hear and say /s/, /z/ and /ɪz/. Evidence: 7D

12D • Replay 🟡

Record 0C again. Listen to both. What is different?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

THE DAY · wake up · get up · have breakfast · work · study · go to bed · sleep THE BODY · head · hand · arm · leg · back · eye DOING · wash · brush · eat · drink FEELING · tired · hungry · thirsty · happy · feel well THE DAYS · Monday · Tuesday · Wednesday · Saturday · Sunday · every day THE TIME · morning · afternoon · evening · night · o'clock · half past · What time is it?

12F • Next

Unit 3 • What is on your screen?

A1.1 • Unit 3 • Eleven Screens

English Animated · Starting Out · Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 50–71 · 22 pp · ~9 hours

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

6in}

Room 3, eleven o'clock, from the back — Fourteen things to find. Four of the eleven screens are showing the same thing.

What is on your screen?

By the end of this unit you can ask somebody what they do, and how often they do it.

◆ A • THE WORLD	A classroom where eleven people are in two places at once
◆ B • THE SYSTEM	present simple he / she / it · do and does questions · 22 words for screens · the seven question words · question tunes, up and down
◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE	You interview a classmate about one habit and report it to the class

0A • Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ a phone ☐ a screen ☐ an app ☐ a message ☐ a photo ☐ a video ☐ a battery ☐ a charger
☐ a map ☐ a camera ☐ a cable ☐ a desk ☐ a clock ☐ a window

Three of these words are not in the picture. Which three?

a password · a notification · the internet

0B • Guess it

Look at the eleven screens. Who is working and who is not? How do you know? Say one thing. You can use these words:

look · message · photo · map · online

0C • Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

What is the first thing you look at in the morning?

Say three things. You will listen to this again on the last page.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — what a phone is made of

{width=6.

6in}

Nothing on a phone works alone — Six parts, and a line that says what each one does for the others.

screen

You look at it. It is the part that is broken.

battery

It goes from 100 to 14 in a day.

charger

Everybody has two and nobody has one.

password

The one thing on the phone that is not on the phone.

camera

Two of them, and you only use one.

app

There are ninety. You open four.

1B • Meet — the words

phone • screen • app • message • photo • video • internet • online • notification • map • camera

Write each word under the right picture.

One phone, in section

Eleven things. Eleven words. Put each word on the right layer.

the glass

you touch this. It is not the screen

the screen

the app · the message · the photo · the video

the battery

it takes most of the room and nobody draws it the back

the camera · the charger goes in here glass · screen · you touch one and see the other app · message · photo · video · notification

battery · charger · four hours, or fourteen camera · map · and the internet, which is somewhere else

{width=6.

6in}

One phone, in section — Eleven things. Eleven words. Put each word on the right layer.

1C · Sort — where does it live?

Put each word in the right box. Two of them are not things at all. Which two?

internet · message · photo · notification · map · camera · screen · app · video · online

YOU CAN TOUCH IT	IT IS ON THE SCREEN	NEITHER
------------------	---------------------	---------

1D · The verbs that go with it

turn on	I turn on my phone at seven.
turn off	I turn off my phone at eleven. Nobody believes me.
log in	You log in once a year and then you forget the password.
send a message	Four words. It takes two seconds.
take a photo	Not make a photo. English takes it.
check your phone	Eighty times a day, and you remember four.
open an app	Not start . Not put on . Open.
charge the battery	The battery is charged. You charge it.

Now say them. Three of these eight have a word in the middle that can move. Which three? (Try: I turn the phone on.)

1E · Stretch — the phrases you will need today

turn on · log in · take a photo · check your phone · charge the battery

Match each phrase to the moment you need it.

1. The screen is black and it is not broken. → _____
2. It says 4% and you are going out. → _____
3. The website asks you for your name twice. → _____
4. Your friend does something funny and you have two seconds. → _____
5. You are in a lesson and nothing is happening in your hand. → _____

1F • The hard one

f I don't understand.

Practise it three times. It is the most useful sentence in this book and most people never say it, because they think it is impolite. It is not.

1G • Own it

Write on a card: the app you open first and the app you open most. Do not write your name. The class guesses whose card it is.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

6in}

The back of room 3 — Both phones are face down. Both of them are still being thought about.

2A • Eleven o'clock, at the back 📞 Track 3.1

Before you listen. Lin asks Yusuf about his phone. Guess: does he know how often he checks it?

Listen once. One question. How many times a day does Yusuf think he checks his phone?

Listen again. Complete the table.

	Thinks	The phone says	First app
Yusuf
Lin

Listen again. True or false?

1. Yusuf turns off his phone at night. ☐ T ☐ F
2. Lin checks her phone before she gets up. ☐ T ☐ F
3. Yusuf's battery lasts all day. ☐ T ☐ F
4. Lin knows her own password. ☐ T ☐ F

Noticing. Four questions from the recording.

1. How often do you check it?
2. How often does your sister check hers?
3. What does it say?
4. Where do you put it at night?

Two of these four have does and two have do. Why?

2B • Decoding clinic Track 3.2

Twenty seconds of Lin at speed. Three jobs.

1. Count the question words you hear.
2. Her voice goes up at the end of two questions and down at the end of two. Which two go up?
3. She says how often do you as one word. Write what you hear.

Transcripts, page 149.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

One letter, and the question word in front

3A • Notice

Look at the four questions in Part 2 again.

1. Which two have do, and who are they about?
2. Which two have does, and who are they about?
3. After does, does the verb have an s on it?
4. Where is the question word — at the front, or in the middle?

3B • See

Four the same, and one with a letter on it
The fifth box is the whole of the present simple. One letter, one group of people.

I check	you check	we check	they check	he checkS
I	you	we	they	he · she · it

One letter. It goes on for he, she and it, and nowhere else in the present simple. It is the only ending this tense has, and it is the one that gets left off.

6in}

{width=6.

Four the same, and one with a letter on it — The fifth box is the whole of the present simple. One letter, one group of people.

3C • Know

I / you / we / they

check

They check their phones at night.

he / she / it

checks

She checks her phone before she gets up.

One letter, one person. The s goes on for he, she and it and nowhere else. It is the only ending the present simple has, and it is the one everybody forgets.

{width=6.

6in}

The s is only in one place at a time — When does arrives at the front, it takes the s with it. The verb gives it up.

?

Do you check your phone at night? · Does she check her phone at night?

–

I don't check it. · He doesn't check it.

? + word

Where do you put it? · How often does he look at it?

The s is only in one place at a time. Does she checks? is wrong because the s has already gone onto does. One s per question, and the helper gets it.

Why it matters. Every question you will ever ask about somebody else's life has this shape. It is the whole of asking about habits.

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with do, does, don't, doesn't, check or checks.

Lin (1) _____ her phone before she gets up. Yusuf (2) _____ not know how often he looks. (3) _____ you turn off your phone at night? Teresa (4) _____. She (5) _____ it in a drawer. Her students (6) _____ believe her.

3E • Use — guided

Make a question with the word in brackets.

1. She opens the camera first. (which app)
2. He checks his phone forty times a day. (how often)
3. They charge the battery at night. (when)
4. Teresa puts her phone in a drawer. (where)
5. Lin uses a map every morning. (why)

3F • Use — open

In pairs. Ask your partner five questions about one other person — a brother, a friend, a neighbour. Every question must have a question word in front.

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. She _____ (check) her phone at six.
2. _____ he _____ (turn off) his phone at night?
3. They _____ (not use) the school internet.
4. How often _____ your sister _____ (take) a photo?
5. × Does she checks her phone? → correct it.
6. × How often he checks it? → correct it.

The letter that gets used twice

✗ Does she checks her phone?

Two esses in one question, and English only ever pays for one. The helper does is already the he-she-it form; it did the job before the verb was reached. Putting the ending on again is like saying the same word twice and hoping nobody counts.

✓ Does she check her phone?

One ess, on the helper, at the front, where the listener hears it first. Everything after it is the plain verb. This is also why the negative is she doesn't check and never she doesn't checks.

What the writer thought:
The rule you learned in 3C was: he, she and it take an s. It is true, and here it looks as though it has stopped being true. It has not. The s is still there - it has just moved to the front of the question, onto does.

{width=6.

6in}

The letter that gets used twice — The letter that gets used twice

0-3 → Workbook pp. 12-15. 4-5 → Part 6. 6 → page 68.

Part 4 • Speaking ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — the chain question

One person asks a question with a question word. The next person answers and asks the next one. No question word may be used twice. Seven words, so the chain is seven long.

4B • The functional core — asking about habits

Two interviews, same classmate Written down by two learners, in the same ten minutes, with the same person.

question words

How often? Why? Which one? - long answers

yes / no only

Do you? Does she? - yes · no · yes

Find the six. Which learner knows something now, and which learner only knows yes?
6 differences — find them all

{width=6.6in}

Two interviews, same classmate — Written down by two learners, in the same ten minutes, with the same person.

Language Bank

the seven words

what · where · when · who · why · how · which

how + a word

how many · how much · how often asking again

How do you say...? · What does it mean? · I don't understand.

soft openers

Can I ask you something? · And you?

Information gap. Learner A has Lin's week. Learner B has Yusuf's week. Find out which of the two spends more time online, without saying a number.

4C • The performance — the interview

Interview one classmate about one habit. Two minutes. You must ask:

one how often question · one what question · one why question · one question you did not plan

Then tell the class in three sentences, using he or she. Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did every he and she sentence have the s?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Did I ask four questions and not read them? ☐ Did my voice go down at the end of the question-word questions?

Part 5 • Reading ♦ A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title is "The phone in the drawer." Whose drawer do you think it is?

5B • Read — sixty seconds

The phone in the drawer

Teresa teaches in room 3. She puts her phone in a drawer at nine o'clock and she takes it out at one. She says she does not miss it. Her students do not believe her.

Yusuf checks his phone about forty times a day. He thinks it is about ten. The phone knows the real number and it tells him on Sunday, and on Sunday he is surprised, every week.

Lin uses a map every morning. She lives in the city and she knows the way, but she turns it on anyway. She says the map is not for the way. It is for the time.

Dona Filipa has a phone with a long battery and no apps on it. She takes a photo of her grandson every week and she sends it to nobody. The photos stay on the phone.

Four phones. Four different machines, and they all have the same name.

5C • Answer

1. Where does Teresa put her phone?
2. How often does Yusuf check his phone?
3. Why does Lin turn on the map?
4. What does Dona Filipa do with her photos?
5. Why is Yusuf surprised every week and not only once?
6. The last line says four different machines. What makes them different — the phone, or the person?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Guess from the text. Then check.

she does not miss it • the real number • anyway • a long battery • they stay on the phone

5E • The counter-text

6in}

A weekly screen-time report — Everything on this page is a number the person did not choose to produce.

Read the report and answer.

1. How many hours is the weekly total?
2. Which day is the highest, and is it a weekday or the weekend?
3. How many times a day is the phone picked up?
4. What is at 06.12, and why is that the most interesting number on the page?

5F • Two texts

The text says Yusuf thinks he checks his phone about ten times. The report says the phone is picked up ninety-six times a day.

Is one of them wrong? Say one sentence.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

The seven words that open a question

One fact, six questions
Lin opens the map at 7.40. Change only the first word and six different things go missing.

1  Who opens the map at 7.40?	2  What does Lin open at 7.40?	3  When does Lin open the map?	4  Where does Lin open it?
5  Why does Lin open it?	6  How often does Lin open it?

{width=6.

6in}

One fact, six questions — Lin opens the map at 7.40. Change only the first word and six different things go missing.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

how much	for things you cannot count: how much time
how many	for things you can count: how many photos
which	when there is a short list: which app
how often	the answer is a frequency, not a time

6B • Say the questions

what • where • when • who • why • how • which

6C • Chunk

1. _____ many photos?
2. _____ much time?
3. _____ often do you check it?
4. How do you _____ ...? — when you do not have the word
5. What does it _____ ? — when you have the word and not the meaning
6. I don't _____ . — when you have neither

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. do or does?

1. Where _____ Teresa put her phone?
2. How often _____ he charge the battery?
3. Which app _____ your brother open first?
4. _____ you turn off your phone?
5. _____ she take photos?
6. _____ they log in every day?

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Two tunes, and the question decides

6in}

{width=6.

Two tunes, and the question decides — The words can be almost the same. The end of the line is not.

7A • Hear

up at the end — a yes/no question: Do you check it? ↗ Does she know? ↗ down at the end
— a question with a question word: Where do you put it? ↘ How often does he look? ↘

7B • Say

Say each one three times. Then say this pair:

Do you have a charger? ↗ Where is the charger? ↘

Same room, same person, two tunes.

7C • Make it mean something

Say these two:

You check your phone at night. ↘ — this is a fact, and I know it You check your phone at night? ↗ — this is a question, and I am surprised

Same seven words. The tune is the only difference. Which one is a question?

7D • Fluency 20

Twenty seconds: six questions about one person, each with a different question word. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing C • THE PERFORMANCE

A profile • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

My brother checks his phone before he opens his eyes. [one strong first sentence, with the s]

He has ninety apps and he opens four. He does not use the camera. [a number, and a negative]

He charges the battery twice a day. He says the phone is old. The phone is one year old. [the gap between what he says and what is true]

He turns it off on Sunday morning, for two hours. [the exception, at the end]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. The first sentence is about something that happens before he is awake. Why start there?
2. The phone is one year old. Why is that one short sentence and not part of the one before?
3. The last sentence is the only good news. Why is it last?

8B • The anti-model

My brother has a phone. He uses it a lot. He has many apps. He likes his phone. It is a good phone.

Correct English, and it could be anybody. Add two numbers and one negative, and make it one person.

8C • Plan

one habit nobody chooses → a number → something he or she does not do → the exception, at the end

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

☐ Does every he and she verb have the s? ☐ Is there one number that is true about this person and nobody else?

8F • Publish

On the wall, with no names. The class matches the profile to the writer's partner.

Part 9 • The File ♦ A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

STUDY FILE • Your phone is a vocabulary book

6in}

The same phone, in languages — Four layers. A word can be on any of them, and only one of them keeps it.

9A • Four minutes a day

6in}

Four minutes — Five panels. The fourth one is the one everybody recognises.

What people do	look a word up, read it, close the app
What happens	the word is gone in four minutes

What they say

I have a bad memory.

What is true

the word was never written down anywhere

9B • Change the phone, not yourself

Put your phone in English for one week. You will not learn the words. You will learn where they are, which is more useful and takes no time at all.

Which three words would you see every day? Write them.

9C • Role play — the help desk

In pairs. One of you has a phone in a language you cannot read. The other is a helper. Use only these:

How do you say...? • What does it mean? • I don't understand. • Which one? • Where?

9D • The one place a word stays

A word stays where you can see it without looking for it. Where, in your day, is that place? Not the app. The place.

9E • Transfer — before next week

Write down every English word you look up for seven days, on paper. Do not revise it. Bring the list. The list is the lesson.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

{width=6.

6in}

One lesson, eleven phones — Ninety minutes. Sixty-four pick-ups. Three moments when nearly everybody reached at once.

10A • Relay

Half the class has the screen-time report. Half has the four people from Part 5. Rebuild the whole picture by speaking. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify — for one person

A classmate asks: How do I put my phone in English? Answer in four sentences. No lists, no screenshots.

10C • Online

Write one message to a classmate: ask two questions about their phone. Two sentences. One question must start with a question word.

10D • Your language

Does your language have a different word for how much and how many? Say both in your language. Does the difference exist at all?

Part 11 • The Decision ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

The box by the door

Escola Monte wants to put a box by the door of room 3. You put your phone in it at the start of the lesson and take it out at the end.

Teresa counted. In one ninety-minute lesson, eleven students picked up a phone sixty-four times. Nobody noticed they were doing it.

But three students use the phone as a dictionary, every lesson. One student has a child at a school that telephones. And the box has no lock.

11A • The evidence

6in}

The same ninety minutes, twice — With the box by the door, and without it. Drawn from the same place at the back.

 Track 3.6. Yusuf, 20 seconds: "I don't want the box. But I check my phone and I don't know why. I don't even read it. How often? I don't want to know."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think the phones should _____, because _____.

Words you can use: box · dictionary · message · child · lesson · nobody · notification

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think the phones should _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

No box. Put one phone on the desk at the front, on a stand, as the class dictionary, and leave the other ten where they are. The problem is not the phone. The problem is that looking a word up and leaving the room look exactly the same from the front.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. Teresa did not use a box. She put one phone at the front as the dictionary and asked everybody to put their own phone face down. Pick-ups fell from sixty-four to nineteen in a week.

Then something she did not expect: the nineteen were almost all the same two students, and both of them were the ones who answered most questions. They were not leaving the room. They were checking a word and coming straight back.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

Teresa counted pick-ups. Was she counting the right thing?

Part 12 • Landing ◆ all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

1. She _____ (check) her phone at six.
2. _____ he _____ (turn off) his phone at night?
3. How _____ photos do you take? (you can count them)
4. How _____ time do you spend online? (you cannot count it)
5. _____ app do you open first? (there is a short list)
6. _____ do you charge the battery? (the answer is a place)
7. _____ does she use a map? (the answer is a reason)
8. I need to _____ in, and I do not have the password.
9. I want to _____ a photo of this.
10. My battery is at four per cent. I have to _____ it.
11. (Unit 2) I _____ up at six every day.
12. (Unit 1) They _____ from Korea and Egypt.

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Write six sentences about one person who is not in this room. Use he or she. Put a number in two of them. Use one negative and one question.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

☐ I can ask somebody about a habit. Evidence: 4C, 9C ☐ I can use the s on he, she and it.
Evidence: 3G, 8D ☐ I can use do and does in questions. Evidence: 6D ☐ I can hear the difference between a question and a statement. Evidence: 7C

12D • Replay 🟡

Record 0C again. Listen to both. What is different?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

THE OBJECT • phone • screen • battery • charger • camera • map WHAT IS ON IT • app • message • photo • video • notification • password WHERE IT IS • internet • online WHAT YOU DO • turn on • turn off • log in • send a message • take a photo • check your phone • open an app • charge the battery THE SEVEN WORDS • what • where • when • who • why • how • which HOW + ONE WORD • how many • how much • how often WHEN YOU ARE LOST • How do you say...? • What does it mean? • I don't understand.

12F • Next

Unit 4 • Who decides the rules here?

A1.1 • Unit 4 • Eleven Signs, One Building

English Animated • Starting Out • Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 72–93 • 22 pp • ~9 hours

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

The stairwell and the corridor, half past twelve — Fourteen things to find. Three of the signs are written by three different hands.

Who decides the rules here?

By the end of this unit you can ask for permission, give it, and refuse it politely.

◆ A • THE WORLD

A building with eleven signs on it and nobody's name under any of them

◆ B • THE SYSTEM

can and can't for ability, permission and prohibition · 22 words for rules and signs · the words that make a request polite · /æ/ and /ʌ/, and the weak can

◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

You ask for three things you are not sure you are allowed to have

0A • Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ a sign ☐ a lift ☐ the stairs ☐ a corridor ☐ a toilet ☐ an entrance ☐ an exit ☐ a door ☐ a step ☐ a trolley ☐ a notice ☐ a clock ☐ a window ☐ a bag

Three of these words are not in the picture. Which three?

a rule · a password · a camera

0B • Guess it

Look at the signs. Which one is the newest? How do you know? Say one thing. You can use these words:

sign · door · open · closed · quiet

0C • Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

What is one rule in this building, and who made it?

You will listen to this again on the last page.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — the building, in signs

6in}

Who is allowed to go which way — Six places, and a line for every route. Two of the lines are dotted, and they are the ones worth reading.

entrance	One. Everybody comes through it.
exit	Three. Two of them are locked.
stairs	Four floors. Everybody.
lift	Four floors. Staff only, says a piece of paper.
corridor	Narrow. Two people fit, if they both move.
toilet	Second floor. There is a queue at eleven.

1B • Meet — the words

rule • sign • open • closed • quiet • allowed • forbidden • entrance • exit • lift • stairs • toilet • smoking • corridor

Write each word under the right picture.

Eleven places. Eleven words. Put each word on the right floor.

The building, in section — Eleven places. Eleven words. Put each word on the right floor.

Put each word in the right box. Two of them can go in both. Which, and why?

[illegible]

No smoking	Two words. It is on nine doors in this building.
Please be quiet	Please does not make it a request. It is still a rule.
Keep right	In the corridor. Nobody does it.
Out of order	On the lift, twice this year.
Push / Pull	The commonest wrong guess in any building anywhere.
Mind the step	There is one step. It is where the old building meets the new one.

1E • Stretch — the phrases you will need today

Match each phrase to the moment you need it.

1. You come in from the rain with a wet coat. → _____
2. The lesson is finished and your books are everywhere. → _____

3. Somebody is walking straight at you in a narrow corridor. → _____
4. You press the button and nothing happens. → _____
5. There is a small change in the floor and nobody expects it. → _____

1F • The hard one

f No problem.

Practise it three times. Two words, and in most of the world it means yes.

1G • Own it

Write one sign that exists in your home and one that does not exist but should. Do not write your name. The class guesses whose home it is.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

Beside the lift, half past twelve — She is staff. The paper on the door does not know that about her.

2A • Beside the lift 📻 Track 4.1

Before you listen. The lift says Staff only. Dona Filipa is staff. Guess: is this going to be a short conversation?

Listen once. One question. Can Dona Filipa use the lift?

Listen again. Complete the table.

	Can	Can't	Doesn't know
use the lift
use the back exit
leave the trolley in the corridor

Listen again. True or false?

1. Ana wrote the notice on the lift. ☐ T ☐ F
2. Dona Filipa carries the trolley up the stairs. ☐ T ☐ F
3. Students can use the lift with a teacher. ☐ T ☐ F
4. Nobody knows who made the rule. ☐ T ☐ F

Noticing. Four sentences from the recording.

1. You can use it.
2. Students can't use it.
3. Can I leave this here?
4. I can't carry it up four floors.

Two of these are about a rule and two are about a body. Which are which?

2B • Decoding clinic Track 4.2

Twenty seconds of Ana at speed. Three jobs.

1. Count how many times she says can.
2. In two of them the word is very short and quiet. In two it is loud. Which two are loud?
3. She says can't once. What is the difference you hear — the vowel, or the t?

Transcripts, page 150.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

One word, three jobs

3A • Notice

Look at the four sentences in Part 2 again.

1. Does can change after I, you, she or they?
2. What is the form of the verb straight after can?
3. How do you make a question with can?
4. One sentence is about something a body cannot do. Which?

3B • See

{width=6.

6in}

One word, three destinations — Can does not change. What changes is the situation it lands in.

3C • Know

ability	what a body or a mind does	I can carry it. I can't carry it up four floors. permission	somebody decided, and they could decide otherwise	You can use the lift. Students can't. prohibition	a rule, and the person who made it is gone	You can't smoke here.

Can never changes. No s for he and she. No do in the question. The verb after it is always plain: can go, never can goes and never can to go.

{width=6.

6in}

Not joins on, and can jumps — For a negative, not joins the back of can. For a question, can goes to the front.

?

can't come today

Can I leave this here? · Can you help me? · Can she use the lift?

short answers

Yes, you can. · No, I'm sorry, I can't.

The polite layer sits on top. Can I...? is a question. Could you...? is the same question with the sharp edge taken off. Is it OK if...? asks whether the rule allows it rather than whether you allow it.

Why it matters. Half of what you need in a building you do not own is permission, and the other half is finding out who gives it.

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with can, can't, Can I or Could you.

Dona Filipa (1) _____ use the lift. Students (2) _____ use it. (3) _____ leave my bag here? — Yes, of course. (4) _____ open the window? It is very warm. I (5) _____ carry this up four floors. I (6) _____ carry it up one.

3E • Use — guided

Make each one a question with can, then make it more polite.

1. You want to open the window.
2. You want to leave early.
3. You want to use somebody's charger.
4. You want somebody to say it again.
5. You want to sit at this desk.

3F • Use — open

In pairs. Ask for five things in this room. Your partner says yes, no, or just a moment. Nobody may say no twice in a row.

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. She _____ (not use) the lift.
2. _____ I leave my bag here?
3. He _____ (carry) it, but not up four floors.
4. _____ you open the window, please? (the polite one)
5. × She cans use the lift. → correct it.
6. × Can you to help me? → correct it.

The s with nowhere to go

✗ She cans use it.

cans - an s on a word that has no room

She

The s you learned in Unit 3 is for ordinary verbs. Can is not an ordinary verb; it is a helper, and helpers are the same for everybody. There is no cans, no canned and no to can. The word simply does not move.

✔ She can use it.

can - identical for all six people

She

One form, six people. That makes can easier than every ordinary verb in the language, and it is the reason learners reach for it when they are tired. The verb after it stays plain: use, go, come, never to use.

What the writer thought:
 You have just spent a unit putting an s on he and she. The habit is new and it is strong, and it reaches for the nearest verb. Can is the first word in this book that refuses it, and there are only about ten such words in all of English.

6in}

0-3 → Workbook pp. 16-19. 4-5 → Part 6. 6 → page 90.

4A • Fluency starter — the asking round

4B • The functional core — asking, giving and refusing

The same request, twice

Three words on the left, nine on the right, at the same desk, to the same person.

three words

"Open the window." - no

nine words

"Excuse me - could you open the window, please?" - yes

Find the six. Which one got the yes - and is it the one you expected?

6 differences — find them all

6in}

Language Bank

asking	Can I...? · Could you...? · Is it OK if...?
the small words	please · sorry · excuse me · thank you saying yes	Of course. · Here you are. · No problem. saying wait	Just a moment. saying no	I'm sorry, I can't.
afterwards	Thanks a lot.

Information gap. Learner A has the list of what is allowed. Learner B has the list of what happens anyway. Find the two rules that nobody follows and nobody minds.

4C • The performance — three requests

Ask three people in this room for three things. Three minutes. One request must be:

something easy · something you expect a no to · something you are genuinely not sure about

Then report: who said yes, who said no, and who said something that was neither. Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did anybody say no without the word sorry?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Did I use a different form for each of the three requests? ☐ Did I say thank you after the no as well as after the yes?

Part 5 • Reading A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title is "Who put that there?" How many of the signs in your school do you think have a name on them?

5B • Read — sixty seconds

Who put that there?

Escola Monte has eleven signs. Ana counted them.

Four of them are printed and screwed to the wall. They are about fire and about the law, and the city put them there. Nobody argues with those four.

Four more are printed and taped. They are about the lift, the toilet and the corridor. The school put them there, four years ago, and three of the four people who decided are not here now.

Three are handwritten. One says Out of order, and the lift has worked since March. One says Please be quiet on a door nobody opens. One says Keep right, and the corridor is too narrow for anybody to keep anything.

Eleven signs. Four of them have a reason you can still find. The other seven are rules that are nobody's rules now, and everybody follows them anyway.

5C • Answer

1. How many signs are there?
2. Who put the first four up?
3. What does the handwritten sign on the lift say?
4. How many signs have a reason you can still find?
5. Why does the writer say "nobody's rules"?
6. The last sentence says everybody follows them anyway. Why would people follow a rule that belongs to nobody?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Guess from the text. Then check.

screwed to the wall · taped · argues with · since March · too narrow

5E • The counter-text

The notice on the lift
One piece of paper. Three hands. No name.

LIFT

STAFF ONLY

Underneath, in blue pen, in a second hand: "and students with a teacher"

Under that, in pencil, in a third hand: "ask Ana"

WHAT IS ALSO ON THE PAPER

A date in the corner	11 / 09
A year	not written
A name	none
Tape	four pieces, one lifted

The printed line is a rule. The blue line is an exception to it.
The pencil line is neither - it is the name of a person, and it is the only part of this notice that tells you what to do next.

Printed, so it looks official.
Nobody knows who printed it

A second hand widened the rule.
Could they?

A third hand gave up and named a person

Eleven September. Four years ago, if you ask Ana

Three people wrote here. One of them had the authority

6in}

The notice on the lift — One piece of paper. Three hands. No name.

Read the notice and answer.

1. What does the printed line say?
2. What does the handwritten line add, and does it agree with the printed line?
3. What is the date in the corner?
4. Three people wrote on this notice. Which one of the three had the authority to?

5F • Two texts

The text says the lift has worked since March. The notice says Out of order.

Which one is the rule? Say one sentence.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

The small words that do all the work

Open the window, at six temperatures
The same request, six times. Only the beginning and the end change.

1

1 "Open the window."

2

2 "Open the window, please."

3

3 "Can you open the window?"

4

4 "Could you open the window?"

5

5 "Is it OK if I open the window?"

6

6 "Sorry - would you mind if I...?"

{width=6.

6in}

Open the window, at six temperatures — The same request, six times. Only the beginning and the end change.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

excuse me	before you speak to somebody sorry	after you have done something, or when the answer is no
please	inside the request, not at the beginning of the conversation
thank you	after a yes and after a no

6B • Say them

please • sorry • excuse me • thank you • Of course. • Here you are. • Just a moment.

6C • Chunk

1. _____ me — you want somebody's attention
2. Can _____ ...? — you want to do something
3. Could _____ ...? — you want somebody else to do something
4. Is it _____ if...? — you want to know whether the rule allows it
5. Here _____ are. — you are handing something over
6. Thanks a _____ . — warmer than thank you, and shorter

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. excuse me or sorry?

1. You cannot lend somebody your charger. _____
 2. You want to ask a stranger a question. _____
 3. You want to get past somebody in the corridor. _____
 4. You arrive ten minutes late. _____
 5. You need to interrupt two people talking. _____
 6. You stand on somebody's foot. _____
-

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

/æ/ and /ʌ/, and the can you can hardly hear

6in}

{width=6.

Two vowels, and a word you can hardly hear — The tongue moves a long way between these two, and most learners move it halfway.

7A • Hear

/æ/ — can · bag · man · hand · that /ʌ/ — come · one · but · much · up

7B • Say

Say each group three times. Then say this:

I can come, but I can't come up. — both vowels, twice each, in one sentence.

7C • Make it mean something

Say these two:

I can go. — can is short and quiet. You hardly hear it. I can't go. — can't is long and loud, and it is the stressed word in the sentence.

The negative is louder than the positive. If you cannot hear the t, listen to the length instead. Which one is which?

7D • Fluency 20

Twenty seconds: three things you can do and three things you can't do in this building. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing C • THE PERFORMANCE

The rules of a place • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

You can come in before nine. The door is open from eight. [what you can do, first]

You can't smoke anywhere, including the yard. [the one hard rule, with the gap closed]

Please be quiet in the corridor on the second floor. There is an exam room. [the rule, and then the reason]

If you need the lift, ask at reception. Somebody will say yes. [the rule that is really a door, not a wall]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. The first sentence is about what you can do. Why not start with the hard rule?
2. There is an exam room. What does giving the reason do to the rule?
3. The last rule tells you who to ask. Why is that more useful than the rule itself?

8B • The anti-model

No smoking. No food. No phones. Be quiet. Keep right. No bags in the corridor. Students can't use the lift.

Correct English, and nobody will read past the third line. Rewrite it so that two of the seven are things you can do, and one of them gives a reason.

8C • Plan

what you can do → the one real prohibition → one rule with a reason → who to ask

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

☐ Is there at least one sentence with can and not can't? ☐ Is there one reason anywhere in it?

8F • Publish

On the door of the classroom. Keep them up for a week and see which one people actually follow.

Part 9 • The File A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

STUDY FILE • The rules you have made for yourself

6in}

The rules you gave yourself — Four walls, in the same style as the signs in Part 0. None of them has a name on it either.

9A • Four walls

6in}

Four days, and then one — Five panels. Panel four does the damage, not panel three.

What people decide	thirty minutes, every day, no exceptions
--------------------	--

What happens on day five	one missed day
What people conclude	I can't do this.
What is actually true	they did four days, which is four more than before

9B • A rule you can break

A rule you can break and keep is a rule. A rule you cannot break is a wall, and you will walk away from it. Write one rule for your English this week that has a way out in it.

Example: twenty minutes a day, and on a bad day, two minutes.

9C • Role play — asking yourself for permission

In pairs. One of you wants to skip today. The other is the part of you that made the rule. Use Can I...?, Is it OK if...? and I'm sorry, I can't. Swap after two minutes.

9D • Who made that rule?

Find one rule you follow about your own learning that somebody else made — a teacher, a parent, an app. Is it still a good rule? Is the person still here?

9E • Transfer — before next week

Write down every time you nearly studied and did not, for seven days. Write the reason. Do not judge it. Bring the list.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

6in}

{width=6.

Eleven signs, three questions each — Who put it there, how old it is, and how many people obey it. The three bands do not line up.

10A • Relay

Half the class has who wrote each sign. Half has whether people follow it. Rebuild the whole building by speaking. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify — for one person

A new student asks: Can I use the lift? Answer in three sentences. The true answer is complicated. Say it anyway.

10C • Online

Write one message asking a classmate for something you need. Two sentences. One of them must give a reason.

10D • Your language

Does your language have a polite form for asking? Ask for a pen in your language, twice: once to a friend and once to a stranger. How many words change?

Part 11 • The Decision ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

The lift

Escola Monte has one lift. The notice says Staff only. It has said that for four years.

A student broke the door of the lift in the first year, and that is why the notice is there. That student finished the course in the same year and left.

Dona Filipa carries a trolley up four floors twice a day. One student this term cannot use the stairs at all. The school can leave the notice, take it down, or put a key on the lift and give the key to reception.

11A • The evidence

The same lift door, twice
The rule is identical in both. Only the paper is different.

as it is

STAFF ONLY · no name · no date · a queue on the stairs

with a name on it

Ask at reception · A. Silva, March · a key hook

Find the six. One of them is behind the door, on the stairs - and it is the one that measures whether this worked.

6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

The same lift door, twice — The rule is identical in both. Only the paper is different.

 Track 4.6. Dona Filipa, 20 seconds: "I can use the lift. Nobody told me I can. I read the paper on the door every morning for four years and I take the stairs."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think the lift should be _____, because _____.

Words you can use: staff · student · key · stairs · trolley · broken · allowed

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think the lift should be _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

Take the old notice down and put up a new one with a name and a date on it. The rule can stay exactly the same. What changes is that there is now somebody to ask, and a rule you can ask about is a different kind of rule.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. Ana printed a new notice: Lift: ask at reception. A. Silva, March. The rule did not change. In the first week eleven people asked, and she said yes to all eleven.

Then something she did not expect: the asking stopped after two weeks, and people simply used the lift. Nobody broke it. Ana left the notice up anyway, because the name on it was doing something the rule was not.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

The rule did not change and the behaviour did. So what was the rule actually doing before?

Part 12 • Landing ♦ all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

1. She _____ (not use) the lift.
2. _____ I leave my bag here?
3. _____ you say that again, please? (the polite one)
4. Is it _____ if I open the window?
5. _____ me — where is the toilet?
6. I'm _____, I can't.
7. Here you _____.
8. Just a _____.
9. The lift is out of _____.
10. Please _____ your books away.
11. (Unit 3) How _____ does he check his phone?
12. (Unit 2) They _____ at half past six.

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Write the rules of a place you know well, in six sentences. Two must use can, one must use can't, and one must say who to ask.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

☐ I can ask for permission in three different ways. Evidence: 4C ☐ I can refuse politely. Evidence: 3F, 6D ☐ I can use can and can't for ability and for rules. Evidence: 3G ☐ I can hear the difference between can and can't. Evidence: 7C

12D • Replay 🟡

Record 0C again. Listen to both. What is different?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

THE PLACES • entrance • exit • stairs • lift • corridor • toilet THE RULE WORDS • rule • sign • open • closed • quiet • allowed • forbidden • smoking WHAT SIGNS SAY • No smoking • Please be quiet • Keep right • Out of order • Push / Pull • Mind the step WHAT YOU DO • put away • take off ASKING • Can I...? • Could you...? • Is it OK if...? THE SMALL WORDS • please • sorry • excuse me • thank you ANSWERING • Here you are. • Of course. • Just a moment. • No problem. • I'm sorry, I can't. • Thanks a lot.

12F • Next

Unit 5 • How do you learn a word?

A1.1 • Unit 5 • One Dictionary, Eleven People

English Animated • Starting Out • Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 94–115 • 22 pp
• ~9 hours

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

Room 3 at ten past nine, from the front — Fourteen things to find. One of them has not moved since Tuesday.

How do you learn a word?

By the end of this unit you can describe a room and say exactly what is in it.

◆ A • THE WORLD

A room with eleven people in it and one of most things

◆ B • THE SYSTEM

there is and there are · a, an, some and any · 22 words for the classroom · how English makes a plural, including the eleven ways it does not
· the two th sounds

◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

You give a one-minute tour of a room and somebody draws it from your words

0A • Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ a desk ☐ a chair ☐ a board ☐ a pen ☐ a pencil ☐ a notebook ☐ a dictionary ☐ a page ☐ a cupboard ☐ a shelf ☐ a window ☐ a door ☐ a bag ☐ a clock

Three of these words are not in the picture. Which three?

homework · an exercise · an answer

0B • Guess it

Look at the cupboard. How many students can use this room at the same time? Say one thing. You can use these words:

desk · chair · pen · one · eleven

0C • Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

What is in the room where you study at home?

You will listen to this again on the last page.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — the room and the work

{width=6.

6in}

What moves between the things in a room — Six objects, and a line for every journey a word can make. One line leaves the room.

board	Yesterday is still on it. Nobody wiped it.
desk	Eleven, and three of them wobble.
cupboard	One shelf. Everything the school owns for this room is on it.
notebook	Four spare ones. Eleven students.
dictionary	One. Open, face down, at the back, since Tuesday.
homework	The only thing in the room that leaves the room.

1B • Meet — the words

classroom • desk • chair • board • pen • pencil • notebook • dictionary • page • word • sentence • question • answer • homework • exercise

Write each word under the right picture.

Eleven things. Eleven words. Everything the school owns for this room is here.

The cupboard, shelf by shelf — Eleven things. Eleven words. Everything the school owns for this room is here.

Put each word in the right box. One of them belongs in both. Which, and why?

YOU CAN COUNT IT	YOU CANNOT COUNT IT	BOTH
1. THE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES THAT HAVE A NATIONAL ANTHEM 2. THE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES THAT HAVE A NATIONAL ANTHEM	1. THE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES THAT HAVE A NATIONAL ANTHEM 2. THE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES THAT HAVE A NATIONAL ANTHEM	1. THE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES THAT HAVE A NATIONAL ANTHEM 2. THE NUMBER OF COUNTRIES THAT HAVE A NATIONAL ANTHEM

listen	to the teacher, to the recording, to each other. Three different things.
repeat	after the teacher. The one everybody does badly and nobody notices.
read	with your eyes, or out loud. Two different skills with one name.
write	the only one that leaves a record of what you understood.

1E • Stretch — the phrases you will need today

Match each phrase to the moment you need it.

1. There is a word on the board and you have never seen it. → _____
2. The teacher says something and nobody understands. → _____

3. You are counting the chairs for a visitor. → _____
4. It is Thursday evening and the lesson is Friday morning. → _____
5. You want to say that there are more than you can count. → _____

1F • The hard one

f How many are there?

Practise it three times. Four words, and three of them are tiny.

1G • Own it

Write down three things that are in your bag right now and one thing that is not. Do not write your name. The class guesses whose bag it is.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

In front of the open cupboard
One of them is counting. The other one is teaching in fifty minutes.

There is one dictionary. There are eleven of us.
There aren't any pencils at all.

What do I do at ten without it?

Teresa
she teaches in this room at ten

Are there any notebooks?
We have two hundred euros for this room.

Two hundred. That is eleven of something cheap.

Ana
she has the inventory list

{width=6.6in}

6in}

In front of the open cupboard — One of them is counting. The other one is teaching in fifty minutes.

2A • In front of the cupboard 🎧 Track 5.1

Before you listen. Ana is counting what is in the cupboard. Teresa is teaching at ten. Guess: how many dictionaries are there?

Listen once. One question. How much money does the school have for this room?

Listen again. Complete the table.

	How many	Enough?
desks
notebooks
dictionaries

Listen again. True or false?

1. There are eleven chairs in the room. ☐ T ☐ F
2. There aren't any pencils. ☐ T ☐ F
3. There are twelve desks. ☐ T ☐ F
4. There are some notebooks, but not enough. ☐ T ☐ F

Noticing. Four sentences from the recording.

1. There is one dictionary.
2. There are eleven desks.
3. There aren't any pencils.
4. Are there any notebooks?

One of these uses is and three use are. What decides?

2B • Decoding clinic 🎧 Track 5.2

Twenty seconds of Ana counting at speed. Three jobs.

1. Count how many times she says there.
2. She says there are as one short word. Write what you hear.
3. One plural ending in her list sounds different from all the others. Which word?

Transcripts, page 151.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Saying that something exists

3A • Notice

Look at the four sentences in Part 2 again.

1. What comes after there is — one thing, or more than one?
2. What comes after there are?
3. In sentence 3, which word tells you it is a negative?
4. Where does any appear — in the positive, the negative, or the question?

3B • See

The verb looks forwards, not backwards
There is not a thing. The thing arrives after the verb, and the verb agrees with that.

There	is	a board	are	eleven desks
not a thing	one	→ the verb agrees with this	more than one	→ and with this

There holds the front of the sentence open and means nothing. Look past it, find the thing, and count it: one board, so is; eleven desks, so are.

{width=6.

6in}

The verb looks forwards, not backwards — There is not a thing. The thing arrives after the verb, and the verb agrees with that.

3C • Know

one	there is	There is a board. There is some paper.
more than one	there are	There are eleven desks. There are some pens.
none	there isn't / there aren't	There isn't a dictionary. There aren't any pencils.
asking	is there / are there	Is there a board? Are there any notebooks?

There is not a place. It does not mean in that place over there. It is an empty word that holds the front of the sentence open while the real subject arrives behind the verb.

{width=6.

6in}

a, an, some and any — Three roads out of one question: how many, and what kind of sentence is this?

a / an	one thing, countable: a desk · an exercise · an answer
some	more than one, or an amount: some pens · some paper
any	in negatives and questions: There aren't any pens. Are there any pens?

An before a vowel sound, not a vowel letter. an exercise, an answer, an hour — but a university, because that word begins with a y sound when you say it.

Why it matters. This is how you describe anything that is not a person: a room, a street, a town, a photograph, a problem.

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with there is, there are, there isn't, there aren't, a, an or any.

In room 3 (1) _____ eleven desks and (2) _____ board. (3) _____ one dictionary. (4) _____ enough notebooks for everybody. There aren't (5) _____ pencils at all. Is there (6) _____ exercise book for the new student?

3E • Use — guided

Make each one negative, then make it a question.

1. There are some chairs in the corridor.
2. There is a clock on the wall.
3. There are eleven students in this class.
4. There is some paper in the cupboard.
5. There are some questions on page nine.

3F • Use — open

In pairs, back to back. One of you describes this room. The other draws it. Compare the drawing with the room. What did the words leave out?

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. _____ eleven desks in this room.
2. _____ a dictionary on the shelf.
3. There aren't _____ pencils.
4. Is there _____ exercise on page ten?
5. × There is eleven desks. → correct it.
6. × There are some pens?  → correct it.

The verb that agreed with the wrong word

✗ There is eleven desks.

There

The verb has reached backwards and found there, which looks like a subject and is not one. There is a placeholder: it has no number, no size and nothing to agree with. Behind the verb, eleven desks are waiting, and they are plural.

✓ There are eleven desks.

There

The verb looks forwards. Whatever arrives after it decides the form: one board, so is; eleven desks, so are. This is the only sentence pattern in English where the subject comes after the verb, which is why it feels strange.

What the writer thought:
Every other sentence you have met puts the subject first, so the eye reaches for the nearest word on the left. Here there is nothing on the left. Read past the verb before you choose it.

{width=6.

6in}

The verb that agreed with the wrong word — The verb that agreed with the wrong word

0–3 → Workbook pp. 20–23. 4–5 → Part 6. 6 → page 112.

Part 4 • Speaking ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — add one thing

The first person says one thing that is in this room. The next repeats it and adds one. Stop when somebody forgets, or when somebody says something that is not there.

4B • The functional core — describing a place

Two drawings of the same room
Both learners listened to a one-minute description. Both drew what they heard.

the room

board at the front · cupboard by the window

the same words, no places

a board · a cupboard · desks · somewhere

Find the six. One description said where things were and one only said what they were. Which drawing came from which?

6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

Two drawings of the same room — Both learners listened to a one-minute description. Both drew what they heard.

Language Bank

how many	There is one... · There are eleven... · There are a lot of...
how few	There aren't any... · There is only one...
where	on the wall · in the cupboard · at the back · by the window asking	How many are there? · Is there...? · Are there any...?

Information gap. Learner A has the room as it is. Learner B has the room as the school's inventory list says it is. Find the four things that are on one list and not the other.

4C • The performance — the one-minute tour 🟡

Describe one room you know and nobody here has seen. One minute. You must say:

how many of two different things · one thing there isn't · where two things are · one thing that should not be in that room at all

Your partner draws it. Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did the speaker ever say there is with a plural?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Did my partner's drawing have the right number of the main thing? ☐ Did I say where at least two things were?

Part 5 • Reading ♦ A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title is "The word you looked up twice." How many times do you think you have looked up the same word?

5B • Read — sixty seconds

The word you looked up twice

There is one dictionary in room 3. It is open, face down, on a desk at the back, and it has been there since Tuesday.

On Tuesday, Lin looked up a word. She read it, she understood it, she closed nothing and she went home. On Thursday she met the same word in a different sentence and she did not know it.

This is normal and it is not a memory problem. A word you meet once is a word you have seen. A word you meet seven times, in seven different sentences, over three weeks, is a word you have. There is no way round the seven. There are only ways to make the seven happen faster.

The dictionary is not the problem. The dictionary is excellent. The problem is that everything between looking a word up and meeting it again is left to chance, and chance is slow.

5C • Answer

1. How many dictionaries are there in room 3?
2. Where is it?
3. What happened on Thursday?
4. How many times does the text say you need to meet a word?
5. Why does the writer say this is not a memory problem?
6. The last line says chance is slow. What would be faster, and who would have to do it?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Guess from the text. Then check.

face down • there is no way round it • left to chance • a word you have • over three weeks

5E • The counter-text

The inventory list for room 3
Printed in March. Filled in by hand in June. Four rows do not match.

ESCOLA MONTE - ROOM 3 - INVENTORY
ITEM	SHOULD BE	THERE ARE
DESKS	11	11
CHAIRS	11	10
BOARD	1	1
DICTIONARIES	2	1
NOTEBOOKS	11	4
PENS (BOXES)	1	1
PENCILS	20	0
CLOCK	1	1

AT THE BOTTOM OF THE SHEET

Checked by (blank)
Date checked (blank)
Budget, this room, this year 200 EUR

In the NOTEBOOKS row the number was written 7, crossed out, and written again as 4. Somebody counted twice, three days apart, and lost three notebooks between the two counts.

Eleven desks and ten chairs. One person stands, every lesson

Two dictionaries on the list. One in the room

Twenty pencils on the list. None at all

Nobody signed it, so nobody is answerable for any of this

7, crossed out, then 4. Three notebooks in three days

{width=6.

6in}

The inventory list for room 3 — Printed in March. Filled in by hand in June. Four rows do not match.

Read the list and answer.

1. How many desks should there be?
2. How many chairs are there, and does that match the desks?
3. Which item is on the list but not in the room?
4. One row has a number written, crossed out and written again. Which, and what does that tell you?

5F • Two texts

The inventory says there are eleven notebooks. The text in 5B says there are four.

Which one is right? Say one sentence.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Making more than one

One rule, five exceptions
The rule is add s. Everything interesting is in the other five panels.

1

1 book → books. Add s

2

2 box → boxes. A hiss needs a vowel

3

3 city → cities. The y goes

4

4 knife → knives. The f softens

5

5 man → men. Inside the word

6

6 fish → fish. Nothing at all

{width=6.

6in}

One rule, five exceptions — The rule is add s. Everything interesting is in the other five panels.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

boxes • classes • watches

after a hissing sound you can hear the extra syllable

countries • cities

the y goes, and ies arrives

knives • shelves

the f turns into a v before it takes the s

men • women • children

no s at all. Three of the commonest words in English

6B • Say them

books • boxes • children • men • women • countries • classes • watches • cities • knives • shelves

6C • Chunk

1. one box, two _____
2. one country, two _____
3. one knife, two _____
4. one shelf, two _____
5. one child, two _____
6. a _____ of people — more than you are going to count

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. is or are?

1. There _____ one dictionary.
 2. There _____ eleven desks.
 3. There _____ three children in the corridor.
 4. There _____ some water in the bottle.
 5. There _____ a lot of paper in the cupboard.
 6. There _____ two shelves and both of them are empty.
-

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

The sound that lives between your teeth

{width=6.

6in}

The sound that lives between your teeth — Two millimetres of tongue. It is the difference between there and dare.

7A • Hear

/ð/ loud, and the commonest one: there · the · this · they · that · with /θ/ quiet: think · thing · three · thank · month not /d/ or /z/: there is not dare. this is not dis.

7B • Say

Put your tongue between your teeth. It feels wrong. It is right. Then say:

There are three things on the shelf. — both th sounds, four times, in one sentence.

7C • Make it mean something

Say these two:

There are a lot of books. — the th is loud and your voice is on I think there are thirty. — the th in think is quiet and your voice is off

One tongue position, two settings. Which is which?

7D • Fluency 20

Twenty seconds: six things that are in this room, with how many. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

A room • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

There are eleven desks in my classroom and ten chairs. [the numbers first, and they do not match]

There is a board, and there is a cupboard with one shelf in it. [the big things]

There aren't any pencils. There is one dictionary and nobody uses it. [what is missing, and what is there and unused]

There is a plant on the window. It belongs to nobody and somebody waters it. [the one odd thing, at the end]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. Eleven desks and ten chairs. Why put the numbers that do not match first?
2. and nobody uses it. What does that add that the number did not?
3. The last sentence is about a plant. Why is the least important object the most interesting one?

8B • The anti-model

There is a board. There are desks. There are chairs. There is a cupboard. There is a window. There is a door.

Correct English, and it is every classroom on earth. Add three numbers and one thing that is missing, and make it this room.

8C • Plan

two numbers that do not match → the big things → one thing there isn't → the odd thing, last

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

☐ Is there at least one there aren't any sentence? ☐ Could you draw this room from these words alone?

8F • Publish

On the wall, with no names. The class matches the description to the room.

Part 9 • The File ♦ A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

STUDY FILE • Seven meetings

6in}

One word, in layers — Four meetings, four depths. Only the bottom one is yours.

9A • The gap between meetings

6in}

Day 1, day 3, day 7, day 21 — Five panels. The effort shrinks and never reaches zero, and that is the good news.

What people do

meet a word once, write it in a list,
read the list

What the list does	puts all the meetings on the same day
What is needed	the same word, far apart, in different sentences
The cheapest version	one card, one word, met on day 1, 3, 7, 21

9B • Different sentences, not more repetitions

Twenty repetitions of one sentence teaches you one sentence. Four meetings in four different sentences teaches you a word. Take one word from this unit and write it in three sentences that have nothing to do with each other.

9C • Role play — the seventh meeting

In pairs. Each of you chooses three words from this unit without telling the other. For ten minutes, use your three words as often as you can without being caught. At the end, guess your partner's three.

9D • Where your meetings happen

A word you only meet in a notebook has one place to live. Name two places in your week where an English word could meet you without you arranging it.

9E • Transfer — before next week

Take five words from this unit. Write each one on a separate card. Meet each card on day 1, day 3 and day 7. Bring the five cards and say which one was hardest on day 7.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

{width=6.

6in}

One term, one word list — Three hundred and fifty words were taught. Follow them to June.

10A • Relay

Half the class has the inventory list. Half has the room as it is. Rebuild the true contents of room 3 by speaking. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify — for one person

A classmate asks: How do I remember new words? Answer in three sentences. No app names.

10C • Online

Write one message to a classmate: say what is in your study space at home and ask what is in theirs. Two sentences.

10D • Your language

Does your language make plurals with an ending? Say one book and two books in your language. What changes, and does anything else in the sentence have to change with it?

Part 11 • The Decision ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

Two hundred euros

The school has two hundred euros for room 3 this year. There is one shelf and it is nearly empty.

Option one: eleven paper dictionaries. Everybody has one in the lesson, and nobody takes one home.

Option two: a shelf of twenty short readers, graded, that students borrow for a week.

Option three: nothing. There are eleven phones in the room and every one of them has a dictionary in it already.

11A • The evidence

The same shelf in June
Two hundred euros, spent two ways, nine months earlier.

eleven dictionaries

11 books · 0 out · dust on the top edge

twenty readers

12 here · 8 out · a sign-out sheet, taped

Find the six. One of them is a piece of paper, and it is the one that tells you which shelf is working.
6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

The same shelf in June — Two hundred euros, spent two ways, nine months earlier.

 Track 5.6. Yusuf, 20 seconds: "I have a dictionary in my phone. It is a good dictionary. But when I open my phone I don't look up the word. I look at something else. Every time."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think the school should buy _____, because _____.

Words you can use: dictionary · book · page · read · phone · a lot of · shelf

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think the school should buy _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

The readers. A dictionary answers a question you already have. A reader gives you the seven meetings without you arranging any of them, and it does it while you are enjoying yourself, which is the only study method that survives a bad week.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. The school bought the readers. By June, fourteen of the twenty had been borrowed at least once, and three had been borrowed more than ten times.

Then something nobody expected: the three most-borrowed were the three easiest ones, well below the level of the class. Students were not stretching. They were reading things they could finish, and those were the students whose speaking improved most.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

If the easy books worked best, what was the hard book for?

Part 12 • Landing ♦ all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

1. _____ eleven desks in this room.
2. _____ a dictionary on the shelf.
3. There aren't _____ pencils.
4. one box, two _____
5. one city, two _____
6. one knife, two _____
7. one child, two _____
8. one woman, two _____
9. I need to _____ this word _____. (two words, one on each side)
10. Please _____ your homework for Friday.
11. (Unit 4) _____ I ask a question?
12. (Unit 3) How _____ books are there?

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Describe a room in your home in six sentences. Use there is twice, there are twice, one negative with any, and one plural that does not end in s.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

☐ I can say what is in a room and how many. Evidence: 4C, 8D ☐ I can use there is and there are correctly. Evidence: 3G, 6D ☐ I can make plurals, including the irregular ones. Evidence: 6C ☐ I can say the two th sounds. Evidence: 7C

12D • Replay 🟡

Record 0C again. Listen to both. What is different?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

THE ROOM • classroom • desk • chair • board • cupboard • page WHAT YOU HOLD • pen • pencil • notebook • dictionary WHAT YOU MAKE • word • sentence • question • answer • homework • exercise WHAT YOU DO • listen • repeat • write • read • look up a word • do your homework • ask a question MORE THAN ONE • books • boxes • children • men • women • countries • classes • watches • cities • knives • shelves COUNTING • a lot of • How many are there?

12F • Next

Unit 6 • Where does breakfast come from?

A1.1 • Unit 6 • Two Streets from the Café

English Animated • Starting Out • Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 116–137 • 22 pp
• ~9 hours

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

The market at seven, down the hill — Fourteen things to find. Two of the stalls are selling the same thing at the same price.

Where does breakfast come from?

By the end of this unit you can buy food, ask the price, and say how much you want.

◆ A • THE WORLD

A market at seven, two streets from a café that opens at half past six

◆ B • THE SYSTEM

countable and uncountable • how much and how many • 22 words for food and shops • the words for containers and amounts • /i:/ and /e/, and joining words together

◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

You run a stall, and you buy from somebody else's

0A • Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ bread ☐ rice ☐ cheese ☐ milk ☐ an egg ☐ an apple ☐ a tomato ☐ a fish ☐ water ☐ a box
☐ a crate ☐ a bag ☐ a van ☐ a sign

Three of these words are not in the picture. Which three?

sugar • salt • tea

0B • Guess it

Look at the two stalls selling the same thing. Why is there a queue at one and nobody at the other? Say one thing. You can use these words:

sign • price • cheap • people • know

0C • Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

What did you eat this morning, and where did it come from?

You will listen to this again on the last page.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — one breakfast, backwards

{width=6.

6in}

One breakfast, backwards — Six things in a cup and on a plate, and how far each of them came. One line leaves the page.

bread	Two streets. Four hours old.
milk	Eleven kilometres. Yesterday evening.
coffee	Six thousand kilometres. Three weeks on a ship.
egg	Forty kilometres. Tuesday.
sugar	Nobody at the café knows. Nobody has ever asked.
water	Under the street. It is the only one that did not travel.

1B • Meet — the words

bread • rice • cheese • milk • egg • apple • tomato • chicken • fish • water • tea • coffee • sugar • salt

Write each word under the right picture.

One stall, in section

Eleven foods. Eleven words. Put each word where it actually sits.

the front crates

tomato · apple · the ones people see first the table

cheese · bread · egg · the scales

under the table

rice · sugar · salt · in packets and sacks

the van behind

milk · water · fish · what has not come out yet

You can count these. One, two, eleven

You can count the eggs. You cannot count the cheese

None of these can be counted. All of them can be weighed

And the van is where run out of is decided

{width=6.

6in}

One stall, in section — Eleven foods. Eleven words. Put each word where it actually sits.

1C · Sort — can you count it?

Put each word in the right box. Two of them can go in both. Which, and why?

chicken · water · cheese · apple · tomato · fish · milk · rice · egg · bread

ONE, TWO, THREE	YOU CANNOT COUNT IT	BOTH

1D · The two shops

market	Six stalls. Open at six. Closed by two. Cash.
shop	Open all day. A fridge. A card machine. Twenty per cent more.
How much is it?	The question you need in both.
a bit of	When you do not want a number and you do not want a lot.
run out of	What happens at half past eleven on a Saturday.

Now say them. One of these five is a question and one is a problem. Which is which, and which two are places?

1E · Stretch — the phrases you will need today

a loaf of bread · a bottle of water · a kilo of rice · a bit of · run out of

Match each phrase to the moment you need it.

1. You are thirsty and there is a shop. → _____
2. You are cooking for six people. → _____

3. You want cheese but not much cheese. → _____
4. It is Sunday and the café has no milk. → _____
5. You want the whole thing, not slices. → _____

1F • The hard one

f That's all, thanks.

Practise it three times. It is how you end every transaction in English, and without it the other person keeps offering.

1G • Own it

Write down three things you bought this week and where. Do not write your name. The class guesses whose week it is.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

Seven o'clock at the stall — He buys for a café. She has sold here for nineteen years. Neither says the real question.

2A • Seven o'clock at the stall 📻 Track 6.1

Before you listen. Marco buys for the café every Tuesday. Guess: does he know the price before he asks?

Listen once. One question. How much does a kilo of tomatoes cost?

Listen again. Complete the table.

	How much / how many	Price tomatoes eggs
bread

Listen again. True or false?

1. Marco buys two kilos of tomatoes. ☐ T ☐ F
2. There aren't any eggs left. ☐ T ☐ F
3. He pays with a card. ☐ T ☐ F
4. He asks the price before he chooses. ☐ T ☐ F

Noticing. Four questions from the recording.

1. How much is it?
2. How many do you want?
3. How much rice do you need?
4. How many eggs are there?

Two use much and two use many. What decides?

2B • Decoding clinic Track 6.2

Twenty seconds of the stallholder at speed. Three jobs.

1. Count how many prices she says.
2. She says a kilo of as one word. Write what you hear.
3. How much is it has four words and two sounds in the middle. Where do the words join?

Transcripts, page 152.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Things you count and things you weigh

3A • Notice

Look at the four questions in Part 2 again.

1. What kind of word comes after how many?
2. What kind of word comes after how much?
3. Can you say two breads? What do you say instead?
4. One word in the list can be counted in a shop and not in a kitchen. Which?

3B • See

Things you count and things you weigh

The same wheat is bread and a sandwich. The food did not change. The language did.

six eggs	eleven apples	some bread	some rice	two loaves of bread
countable	countable	uncountable	uncountable	the bridge

How many goes with the blue. How much goes with the orange. The green is the bridge: put a container in front and anything becomes countable again.

{width=6.

6in}

Things you count and things you weigh — The same wheat is bread and a sandwich. The food did not change. The language did.

3C • Know

countable	you can put a number in front	an egg · two eggs · eleven apples
uncountable	no number, no plural	bread · water · rice · cheese · coffee asking	how many + countable · how much + uncountable	How many eggs? How much rice?
the bridge	a container makes anything countable	two loaves of bread · three bottles of water

It is not about the food. It is about how the language decided to look at it. Bread is uncountable and a sandwich is countable, and they are the same wheat.

The container is the bridge
Bread cannot take a number. A loaf can, and it carries the bread across with it.

NO BRIDGE

two

bread

— nothing for the number to land on

⇕ the number lands on the container, not on the food

WITH A BRIDGE

two loaves of

bread

Any uncountable food becomes countable the moment you name its container or its weight: a bottle of water, a kilo of rice, a slice of cheese, a bit of sugar.

{width=6.

6in}

The container is the bridge — Bread cannot take a number. A loaf can, and it carries the bread across with it.

some / any	some bread · some eggs · Is there any rice? There isn't any milk. a lot of	works with both: a lot of bread · a lot of eggs
a bit of	only uncountable: a bit of cheese, never a bit of eggs

Why it matters. Every time you buy food, order in a café or follow a recipe, you have to choose between these two shapes, and the choice is in the first two words.

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with how much, how many, a bit of, a lot of or any.

(1) _____ eggs do you want? — Six, please. (2) _____ rice do you need? — Half a kilo. There isn't (3) _____ milk left. We need (4) _____ milk for the morning. Just (5) _____ cheese, please. Not much.

3E • Use — guided

Make a question with how much or how many.

1. He wants four apples.
2. She needs two litres of water.
3. They buy a kilo of rice every week.
4. There are twelve eggs in the box.
5. The café uses three loaves of bread a day.

3F • Use — open

In pairs. One of you has a kitchen with six things in it. The other is cooking tonight. Find out what there is, and how much, in six questions.

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. _____ bread do you want?
2. _____ apples are there?
3. There isn't _____ water in the bottle.
4. I only want _____ bit of cheese.
5. × How many rice do you need? → correct it.
6. × I bought two breads. → correct it.

The number with nothing to land on

❌ I bought two breads.

two

A number needs something with edges to count. Bread, in English, is a substance like water or sand: it has no edges, so the number has nothing to settle on. Many languages count it happily, which is why this error is so common and so invisible to the person making it.

✅ I bought two loaves of bread.

two

Loaves are objects. The number lands on them and the bread hangs underneath, unchanged and still uncountable. Every container word in this unit does the same job: bottle, packet, kilo, slice, piece.

What the writer thought:
 The mistake is not in the food, it is in the picture. Ask yourself whether you could draw a line round one of them. One egg, yes. One bread, no - you would have to draw a loaf, and that is the word you need.

{width=6.

6in}

The number with nothing to land on — The number with nothing to land on

0-3 → Workbook pp. 24-27. 4-5 → Part 6. 6 → page 134.

Part 4 • Speaking ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — the shopping chain

The first person says one thing they need and how much. The next repeats it and adds theirs. Nobody may use the same container twice.

4B • The functional core — buying and selling

The same stall, two Tuesdays
Same hour, same tomatoes, same price. One of them has a piece of card on it.

with a sign

2.20 a kilo · the farm · the village · 9 people

2.20 a kilo · nineteen years · nobody, at seven

Find the six. One of them is not on the stall at all - it is in front of it, and it is what the sign bought.
6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

The same stall, two Tuesdays — Same hour, same tomatoes, same price. One of them has a piece of card on it.

Language Bank

asking the price

How much is it? · How much are they? · How much is a kilo?

saying the amount

a loaf of bread · a bottle of water · a kilo of rice · half a kilo softening it

just a bit of... · about two hundred grams

ending it

That's all, thanks.

Information gap. Learner A has a shopping list with amounts. Learner B has a stall with prices and three things missing. Buy the whole list, or find out what you cannot have.

4C • The performance — the market 🟡

Half the class sets up a stall. Half buys. Ten minutes, then swap. As a seller you must:

give a price without being asked once · run out of one thing · offer something instead

As a buyer you must buy four things and spend less than ten euros. Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did any buyer walk away without saying That's all, thanks.?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Did I use a container word for at least two things? ☐ Did I ask the price before I chose, at least once?

Part 5 • Reading ♦ A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title is "The stall with nobody at it." Why would two identical stalls have different queues?

5B • Read — sixty seconds

The stall with nobody at it

There are two tomato stalls at the market, side by side. The tomatoes are the same. The price is the same: two euros twenty a kilo.

At seven in the morning there are nine people at the first stall and nobody at the second.

The first stall has a small handwritten sign. It says the name of the farm and the name of the village. It does not say the tomatoes are better, because they are not better.

The second stall has no sign at all. The woman behind it has sold tomatoes here for nineteen years. Everybody who knows her buys from her, and there are not many of those left, because the people who knew her are old now and they come at nine, not at seven.

Nine people at seven. Four people at nine. The same number by the end of the day, and only one of the two stalls thinks it is winning.

5C • Answer

1. How much is a kilo of tomatoes?
2. How many people are at the first stall at seven?
3. What does the sign say?
4. How long has the second woman sold tomatoes here?
5. Why do her customers come at nine and not at seven?
6. The last line says only one of them thinks it is winning. Which one, and is it right?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Guess from the text. Then check.

side by side • a handwritten sign • there are not many of those left • by the end of the day • thinks it is winning

5E • The counter-text

The till receipt from the shop
The same six things Marco buys at the market. Everything here is a number except one line.

ITEM	AMOUNT	EUR
TOMATOES	1 kg	3.18
BREAD	2 loaves	1.48
MILK	6 x 1 L	5.34
EGGS	12	3.68
RICE	1 kg	1.85
CHEESE	220 g	4.87
TOTAL	19.36
CARD	* 4417
TIME	07.04
ITEMS	6

Three ten a kilo. The market is two euros twenty

Six times one litre - the amount is in the line, not just the price

Two hundred and twenty grams. Weighed, not counted

Seven minutes past seven. He was here before the market opened

Tuesdays, before nine. Exactly when he goes to the market

AND IN SMALL PRINT:
"10% off your next shop, Tuesdays only, before 9 a.m." The only line on this receipt that is not about what you bought. It is about when you come back.

6in}

The till receipt from the shop — The same six things Marco buys at the market. Everything here is a number except one line.

Read the receipt and answer.

1. How much is the milk?
2. How many litres of milk are there, and how do you know?
3. What is the total?
4. What is the offer at the bottom, and what does it want you to do?

5F • Two texts

The market sells tomatoes at two euros twenty a kilo. The receipt says three euros ten.

Is the shop expensive? Say one sentence. Then say what the receipt does not tell you.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

The words that make things countable

{width=6.

6in}

The same rice, six times — The rice never changes. The word in front of it changes in every panel.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

a packet of / a bag of the packet is sealed; the bag is what you carry it home in a tin of / a jar of metal, and glass. English has a different word for each a piece of / a slice of half a kilo

a slice is cut flat off something bigger not a half kilo. The a moves

6B • Say them

bag • box • bottle • packet • tin • jar • kilo • gram • litre • half • piece • slice

6C • Chunk

1. a _____ of bread (the whole one)
2. a _____ of water (you can carry it)
3. a _____ of rice (one thousand grams)
4. a _____ of cheese (cut flat)
5. a _____ of tomatoes (metal, and it opens with a ring)
6. _____ a kilo (five hundred grams)

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. much or many?

1. How _____ eggs do you want?
 2. How _____ bread is there?
 3. How _____ apples are in the box?
 4. How _____ is a kilo of rice?
 5. How _____ bottles are there?
 6. How _____ water do we need?
-

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

/i:/ and /e/, and words that join

{width=6.

6in}

Long ee and short e — Cheese and bread. The jaw moves between these two and most learners keep it still.

7A • Hear

/i:/ long: cheese · tea · meat · need · three /e/ short: bread · egg · ten · cent · left the joins: a kilo of → a KEE-lo-vuh · How much is it? → How-mu-chi-zit

7B • Say

Say each group three times. Then say this:

Three eggs and a bit of cheese. — both vowels, three times each, in one sentence.

7C • Make it mean something

Say these two:

a bit of cheese — four words, and you hear two How much is it? — four words, and you hear two English joins the end of one word to the start of the next. This is why you cannot hear words you already know. Which words have disappeared into which?

7D • Fluency 20

Twenty seconds: six things you need from a shop, with the amount. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

A shopping list that somebody else can use • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

For the café, Tuesday. [who and when, first]

Four kilos of tomatoes — the stall on the left, not the one with the sign. [the amount, and where]

Two loaves of bread. If there isn't any brown, white is fine. [the amount, and what to do if it is not there]

Six litres of milk. Don't buy the cheap one — it is cheap because it is two days old. [the amount, and the reason]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. Every line has an amount. What happens to the person shopping if one line does not?
2. If there isn't any brown, white is fine. What does that one sentence save?
3. The last line gives a reason. Why is a reason more useful than an instruction?

8B • The anti-model

tomatoes, bread, milk, eggs, cheese, rice

Correct English, and the person who takes it to the market will come back with the wrong thing six times. Add an amount to every line and one instruction for when something is missing.

8C • Plan

who and when → the amounts → what to do if something is missing → one reason

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

☐ Does every item have an amount with a container or a weight? ☐ Could a stranger shop from this list without telephoning you?

8F • Publish

Swap lists. Your partner shops from your list, on paper, and tells you where they got stuck.

Part 9 • The File ♦ A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

STUDY FILE • How much English, and how often?

6in}

One jar, or seven bottles — The same four hours, in two shapes. The drawing shows why only one of them fits.

9A • The jar and the bottles

6in}

Pouring four hours into Sunday — Five panels. Watch where it stops going in.

What people plan

What goes in four hours on Sunday

about seventy minutes

What they conclude

I need a longer Sunday.

What is true

the container is the wrong shape, not too small

9B • How much, not how long

An hour of English in which you say nothing is not an hour of English. Count what you produced, not how long you sat there. Write down one number from last week: how many sentences did you actually say out loud?

9C • Role play — the study stall

In pairs. One of you is selling study time by the hour. The other is buying with four hours a week. Negotiate. The seller must offer at least one package the buyer has not thought of.

9D • The container you already have

You have a container that is exactly the right shape and you are not using it: the journey, the queue, the kettle, the walk. Name yours, and say how much it holds.

9E • Transfer — before next week

Write down, for seven days, how many English sentences you said out loud. One number a day. Bring the seven numbers.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

{width=6.

6in}

One breakfast, as distance and time — The cheapest thing on the plate travelled furthest and was touched by the most people.

10A • Relay

Half the class has the market prices. Half has the shop receipt. Build the cheapest possible breakfast by speaking. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify — for one person

A new student asks: Where do I buy food around here? Answer in four sentences. Include one thing that is not about price.

10C • Online

Write one message to a classmate: ask them to buy you two things and say the amounts. Two sentences.

10D • Your language

Does your language count bread? Say two breads in your language. Is it strange? Which foods does your language count that English does not?

Part 11 • The Decision ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

Bread, two streets away

Marco's café uses three loaves of bread a day.

The bakery two streets away sells him bread at one euro ten a loaf. It is baked at five in the morning, four hours before he needs it. He walks there and back and it takes him twenty-two minutes.

The supermarket at the top of the street sells bread at seventy cents. It is delivered at six. It is forty seconds from his door.

Three loaves a day, six days a week. The difference is about fifty euros a year, and twenty-two minutes a day.

11A • The evidence

The same counter at half past nine Bakery bread on the left, supermarket bread on the right. Three customers in both.

the bakery, 1.10	the supermarket, 0.70
3 loaves · 22 minutes walking · 0 left at two	3 loaves · 40 seconds · 1 left at two

Find the six. One of them is at the end of the day, not at half past nine, and it is the one that decides the money.
6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

The same counter at half past nine — Bakery bread on the left, supermarket bread on the right. Three customers in both.

 Track 6.6. Marco, 20 seconds: "It's fifty euros. Fifty euros is nothing. But it's twenty-two minutes, and at seven in the morning twenty-two minutes is not nothing."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think Marco should buy the bread from _____, because _____.

Words you can use: bread · shop · market · cheap · expensive · minute · customer

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think Marco should buy the bread from _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

The bakery, but not for the bread. The twenty-two minutes is the only time in Marco's day when he is outside and nobody is asking him for anything, and he has been calling it a cost. It is the most useful fifty euros he spends.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. Marco kept the bakery. He did not do it for any of the reasons on this page. He did it because the baker tells him what is selling in the street, and he changes what he makes on the strength of it.

Then something he did not expect: when the bakery was closed for two weeks in August, his takings fell by more than the bread was worth, and it took him until October to work out why.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

Marco was comparing two prices. What was he actually buying?

Part 12 • Landing ◆ all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

1. How ____ bread do you want?
2. How ____ eggs are there?
3. There isn't ____ milk left.
4. I want just a ____ of cheese.
5. a ____ of bread (the whole one)
6. a ____ of water (you can carry it)
7. a ____ of rice (one thousand grams)
8. a ____ of cheese (cut flat)
9. We have ____ ____ of sugar. (two words — there is none left)
10. That's ____, thanks.
11. (Unit 5) There ____ eleven desks in the room.
12. (Unit 4) ____ I have a receipt, please?

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Write a shopping list for six people eating together, in six lines. Every line must have an amount. Two must use a container word, one must use a weight, and one must say what to do if the thing is not there.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

☐ I can buy food and ask the price. Evidence: 4C ☐ I can use how much and how many correctly. Evidence: 3G, 6D ☐ I can say an amount with a container or a weight. Evidence: 6C, 8D ☐ I can hear where English joins words together. Evidence: 7C

12D • Replay

Record 0C again. Listen to both. What is different?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

YOU CAN COUNT THEM · egg · apple · tomato YOU CANNOT · bread · rice · cheese · milk · chicken · fish · water · tea · coffee · sugar · salt WHERE · market · shop CONTAINERS · bag · box · bottle · packet · tin · jar AMOUNTS · kilo · gram · litre · half · piece · slice BUYING · a loaf of bread · a bottle of water · a kilo of rice · How much is it? · a bit of · run out of · That's all, thanks.

12F • Next

Unit 7 • What do you do for fun?

A1.1 • Unit 7 • Friday at Six

English Animated • Starting Out • Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 138–159 • 22 pp • ~9 hours

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

The park at the bottom of the hill, Saturday, four o'clock — Fourteen things to find. Eleven people are doing something and four are watching them.

What do you do for fun?

By the end of this unit you can say what you like doing and how often you do it.

◆ A • THE WORLD

A park on a Saturday, where some people are doing and some are watching

◆ B • THE SYSTEM

like, love and hate + -ing · adverbs of frequency and where they stand · 22 words for free time · the -ing sound · which word in the sentence gets the push

◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

You recommend one free activity to somebody who would not choose it

0A • Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ football ☐ a guitar ☐ a book ☐ a game ☐ a park ☐ a bench ☐ a poster ☐ a tree ☐ a phone
☐ a bag ☐ a dog ☐ a bottle ☐ a bicycle ☐ a child

Three of these words are not in the picture. Which three?

the beach · a concert · a film

0B • Guess it

Look at the four people who are watching. Which one is enjoying it most? Say one thing. You can use these words:

watch · play · look · phone · game

0C • Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

What do you do when you have two free hours and no plan?

You will listen to this again on the last page.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — what people do with a Saturday

6in}

What goes with what — Eight things people do with a Saturday, and a line wherever two of them share something. Two have no line at all.

football	Twenty-two people, and you cannot do it alone.
swimming	One person, and nobody can talk to you.
music	Alone or together, and it is the only one that works in both.
cooking	The only one that produces something you can give away.
drawing	Cheap, quiet, and almost nobody does it after the age of twelve.
hang out	No equipment, no cost, no name for what you did.

1B • Meet — the words

football • swimming • running • cycling • music • guitar • film • series • book • game • park • beach • concert • dancing • cooking • drawing

Write each word under the right picture.

morning

cooking · a book · and two hours that vanished afternoon

the park · football · running · watching evening

music · the guitar · dancing, somewhere else

late

a film · a series · a game · and then four more episodes

The two hours nobody can account for

Eleven playing. Four watching. Two of the four came to play

The only part of the day that was arranged in advance

Four hours, and all of it already in English

{width=6.

6in}

One Saturday, in section — Eleven activities. Eleven words. Put each one in the hour where it actually happened.

1C • Sort — alone, or with people?

Put each word in the right box. Two of them can go in both. Which, and why?

a book · drawing · football · cooking · music · a film · a game · running · dancing · swimming
ALONE	WITH PEOPLE	BOTH

1D • The verbs that go with them

go swimming	go + -ing, for things you travel to do play football	play, for games with rules and sides
listen to music	listen to, and the to is not optional
watch a film	watch, not see and not look hang out	the only one with no object, and the most used of the five

Now say them. Four of these five take a word after them. Which one does not, and what does that tell you about it?

1E • Stretch — the phrases you will need today

go swimming · play football · listen to music · watch a film · It's not my thing.

Match each phrase to the moment you need it.

1.

Somebody invites you to something you do not want to do. → _____

2.

It is thirty degrees and there is a pool. → _____

3.

You have two hours and no energy. → _____

4.

There are ten of you and a ball. → _____

5.

You are on a bus for forty minutes. → _____

1F • The hard one

f It's not my thing.

Practise it three times. Four words that refuse something without insulting it.

1G • Own it

Write down one thing you love doing and one thing everybody thinks you love doing and you do not. Do not write your name. The class guesses whose card it is.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

On the bench, four o'clock
There is a guitar between them and it belongs to neither of them.

Emre
he plays most evenings

Lin
she has never played anything

Emre's speech bubble: I love playing. I usually play in the evening. I never go swimming. I hate it.
Should I offer it to her?

Lin's speech bubble: I don't like running. I quite like cycling. I hardly ever watch films in English.
If I say I can't play, he will offer.

{width=6.6in}

6in}

On the bench, four o'clock — There is a guitar between them and it belongs to neither of them.

2A • On the bench 🎧 Track 7.1

Before you listen. Emre plays the guitar. Lin does not play anything. Guess: does she say so?

Listen once. One question. How often does Emre play?

Listen again. Complete the table.

	Loves	Likes	Hates
Emre
Lin

Listen again. True or false?

- Emre plays the guitar every day. ☐ T ☐ F
- Lin hates running. ☐ T ☐ F
- Emre never goes swimming. ☐ T ☐ F
- Lin sometimes watches a film in English. ☐ T ☐ F

Noticing. Four sentences from the recording.

1. I love playing.
2. I usually play in the evening.
3. She hardly ever watches films.
4. I don't like running.

In sentence 2, where is the frequency word — before the verb or after it? And in sentence 1?

2B • Decoding clinic 📻 Track 7.2

Twenty seconds of Emre at speed. Three jobs.

1. Count the frequency words you hear.
2. In playing and running, the last sound is one sound, not two. What do you hear at the end?
3. One word in every sentence is louder than the rest. Write the louder word in each.

Transcripts, page 153.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Liking a thing, and liking doing a thing

3A • Notice

Look at the four sentences in Part 2 again.

1. What comes after love, like and hate here — a noun or a verb?
2. What is on the end of that verb?
3. In sentence 2, is usually before or after the verb?
4. In She hardly ever watches, where is the frequency phrase?

3B • See

6in}

{width=6.

*Where the frequency word stands — Before an ordinary verb. After am, is and are. The verb decides, not the word.*

3C • Know

like / love / hate + -ing the activity, as an I love playing. I hate

	activity	running. like / love / hate + a noun	the thing itself	I love music. I hate football. frequency, before the verb	always, usually, often, sometimes, never, hardly ever	I usually play in the evening.
frequency, after be	the same words, the other side	I am always late.

Never is already negative. I never play — and not I don't never play. One negative is all English allows in a sentence.

6in}

{width=6.

From always down to never — Six words on the ladder, and the longer phrases beside them at the height they mean.

short words, before the verb	always · usually · often · sometimes · hardly ever · never
longer phrases, at the end	every week · once a week · twice a month · at the weekend · most days · in my free time

Why it matters. Saying what you like is a sentence. Saying how often you do it is the thing that makes somebody believe you.

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with always, usually, sometimes, never, hardly ever or the -ing form.

Emre loves (1) _____ (play) the guitar. He (2) _____ plays in the evening — about five days a week. Lin (3) _____ watches a film in English; she says once a month is not often. I (4) _____ go swimming. I hate it. I (5) _____ listen to music on the bus — every day.

3E • Use — guided

Put the frequency word in the right place.

1. I play football at the weekend. (sometimes)
2. She is late for the Friday class. (always)
3. They go to a concert. (hardly ever)
4. We watch a film in English. (often)
5. He is tired on Monday morning. (usually)

3F • Use — open

In pairs. Say five things you do in your free time with a frequency word in every sentence. Your partner says whether they believe the frequency word.

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. I love ____ (cook).
2. She ____ goes to a concert. (very rarely — two words)
3. They are ____ late. (100% — and watch where it goes)
4. I don't like ____ (run).
5. × I don't never play football. → correct it.
6. × I like play the guitar. → correct it.

Two plain verbs with nothing between them

✗ I like play football.

play - a second plain verb, unattached

like

Two verbs have arrived in a row and nothing is joining them. Like needs a thing to like, and a plain verb is not a thing: it is an action looking for a subject. English has to turn it into a thing first, and the tool for that is -ing.

✓ I like playing football.

playing - now it is a thing

like

The -ing turns the action into something you can like, hate, start, finish or be good at. It behaves exactly like music or football in the sentence: I like music, I like playing. Same slot, same job.

What the writer thought:
In many languages the second verb simply stays in its dictionary form, and that form is what you learned first. English allows that after can, must and will, and refuses it after like, love and hate. The difference is not logical; it is just which word you are standing behind.

{width=6.

6in}

Two plain verbs with nothing between them — Two plain verbs with nothing between them

0-3 → Workbook pp. 28-31. 4-5 → Part 6. 6 → page 156.

Part 4 • Speaking ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — the frequency round

Everybody says one thing they do and how often. Nobody may use a frequency word that has already been used. There are thirteen of them in this unit, so the round can go round thirteen people.

4B • The functional core — saying what you prefer

Two recommendations of the same thing
One of them is about the speaker. One of them is about the listener.

about me

I love it · I go every week · it is great — 0 came about you

nobody is good · come at ten to · you can leave — 3 came

Find the six. Which one got somebody to turn up, and what is the word that appears in it and not in the other?

6 differences — find them all

6in}

Two recommendations of the same thing — One of them is about the speaker. One of them is about the listener.

Language Bank

strong yes

I love... · It's the best part of my week.

mild yes

I quite like... · I don't mind...

no, politely

It's not my thing. · I'm not very good at it.

how often

every week · once a week · twice a month · most days · at the weekend · in my free time

Information gap. Learner A has what the class says it likes. Learner B has what the class actually did last month. Find the two activities where the two lists disagree.

4C • The performance — the recommendation 🔴

Recommend one free activity to somebody who would not choose it. Two minutes. You must:

say how often you do it · say one thing that is bad about it · say why they would like it, not why you do

Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did the speaker ever say you instead of I?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Did I use -ing after like, love or hate every time? ☐ Did I give a frequency for the thing I recommended?

Part 5 • Reading ♦ A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title is "Eleven playing, four watching." Which group do you think goes home happier?

5B • Read — sixty seconds

Eleven playing, four watching

There is a football game in the park every Saturday at four. It has been there for nine years. Nobody organises it. People come, and if there are enough of them, they play.

Eleven people are playing today. Four people are sitting on the bench watching. Three of the four are looking at their phones.

Ana walks past the park every Saturday. She likes watching for a few minutes. She never plays, and she says she is not very good, which is true, and she also says she is too old, which is not.

Here is the thing nobody says out loud. Of the four people on the bench, two of them came to play. They arrived, they saw the game had already started, and they sat down. They have been sitting down for forty minutes.

Nobody would have minded. Nobody even knows they are there.

5C • Answer

1. How often is there a game?
2. How many people are playing?
3. What does Ana say about herself?
4. How long have the two people been sitting on the bench?
5. Why did the two people sit down instead of joining?
6. The writer says one of Ana's reasons is true and one is not. Why mention both?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Guess from the text. Then check.

nobody organises it • if there are enough of them • out loud • had already started • nobody would have minded

5E • The counter-text

The poster on the noticeboard

Four activities, four lines for names. Read the names, not the activities.

FRIDAY CLUB - ROOM 3 - 18.00

One hour. Free. A teacher stays. Put your name on one line.

ACTIVITY	HOW OFTEN	NAMES
FILM CLUB	once a month	11
FOOTBALL	every week	3
CONVERSATION HOUR	every week	2
BOOK GROUP	twice a month	0

WHAT THE NAMES LOOK LIKE

Film club	11 names, 9 in the same pen
Football	3 names, all of them already play on Saturday
Conversation hour	2 names, both of them teachers
Book group	no line drawn under it at all

AND AT THE BOTTOM, IN A DIFFERENT PEN:

"or we can just hang out" - no line for names under it, and four ticks beside it put there by four different people.

Eleven. More than the other three together

Nought. And it is the one the teacher suggested

Nine names in one pen means one person signed up nine friends

Both the conversation names are staff

No line, no name, four ticks. This is the real answer

{width=6.

6in}

The poster on the noticeboard — Four activities, four lines for names. Read the names, not the activities.

Read the poster and answer.

1. What time does the club start?
2. Which activity has the most names, and how many?
3. Which activity has no names at all?
4. Who wrote the line at the bottom, and why is it in a different pen?

5F • Two texts

The poster has four activities on it. The reading says nobody organises the football game and it has run for nine years.

Which one is more likely to still be running next year? Say one sentence.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

How often, exactly

{width=6.

6in}

Going swimming, at six frequencies — The same activity, six times. What each frequency actually looks like on a calendar.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

hardly ever

two words, and it means almost never once a week

not one time in a week

twice a month

English has a special word for two and none for three at the weekend

at, not in and not on

6B • Say them

always • usually • often • sometimes • hardly ever • never • every week • once a week • twice a month • most days

6C • Chunk

1. _____ a week — seven days, one time
2. _____ a month — two times in a month
3. at the _____ — Saturday and Sunday
4. in my _____ time — when nobody needs me
5. most _____ — more than half of them
6. _____ ever — almost never, two words

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. Where does the word in brackets go — before the verb or after it?

1. She is late. (always)
2. They go swimming. (never)
3. I play football. (sometimes)
4. He watches films in English. (hardly ever)
5. We are tired on Friday. (usually)
6. You are right. (often)

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

The -ing sound, and the word that gets the push

One sentence, four meanings

The same five words. The big circle moves, and the answer changes.

●	●	●	●	●
I	play	foot-ball	on	Sa-tur-day	Who plays? - I do, not him
●	●	●	●	●
I	play	foot-ball	on	Sa-tur-day	Do you watch? - no, I play
●	●	●	●	●
I	play	foot-ball	on	Sa-tur-day	What do you play? - football, not tennis
●	●	●	●	●
I	play	foot-ball	on	Sa-tur-day	When? - Saturday, not Sunday

6in}

One sentence, four meanings — The same five words. The big circle moves, and the answer changes.

7A • Hear

/ŋ/ at the end: playing · running · swimming · cooking · drawing It is one sound, made at the back. Not n + g. Nothing after it.

7B • Say

Say each one three times. Then say this:

I love cooking, but I hate washing. — four -ing endings, and only one of them is stressed.

7C • Make it mean something

Say this sentence four times, pushing a different word each time:

I play football on Saturday. I play — not him · play — I don't watch · football — not tennis · Saturday — not Sunday

One sentence, four meanings, and not a single word changed. Which push answers which question?

7D • Fluency 20 ■

Twenty seconds: six things you do in your free time, each with a frequency word. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

A recommendation • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

There is a football game in the park every Saturday at four. [when and where, first]

Nobody organises it and nobody is good. I am not good. [the barrier, removed before it is raised]

I go most Saturdays. Sometimes there are twenty people and sometimes there are six. [how often, and what it is actually like]

If you come, come at ten to four. After four it feels like joining something. [the one practical thing nobody tells you]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. I am not good. Why admit that in the second line?
2. Sometimes six. Why not only say twenty?
3. The last line is about ten minutes. Why is the most useful sentence the smallest one?

8B • The anti-model

I love football. It is a great sport. You should try it. It is very fun and good exercise.
Everybody likes it.

Correct English, and nobody has ever gone to anything because of a sentence like this. Rewrite it with one time, one place and one honest problem.

8C • Plan

when and where → the barrier, removed → how often, honestly → the one practical detail

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

☐ Is there a frequency word or phrase in it? ☐ Is there one sentence that is about the reader and not about the writer?

8F • Publish

On the noticeboard, with the writer's name. Count who actually turns up.

Part 9 • The File ♦ A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

STUDY FILE • The English you would do anyway

6in}

The hours that are both — Study in one colour, free time in another, and a third colour for the hours that are already both.

9A • The hours that are both

6in}

One hour of a series, five ways — Five panels. Only the second panel costs anything, and it costs four seconds.

What people think	study time and free time are different time
-------------------	---

What is true	the series, the music and the game are already in English
What is missing	not more hours. One small change inside the hours you have
The change	subtitles in English, not in your language

9B • One line, out loud

Watching is input. Saying one line out loud turns an hour of watching into an hour of practice, and it costs four seconds. Choose one line from anything you watched this week and say it to the person next to you.

9C • Role play — recommend it in English

In pairs. Recommend a series, a song or a game to your partner in English, for two minutes, and then listen to theirs. You must both end by agreeing to try the other one.

9D • The thing you already do

Name one thing you do every week for pleasure that could be in English with no extra time at all. What is the one change?

9E • Transfer — before next week

Change the subtitles on one thing to English and watch it. Bring two lines you heard and understood, and one you heard and did not.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

{width=6.

6in}

What the class says, and what the class did — Two bands that ought to be the same shape. They are, except in two places.

10A • Relay

Half the class has what people say they like. Half has what people did last month. Find the two activities where the lists disagree, by speaking only. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify — for one person

A new student asks: What can I do here at the weekend for no money? Answer in four sentences. One of them must say how often.

10C • Online

Write one message to a classmate inviting them to something. Two sentences. One must say when and one must remove a barrier.

10D • Your language

Does your language put the frequency word in the same place as English? Say I sometimes play football in your language. Where does sometimes go?

Part 11 • The Decision ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

Friday at six

Escola Monte has a free room on Friday evening and a teacher who will stay for an hour. The poster went up with four options and eleven names on one of them.

Film club. Eleven names. One film a month, with English subtitles. Easy to run. Nobody speaks.

Football. Three names. Free, outdoors, and it already exists in the park on Saturdays.

Conversation hour. Two names. The thing that would help the most, and the thing almost nobody chooses.

Or we can just hang out. Written at the bottom in a different pen, with no line for names.

11A • The evidence

Room 3 at seven on a Friday
The film club on the left, the conversation hour on the right. Same room, same hour.

film club

11 here · lights off · 0 speaking · 11 at eight conversation hour

4 here · lights on · 4 speaking · 4 at half past eight

Find the six. One of them is not visible at seven at all – it is who is still there at eight.
6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

Room 3 at seven on a Friday — The film club on the left, the conversation hour on the right. Same room, same hour.

 Track 7.6. Lin, 20 seconds: "I put my name on the film club. I know the conversation hour is better for me. I know it. I still put my name on the film club."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think the school should run _____, because _____.

Words you can use: film · game · music · hang out · speak · free time · every week

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think the school should run _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

The film club, and then twenty minutes of talking about it afterwards with the lights on. Eleven people chose the film and two chose the conversation. Put the conversation on the end of the thing eleven people chose, and eleven people get it.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. The school ran the film club with twenty minutes afterwards. In November eleven came. By February nine were coming, and the twenty minutes had become forty because nobody wanted to leave.

Then something nobody expected: four of the nine stopped watching the film and started arriving at eight, for the talking. They had chosen the film club and what they wanted was the room.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

Eleven people chose a film. What were they actually choosing?

Part 12 • Landing ♦ all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

1. I love _____ (cook) for other people.
2. She _____ goes to a concert. (almost never — two words)
3. They are _____ late on Friday. (100%)
4. _____ a week — seven days, one time
5. _____ a month — two times
6. at the _____ — Saturday and Sunday
7. in my _____ time
8. _____ days — more than half of them
9. I _____ to music on the bus. (two words)
10. It's not my _____.
11. (Unit 6) How _____ eggs do you want?
12. (Unit 5) There _____ a lot of people in the park.

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Write six sentences about your free time. Three must use like, love or hate with -ing. Three must have a frequency word or phrase. One must be something you do not enjoy.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

☐ I can say what I like doing. Evidence: 4C, 8D ☐ I can use -ing after like, love and hate.

Evidence: 3G ☐ I can put a frequency word in the right place. Evidence: 6D ☐ I can push the right word in a sentence. Evidence: 7C

12D • Replay

Record 0C again. Listen to both. What is different?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

SPORT • football • swimming • running • cycling MUSIC AND MAKING • music • guitar • dancing • cooking • drawing WATCHING AND READING • film • series • book • game PLACES • park • beach • concert WHAT YOU SAY • go swimming • play football • listen to music • watch a film • hang out • It's not my thing. HOW OFTEN • always • usually • often • sometimes • hardly ever • never HOW OFTEN, IN WORDS • every week • once a week • twice a month • at the weekend • in my free time • most days • How often do you...?

12F • Next

Unit 8 • What is a job, really?

A1.1 • Unit 8 • What Dona Filipa Actually Does

English Animated • Starting Out • Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 160–181 • 22 pp
• ~9 hours

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

Four workplaces at twenty past eleven — Fourteen things to find. In every one of them, somebody is doing something that is not in their job title.

What is a job, really?

By the end of this unit you can say what somebody is doing right now, and what they usually do.

◆ A · THE WORLD

Four workplaces at the same minute, and what is actually happening in them

◆ B · THE SYSTEM

present continuous, against the present simple · 22 words for jobs and workplaces · a and an with job names · the short forms of be · the long er sound

◆ C · THE PERFORMANCE

You interview somebody about their job and report what they really do

0A · Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ a kitchen ☐ an office ☐ a hospital ☐ a factory ☐ a uniform ☐ a customer ☐ a machine ☐ a phone ☐ a floor ☐ a coffee ☐ a clock ☐ a door ☐ a box ☐ a chair

Three of these words are not in the picture. Which three?

a shift · a team · a manager

0B · Guess it

Look at the four people in a uniform. Which of them has the most difficult job? Say one thing. You can use these words:

work · uniform · customer · clean · phone

0C · Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

What are you doing right now, and what do you usually do at this hour?

You will listen to this again on the last page.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — the job, and the work

{width=6.

6in}

One job title, nine things — The solid lines are in the contract. The dotted ones are not, and they are longer.

job	The word on the contract.
shift	The hours. Not the same thing as the job.
team	The people. Also not the same thing as the job.
uniform	What makes strangers treat you differently.
customer	The person who decides whether the job was done.
manager	The person who decides whether it was done well.

1B • Meet — the words

job • team • office • factory • kitchen • hospital • school • nurse • driver • waiter • cook • cleaner • engineer • manager • uniform • shift • customer

Write each word under the right picture.

{width=6.

6in}

One working day, in section — Eleven tasks. Eleven words. The band in the middle is twice as thick as the others.

1C • Sort — a person, or a place?

Put each word in the right box. Two of them can go in both. Which, and why?

hospital · kitchen · cook · nurse · office · factory · cleaner · manager · school · driver

A PERSON	A PLACE	BOTH
----------	---------	------

1D • What people actually do all day

answer the phone	Eleven times an hour, and none of it is in the job description.
serve customers	The visible part. About a quarter of the time.
clean the floor	Twice a day, and everybody notices only when it is not done.
make coffee	Forty times a morning in a café. Twice a morning in an office, and it is somebody's unpaid job.
fix a machine	Four minutes, if you know which machine. Forty, if you do not.
look after	The widest verb on this page. It covers people, machines and buildings.

Now say them. Five of these six have an object after them. Which one changes its meaning completely if you take the little word away?

1E • Stretch — the phrases you will need today

work in a... · start work · finish work · take a break · What do you do?

Match each phrase to the moment you need it.

1. Somebody at a party asks about your life. → _____
2. You are telling somebody where you spend your mornings. → _____
3. It is twenty past eleven and you have been standing since six. → _____
4. The shift begins. → _____
5. The shift ends, and the shift ending is not the same as the work ending. → _____

1F • The hard one

f I'm on my break.

Practise it three times. Four words that stop a conversation politely, and almost nobody at A1 knows them.

1G • Own it

Write down one job you would like and one job you would be good at. Do not write your name. The class guesses whose card it is. They are often not the same job.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

The corridor, twenty past eleven — One of them is writing a job description. The other one is doing the job.

2A • Twenty past eleven 📞 Track 8.1

Before you listen. Ana is writing a new job description for the cleaner. Guess: how many things will Dona Filipa say she does?

Listen once. One question. What is Dona Filipa doing at this moment?

Listen again. Complete the table.

Right now

Usually, at this hour

Dona Filipa

Ana

Marco

Listen again. True or false?

1. Dona Filipa is cleaning the floor right now. ☐ T ☐ F
2. She usually answers the phone in the morning. ☐ T ☐ F
3. Ana is writing the job description now. ☐ T ☐ F
4. Dona Filipa works in a hospital as well. ☐ T ☐ F

Noticing. Four sentences from the recording.

1. I'm cleaning the office.
2. I clean the office every morning.
3. She's answering the phone.
4. She answers the phone about eleven times an hour.

Two are about right now and two are about every day. How can you tell, in the first two words?

2B • Decoding clinic Track 8.2

Twenty seconds of Dona Filipa at speed. Three jobs.

1. Count how many -ing verbs you hear.
2. I'm and she's are very short. How many sounds are in each?
3. She says work and worker and working. Which one has the longest vowel?

Transcripts, page 154.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 B • THE SYSTEM

Right now, and every day

3A • Notice

Look at the four sentences in Part 2 again.

1. Which two words make the right now form?
2. What is on the end of the verb in those two?
3. In the every day sentences, is there a form of be?
4. Which pair would you use to describe a photograph?

3B • See

6in}

A wide lens and a narrow one — The same verb, twice. What changes is how much of the week you can see.

3C • Know

right now	am / is / are + -ing	I'm cleaning the office. She's answering the phone. every day	the plain verb (+ s)	I clean the office every morning. She answers the phone. negative	am not / isn't / aren't + -ing	He isn't working today. question	be to the front	What are you doing? Is she working?

Two tenses, two kinds of truth. She answers the phone is true about her job. She's answering the phone is true about this second. Both can be true at once, and both can be false at once.

6in}

{width=6.

The same verb, two widths — One of these is true about the week. The other is true about this minute.

a / an with jobs

She's a nurse. He's an engineer. I'm a cleaner.

never without it

She's nurse is not English. Every job takes a or an.

an before a vowel sound

an engineer · an artist · an office worker

Why it matters. This is how you describe a photograph, a video, a street, a room, or anything at all that is happening while you are speaking.

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with the present simple or the present continuous.

Dona Filipa (1) _____ (clean) the office every morning. Right now she (2) _____ (answer) the phone, because Ana is not at the desk. Marco (3) _____ (make) about forty coffees every morning. At this moment he (4) _____ (sit) down, and he (5) _____ (not work). What (6) _____ you _____ (do)?

3E • Use — guided

Change each sentence from every day to right now.

1. She cleans the floor.
2. He makes coffee.
3. They serve customers.
4. I answer the phone.
5. We fix the machine.

3F • Use — open

In pairs. Describe a photograph on your phone without showing it. Your partner asks five questions. Every question must be in the present continuous.

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. She _____ (clean) the office at this moment.
2. He _____ (start) work at six every day.
3. They _____ (not work) today.
4. What _____ you _____ (do) right now?
5. × She is nurse. → correct it.
6. × I am work at the moment. → correct it.

The job name standing bare

✗ She is nurse.

nurse - with nothing in front of it is

In English a job name is a group you belong to, not a title you hold. Without the small word in front, the sentence sounds as though nurse were her name, or a rank like Captain. Many languages need no article here, which is why this error survives for years.

✓ She is a nurse.

a - one of a large group

is

The a says one of many. It is the same a as in a desk and a pen, and it is required with every job name in the singular: a cook, a driver, a manager, an engineer. Only in the plural does it go. They are nurses.

What the writer thought:
The word feels like a title, and titles in English do go bare - she is Head of Year, he is Captain. Jobs are not titles. If ten people in the building could truthfully say it, it needs a or an.

{width=6.

6in}

The job name standing bare — The job name standing bare

0-3 → Workbook pp. 32-35. 4-5 → Part 6. 6 → page 178.

Part 4 • Speaking ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — what am I doing?

One person mimes. The class asks Are you...? questions. Only present continuous questions are allowed, and only ten of them.

4B • The functional core — talking about work

The same job, described twice
On the left, the contract. On the right, one hour of a Tuesday morning.

the contract

CLEANER • 05.00-08.00 • four duties

[bar]
[bar]
[]

one hour of a Tuesday

phone x11 • 2 drivers • chairs in room 3 • the radiator

[bar]
[bar]
[bar]

Find the six. One of the two would let you do the job tomorrow. Which, and what is in it that is not in the other?

6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

The same job, described twice — On the left, the contract. On the right, one hour of a Tuesday morning.

Language Bank

asking	What do you do? · Where do you work? · What are you doing now? the title	I'm a cook. I'm an engineer. I work in a hospital. the hours	I start work at six. I finish work at three. I'm on my break.
the reality	I usually... but today I'm...

Information gap. Learner A has four job titles. Learner B has four lists of what those people actually did yesterday. Match them, and find the one that cannot be matched.

4C • The performance — the job interview, reversed

Interview a classmate about a job somebody in their family does. Three minutes. You must ask:

what they do · where they work · what they are doing at this moment, probably · one thing they do that is not in the job title

Report in three sentences. Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did anybody say a job name without a or an?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Did I use both tenses, and for the right kind of truth? ☐ Did I find one thing that is not in the job title?

Part 5 • Reading A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title is "Nine things, and four of them are in the contract." Whose job do you think this is?

5B • Read — sixty seconds

Nine things, and four of them are in the contract

Dona Filipa is a cleaner. That is the word on her contract and it is the word she uses when somebody asks.

Here is her morning. She opens the building at five. She cleans the three floors. She puts the chairs back in room 3, which nobody asks her to do. She answers the phone between seven and half past eight, because there is nobody at the desk. She tells the delivery drivers where to leave the boxes. She knows which radiator does not work and she has told four managers.

At twenty past eleven she is standing in the corridor answering the phone, and a visitor walks past her without seeing her, because she is wearing a uniform and the visitor is looking for somebody in an office.

Four of those nine things are in her contract. The school would stop working on a Tuesday if she did only those four.

5C • Answer

1. What is the word on her contract?
2. What time does she open the building?
3. Why does she answer the phone?
4. How many of the nine things are in her contract?
5. Why does the visitor not see her?
6. The last line says the school would stop working. Which of the five extra things do you think matters most, and why?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Guess from the text. Then check.

the word on her contract · nobody asks her to · without seeing her · looking for somebody · would stop working

5E • The counter-text

The job description, in draft
Four numbered duties, and one line at the bottom that does all the work.

ESCOLA MONTE - JOB DESCRIPTION - DRAFT 2

Title	CLEANER
Hours	05.00 - 08.00
Days	Monday to Saturday
Hours a week	18

DUTIES

NO.	DUTY	HOW OFTEN
1	OPEN THE BUILDING	daily
2	CLEAN THREE FLOORS	daily
3	EMPTY THE BINS	daily
4	LOCK THE BACK DOOR	daily

AND THE LAST LINE:
"and other duties as required". Five words. They cover answering the phone for ninety minutes a day, meeting the delivery drivers, putting the chairs back in room 3, and knowing which radiator does not work.

In the margin, in pencil, a second list has been started and the first two items crossed out.

Three hours a day on paper

Eighteen hours a week. She is in the building for about thirty

Four duties, all of them things you can see when they are not done

Five words that are doing more work than the four duties above them

Somebody started to fix this and stopped after two lines

{width=6.6in}

The job description, in draft — Four numbered duties, and one line at the bottom that does all the work.

Read the job description and answer.

1. What is the job title?
2. What hours is the shift, and how many hours is that a week?
3. How many duties are listed?
4. What does and other duties as required mean, and who decides what they are?

5F • Two texts

The job description lists four duties. The reading lists nine things she does.

Which document is more useful to the school, and which is more useful to Dona Filipa? Say one sentence.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Job names, and the small word in front

What do you do?
One person, six answers, at the same party, one hour later each time.

1  1 "A cleaner."

2  2 "I'm a cleaner."

3  3 "I work in a school."

4  4 "I start at five."

5  5 "I open the building."

6  6 "I am the first person there."

{width=6.

6in}

What do you do? — One person, six answers, at the same party, one hour later each time.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

a doctor	never I am doctor an engineer	an , because of the sound at the start, not the letter an artist	same reason
a nurse	a , because n is a consonant sound

6B • Say them

a doctor • an engineer • an artist • a nurse • a waiter • a cleaner • a manager

6C • Chunk

1. I _____ in a hospital.
2. I _____ work at six.
3. I _____ work at three.
4. I need to take a _____ .

5. _____ do you do?
6. I'm on my _____.

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. Present simple or present continuous?

1. He _____ coffee at this moment. (make)
2. They _____ customers all day on Saturday. (serve)
3. Listen — somebody _____ the phone. (answer)
4. He _____ coffee about forty times a morning. (make)
5. She _____ the floor every evening. (clean)
6. Look — she _____ the floor now. (clean)

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

The long er, and the words that shrink

The words that shrink

Written at full length above, said at half length below. The shaded letters are not heard.

I am working	→	Im working	two words, one beat
she is working	→	sheez working	is becomes a z on the end of she they are working	→	their working	are disappears into one r
what are you doing	→	whatcha doin	four words, two beats, no g at the {width=6.

6in}

The words that shrink — Written at full length above, said at half length below. The shaded letters are not heard.

7A • Hear

/ɜ:/ long, and the mouth is almost closed: work · nurse · her · first · shirt the short forms: I'm · she's · he's · they're · we're · isn't · aren't

7B • Say

Say each group three times. Then say this:

She's a nurse and she's working. — two short forms and the long er, twice.

7C • Make it mean something

Say these two:

She is a nurse. — four words, four beats, and it sounds like a correction She's a nurse. — three beats, and it sounds like ordinary speech

The full form is not more polite. It is more emphatic. Which one would you say to a friend?

7D • Fluency 20

Twenty seconds: six things people in this building are doing right now. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing C • THE PERFORMANCE

What somebody really does • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

My aunt is a nurse. She works in a hospital in Porto. [the title and the place, first]

She starts work at seven and finishes at seven. Three days, then four days off. [the hours, and the shift pattern, which the title does not tell you]

She says the job is mostly talking. She answers questions from families all day. [what it actually is]

Right now she is probably asleep. It is four o'clock in the afternoon. [one sentence in the other tense, at the end]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. The hours come second, before the work. Why are the hours that important?
2. mostly talking. Why is that more informative than a list of duties?
3. The last sentence is a guess. Why end with something the writer does not know?

8B • The anti-model

My aunt is a nurse. She works in a hospital. It is a difficult job. She helps people. She is very tired.

Correct English, and it is every nurse who has ever lived. Add the hours, one real task, and one sentence about right now.

8C • Plan

title and place → hours and pattern → what it actually is → one sentence about now

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

☐ Is there one sentence in the present continuous? ☐ Is there one thing in it that is not in the job title?

8F • Publish

On the wall, with no names. The class matches the description to the job title.

Part 9 • The File A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

STUDY FILE • The work that is not on the timetable

{width=6.

6in}

The week that gets counted, and the week that does not — The lesson is the thin band. Everything thicker than it is invisible to everybody.

9A • Four hours, and the one that is visible

{width=6.

6in}

One sentence, five stages — Five panels. The third one is the one everybody wants to skip.

What is counted	the ninety minutes in the room
What is not counted	rehearsing a sentence on the stairs

What actually builds fluency	the rehearsal, every time
What it costs	nothing, and it is already happening

9B • Say it before you need it

The sentence you will need tomorrow can be built today, while you are walking. Choose one sentence you will have to say this week. Build it now, out loud, three times.

9C • Role play — the job you do not have

In pairs. One of you is doing a job you have never done. The other asks what you are doing. Three minutes. Everything in the present continuous. Nobody may say I don't know.

9D • The invisible hour

Find one hour in your week when your mind is free and your hands are busy. That hour is where the rehearsal goes. Name it.

9E • Transfer — before next week

Rehearse one English sentence out loud every day for seven days, before you need it. Bring the seven sentences and say which one you actually used.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

One Saturday at the cafe — The busiest two hours are not the two hours with the most money in them.

10A • Relay

Half the class has the job description. Half has the nine things. Rebuild the real job by speaking. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify — for one person

A new student asks: What jobs can I do here with my English? Answer in four sentences. Be honest and be useful.

10C • Online

Write one message to a classmate: say what you are doing right now and ask what they are doing. Two sentences.

10D • Your language

Does your language have a separate form for right now? Say I work and I am working in your language. Is it the same sentence?

Part 11 • The Decision ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

Saturday at the café

Marco's café is open eight hours on Saturday. He cannot do eight hours alone any more.

One person, eight hours. One wage, one person who learns the job properly, one person who is exhausted by two.

Two people, four hours each. Two wages for the same money, nobody exhausted, and twice as much training. The handover at twelve is twenty minutes of nobody serving anybody.

Nobody. He closes at two. He loses the afternoon, which is a third of Saturday's money and the only part he enjoys.

11A • The evidence

The counter at half past two

One person eight hours in, and the second of two people two hours in.

one person, hour eight

2 served · 3 waiting · 9 min wait · a dropped cup

two people, hour two

2 served · 0 waiting · 1 min wait · a clean floor

Find the six. One of them is on the floor behind the counter, and it is the one that costs money later.

6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

The counter at half past two — One person eight hours in, and the second of two people two hours in.

 Track 8.6. Marco, 20 seconds: "Eight hours is not the problem. Hour seven is the problem. In hour seven I am still working and I am not working well, and the customer can see it."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think Marco should _____, because _____.

Words you can use: job · shift · customer · break · work · team · uniform

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think Marco should _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

Two people, with the handover at eleven and not at twelve. The twenty minutes of nobody serving is the whole argument against two people, and it disappears if you move it to the quietest hour instead of the busiest one.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. Marco hired two people and moved the handover to eleven. The twenty minutes cost him almost nothing, because at eleven there are four customers and at twelve there are twenty-six.

Then something he did not expect: the two of them overlapped for twenty minutes every week, and they started telling each other things about the customers. By March they knew more about his regulars than he did.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

Marco was buying hours. What did the twenty minutes of overlap turn out to be worth?

Part 12 • Landing all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

1. She _____ (clean) the office at this moment.
2. He _____ (start) work at six every day.
3. They _____ (not work) today.
4. She's _____ nurse.
5. He's _____ engineer.
6. I _____ in a hospital. (the phrase for where you spend your working hours)
7. I need to take a _____.
8. What _____ you _____? (the question about a job)
9. I'm on my _____.
10. Somebody has to _____ the phone.
11. (Unit 7) I love _____ (cook).
12. (Unit 6) How _____ coffees do you make?

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Write six sentences about one person's working day. Four in the present simple, two in the present continuous, one job name with a or an, and one thing that is not in the job title.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

☐ I can say what somebody is doing now. Evidence: 4C, 8D ☐ I can choose between the two present tenses. Evidence: 3G, 6D ☐ I can name a job correctly with a or an. Evidence: 6B ☐ I can use the short forms of be. Evidence: 7C

12D • Replay

Record 0C again. Listen to both. What is different?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

THE PEOPLE · nurse · driver · waiter · cook · cleaner · engineer · manager · customer THE PLACES · office · factory · kitchen · hospital · school THE WORDS AROUND IT · job · team · uniform · shift WHAT YOU SAY · work in a... · start work · finish work · take a break · What do you do? · I'm on my break. WITH A OR AN · a doctor · an engineer · an artist · a nurse WHAT PEOPLE DO · answer the phone · serve customers · clean the floor · make coffee · fix a machine · look after · come in · go out

12F • Next

Unit 9 • How do you find your way?

A1.1 • Unit 9 • Five Minutes from the Metro

English Animated • Starting Out • Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 182–203 • 22 pp • ~9 hours

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

The square at the bottom of the hill, half past eight — Fourteen things to find. There are four ways out of this square and three of them look the same.

How do you find your way?

By the end of this unit you can give directions that somebody can actually follow.

◆ A • THE WORLD

A square with four ways out of it and one person turning round in the middle

◆ B • THE SYSTEM

prepositions of place and movement
· the imperative · 22 words for the city · on, in and at for time · where the stress goes in a compound word

◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

You direct somebody who cannot see what you can see

0A • Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ a street ☐ a square ☐ a corner ☐ a station ☐ a church ☐ a bank ☐ a hotel ☐ a pharmacy
☐ a hill ☐ a bus stop ☐ traffic lights ☐ a tram ☐ a taxi ☐ a bridge

Three of these words are not in the picture. Which three?

a museum · a library · a train

0B • Guess it

Look at the person in the middle. Which way are they going to go? Say one thing. You can use these words:

left · right · up · hill · corner

0C • Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

How do you get from your home to this building?

You will listen to this again on the last page.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — the square and the ways out

{width=6.

6in}

Four ways out of one square — Every line has a time and a cost on it. Two of them take the same time and only one is flat.

metro

Four minutes underground, and you arrive with no idea which way you are facing.

tram

Eleven minutes, and you can see where you are the whole way.

bus

Nine minutes, and it stops on the wrong side of the square.

on foot

Twenty-two minutes, and it is the only one that is always the same length.

taxi

Six minutes, and it cannot get up the hill.

1B • Meet — the words

street • square • corner • bridge • station • church • museum • library • bank • hotel • pharmacy • hill

Write each word under the right picture.

Eleven places. Eleven words. The gradient is the whole problem and you can see it here

The hill, in section — Eleven places. Eleven words. The gradient is the whole problem and you can see it here.

Put each word in the right box. Two of them can go in both. Which, and why?

A PLACE

A DIRECTION

BOTH

next to touching, or nearly opposite

across something — a street, a square, a room behind

you cannot see it from here between two things, one on each side, and you have to name both in front of

not the same as before. Before is time

on the corner

the building that two streets share

1E • Stretch — the phrases you will need today

Match each phrase to the moment you need it.

1. The driver opens the doors and you are at your stop. → _____
2. You are telling somebody not to turn. → _____

3. You are waiting, and there is a shelter and a number on a pole. → _____
4. You are telling somebody where to turn, and there is a red light there. → _____
5. The doors open and you are not at your stop yet. → _____

1F • The hard one

f It's about ten minutes.

Practise it three times. The most useful lie in any language, and nobody minds it.

1G • Own it

Write directions from this room to the nearest place where you can buy water, in three sentences. Do not write your name. The class decides whose directions would work.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

In the square, twenty to nine — She has the address. He has the directions. Neither has what the other needs.

2A • In the square 📻 Track 9.1

Before you listen. The school is four hundred metres away and six storeys up. Guess: how many turns are there?

Listen once. One question. How long does the man say it takes?

Listen again. Complete the table.

	Turn	Landmark
first second third

Listen again. True or false?

1. The school is opposite the church. ☐ T ☐ F
2. You go straight on at the traffic lights. ☐ T ☐ F
3. The school is next to a pharmacy. ☐ T ☐ F
4. It takes about ten minutes. ☐ T ☐ F

Noticing. Four sentences from the recording.

1. Go straight on.
2. Turn left at the traffic lights.
3. It's opposite the church.
4. Don't go up the hill.

Sentences 1, 2 and 4 have no you in them. Why not, and what are they?

2B • Decoding clinic Track 9.2

Twenty seconds of the man at speed. Three jobs.

1. Count the directions he gives.
2. In bus stop and traffic lights, which word is louder — the first or the second?
3. He says one landmark twice. Which, and why do you think he repeats it?

Transcripts, page 155.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Telling somebody where, and telling them to go

3A • Notice

Look at the four sentences in Part 2 again.

1. What is the first word in sentences 1, 2 and 4?
2. Is there a subject in those three?
3. How do you make the negative one?
4. In sentence 3, is opposite about where something is, or about going somewhere?

3B • See

Words that sit still, and words that move

Place words put a dot on the map. Movement words draw a line across it.

The school

is opposite

the church

—

Go

up the hill

STILL: next to · opposite · behind · between · in front of · on the corner

MOVING: up · down · along · across · into · out of · past

And the instruction has no subject at all. Go, turn, take, walk - the plain verb, with don't in front of it for the negative.

{width=6.

6in}

Words that sit still, and words that move — Place words put a dot on the map. Movement words draw a line across it.

3C • Know

where it is	next to · opposite · behind · between ... and ... · in front of · on the corner	The school is opposite the church.
where you go	up · down · along · across · into · out of · past	Go up the hill. Walk past the bank.
the imperative	the plain verb, and no subject	Go straight on. Turn left. Take the second street.
the negative imperative	don't + the plain verb	Don't go up the hill. Don't turn at the first corner.

The imperative is not rude. In directions, in recipes and on signs, it is the normal and polite form. The rudeness, when there is any, is in the voice, not in the grammar.

at, on and in - three sizes of container

The same three words you use for places, reused for time, and the shapes match.

AT

•

ON

I

IN

III

a point

six o'clock · night · the weekend

a named day

Monday · the first of May a long stretch

the morning · May · 2026

Small to large, left to right. The two that break the pattern are at night and at the weekend, and they are worth learning as single words.

{width=6.

6in}

at, on and in - three sizes of container — The same three words you use for places, reused for time, and the shapes match.

at	a point: at six o'clock · at night · at the weekend on	a named day: on Monday · on the first of May
in	a long stretch: in the morning · in May · in 2026

Why it matters. Directions are the first thing you give a stranger and the first thing a stranger gives you, and both of you are in a hurry.

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with on, in, at, opposite, next to or between.

The school is (1) _____ the church, across the square. The pharmacy is (2) _____ the bank — there is one on each side of it. Come (3) _____ Monday, (4) _____ the morning. The class starts (5) _____ nine o'clock. The bus stop is (6) _____ the hotel, almost touching it.

3E • Use — guided

Make each one an instruction, then make it negative.

1. You turn left at the traffic lights.
2. You go straight on.
3. You take the second street.
4. You get off at the square.
5. You walk up the hill.

3F • Use — open

In pairs, back to back. One of you has a map. The other has the same map with four things missing. Fill the gaps by speaking only.

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. _____ left at the traffic lights. (the instruction)
2. _____ go up the hill. (the negative instruction)
3. The school is _____ the church, across the square.
4. Come _____ Monday, _____ the morning. (two words)
5. × You turn left at the lights. → make it an instruction.
6. × The bank is between the pharmacy. → correct it.

The bracket with nothing to close on

✗ The bank is between the pharmacy.

Between needs two sides. With one noun after it the listener waits for the second and the sentence never finishes. It is the only preposition in this unit that takes two objects, and the word that joins them is and, never with or or.

✓ The bank is between the pharmacy and the hotel.

Now the bracket closes. Both sides are named and the listener can place the bank exactly. If you only know one side, use next to or opposite instead - they take one object and they are just as precise.

What the writer thought:
Learners reach for between because it feels like the strongest place word. It is, but only when you can name both sides. Half a between is less useful than a whole next to.

{width=6.

6in}

The bracket with nothing to close on — The bracket with nothing to close on

0-3 → Workbook pp. 36-39. 4-5 → Part 6. 6 → page 200.

Part 4 • Speaking ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — the blind route

One person closes their eyes. The class directs them from their chair to the door. One instruction per person. Nobody may touch them.

4B • The functional core — giving directions

The same route, written twice
Landmarks on the left. Metres on the right. Both of them are accurate.

landmarks

church · pharmacy · traffic lights · yellow building — 9 of 10

metres

120 m · turn · 240 m · turn · 40 m — 3 of 10

Find the six. Nine out of ten people followed one of these successfully. Which, and why is accuracy not the reason?

6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

The same route, written twice — Landmarks on the left. Metres on the right. Both of them are accurate.

Language Bank

the instruction	Go straight on. Turn left. Take the second street. Walk past the bank.
the landmark	at the traffic lights · opposite the church · on the corner · next to the pharmacy
the transport	get on at the square · get off at the second stop · by bus · on foot
the time	It's about ten minutes.

Information gap. Learner A has the route from the metro. Learner B has the route from the tram. Find the one place where the two routes meet.

4C • The performance — direct somebody who cannot see

Your partner closes their eyes and you direct them from the square to the school. Two minutes. You must:

use three landmarks · give one negative instruction · say how long it takes · warn them about one thing before they reach it

Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did the speaker ever say left or right without a landmark?

4E • Two criteria

☐ Did every turn have something you can see attached to it? ☐ Did I say the hard part before it happened, not after?

Part 5 • Reading A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title is "One in four never arrives." What do you think goes wrong?

5B • Read — sixty seconds

One in four never arrives

The school's website says: Escola Monte. Five minutes from Alto metro station.

That is true. It is four hundred metres. Four hundred metres on flat ground is five minutes.

The four hundred metres are up a hill with a gradient of one in eight, and there are four ways out of the square at the bottom, and three of them look the same.

Last September, twenty-eight people came for the first lesson of the beginners' course. Ana booked thirty-seven. Seven of the nine who did not come telephoned, and six of those seven telephoned from somewhere in the square.

Ana walked down to the square and brought them up, one at a time, over forty minutes. She did it again in January. Nobody has changed the website.

5C • Answer

1. How far is the school from the metro?
2. How many ways out of the square are there?
3. How many people came in September?
4. How many of the missing seven telephoned from the square?
5. Why is the website not wrong, and why is it still the problem?
6. Ana solved it twice by walking down. Why is that not a solution?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Guess from the text. Then check.

flat ground · a gradient of one in eight · look the same · one at a time · nobody has changed it

5E • The counter-text

The How to find us page
Everything on it is true. The biggest thing on the page is a telephone number.

ESCOLA MONTE - HOW TO FIND US
Address	Rua do Monte 14, 1200 Lisboa
GETTING HERE
Metro	5 minutes from Alto
Bus	3 minutes from the square
Tram	not mentioned
Parking	not mentioned
THE MAP ON THE PAGE
Street names	none
Landmarks	none
The hill	not shown - the map is flat
Size	4 cm wide
AND AT THE BOTTOM, IN BOLD, 18 POINT: "Lost? Telephone 21 333 4455." It is the largest thing on the page. Somebody knew about the problem and solved it with a telephone number instead of with two more sentences of directions.

True. Four hundred metres, and five minutes on flat ground

Three minutes from the square - and the square is the problem

A map with no names on it is a picture, not a map

The one fact that matters most is the one the map cannot show

The biggest thing on the page is an admission

{width=6.

6in}

The How to find us page — Everything on it is true. The biggest thing on the page is a telephone number.

Read the page and answer.

1. What is the address?
2. How many minutes does it say from the metro, and from the bus stop?
3. What is missing from the map?
4. Why is the telephone number the biggest thing on the page, and what does that tell you?

5F • Two texts

The website says five minutes. The reading says one in four never arrives.

Which number should the school change? Say one sentence.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Getting there

Six decisions between the square and the door
In four of the six, the obvious choice is the wrong one.

1 Out of the metro - which way?
2 The church: go past it, not round it
3 The traffic lights: turn LEFT
4 Three streets on the left: all wrong
5 The hill: keep going, 4 minutes
6 The yellow building: ring the bell

{width=6.

6in}

Six decisions between the square and the door — In four of the six, the obvious choice is the wrong one.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

get on / get off	for buses, trams, trains and the metro
by bus / on foot	by for vehicles, and on foot is the odd one out in the morning / at night	the one pair that does not follow the shape
on Monday	never in Monday

6B • Say them

bus • tram • train • metro • taxi • on foot • by bus • get on • get off

6C • Chunk

1. _____ Monday — a named day
2. _____ the morning — a long stretch
3. _____ six o'clock — a point
4. _____ foot — the one that is not by
5. _____ bus — a vehicle
6. get _____ — the doors open and you are there

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. on, in or at?

1. _____ the first of May
 2. _____ six o'clock
 3. _____ Monday
 4. _____ the weekend
 5. _____ the morning
 6. _____ night
-

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Two words, one stress

Two words, one stress
In a compound the first word is louder. In an ordinary phrase it is the second.

 BUS	 stop	a compound - one thing, with a name
 TRAF-fic	 lights	a compound
 POST	 of-fice	a compound
 a big	 STREET	an ordinary phrase - adjective + noun
 the next	 COR-ner	an ordinary phrase
 a	 GREEN-house	a building for plants
 a green	 HOUSE	a house that is green

6in}

{width=6.

Two words, one stress — In a compound the first word is louder. In an ordinary phrase it is the second.

7A • Hear

compounds — the FIRST word is louder: BUS stop · TRAFfic lights · POST office · RAILway station phrases — the SECOND word is louder: a big STREET · the next CORner · a long HILL

7B • Say

Say each group three times. Then say this:

The BUS stop is on a big STREET. — one compound, one phrase, opposite stresses.

7C • Make it mean something

Say these two:

a GREENhouse — a glass building for plants a green HOUSE — a house that is green

Same four syllables. The stress is the only difference, and it changes the thing. Which is which?

7D • Fluency 20

Twenty seconds: direct somebody from this room to the street, in six instructions. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing C • THE PERFORMANCE

Directions somebody can follow • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

From Alto metro. Come out and turn right. [where you start, and the first move]

You will see a church and a pharmacy. Walk between them, up the hill. It is steep. [the landmark, the move, and the warning before it happens]

Walk for four minutes. Don't turn. There are three streets on the left — ignore all three. [the part where people get it wrong, said in advance]

We are the yellow building on the right. Ring the bell. [what you will see, and what to do]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. It is steep. Why is that in the directions at all?
2. ignore all three. Why name the wrong turnings instead of only the right one?
3. The last line says ring the bell. Why does that matter?

8B • The anti-model

We are at number 14, Rua do Monte, 1200 Lisbon. Five minutes from Alto metro station.
Telephone 21 333 4455.

Correct English, true, and one in four people never arrive. Rewrite it with two landmarks, one warning and one instruction about what to do when you get there.

8C • Plan

where you start → landmark and move → the wrong turnings, named → what you will see, and what to do

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

☐ Is there a landmark attached to every turn? ☐ Is there one warning about something before it happens?

8F • Publish

Swap with someone who does not know your route. They follow it on a map and mark where they got lost.

Part 9 • The File A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

STUDY FILE • Knowing where you are

6in}

The course is the same hill — Four false turnings off the route, and all four of them feel like progress.

9A • Four turnings

6in}

Twelve weeks, five panels — The fourth panel is a decision. The fifth is what happens if you do not make it.

The flat part

the first six weeks. Everything is new and everything sticks

The hill	weeks seven to twenty. The same effort, and it feels like nothing
What people do	change method, because the hill feels like a wrong turning
What the hill is	the normal shape of learning anything

9B • A landmark, not a feeling

You cannot feel progress at A1, because the thing you measure with is the thing that is changing. Pick a landmark instead. Record yourself today. Record the same thirty seconds in eight weeks.

9C • Role play — directing a beginner

In pairs. One of you started three months after the other. Give them directions through the next three months. Use the imperative. Name one wrong turning.

9D • Where are you, exactly?

Not good or bad. Name one thing you could not do in September and can do now. That is your position. It is the only honest one.

9E • Transfer — before next week

Record thirty seconds answering the question from 0C. Label it with today's date and put it somewhere you will not lose it. You will listen to it in Unit 10 of the next book.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

6in} {width=6.

Four ways out of the square, as data — The route most people take is the worst on three of the four measures.

10A • Relay

Half the class has the route from the metro. Half has the route from the tram. Build one set of directions that works from both, by speaking. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify — for one person

A visitor telephones from the square and says: I can see a church. Direct them in three sentences. You cannot see what they see.

10C • Online

Write one message giving a classmate directions to a place near here. Two sentences. One must contain a warning.

10D • Your language

Does your language say left and right, or does it use north and south, or uphill and downhill? Give directions from the square to the school in your language. What do you use?

Part 11 • The Decision ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

Five minutes from the metro

One in four new students does not arrive at the first lesson. Six out of seven of those who telephone are standing in the square at the bottom of the hill.

Option one: rewrite the website. Two landmarks, one warning about the hill, and the three streets to ignore. Free, and it takes twenty minutes.

Option two: put a sign in the square. The city charges one hundred and forty euros a year for a sign on a pole, and it has to be approved.

Option three: meet every new student at the metro for the first week of each term. It works perfectly, it costs Ana four hours a term, and it stops the moment she is busy.

11A • The evidence

The square at ten to nine in September
The same nine people, drawn twice. One pole is different.

no sign

9 standing · 9 phones · 4 directions · 08.50

one sign

9 walking · 1 direction · 1 pole · 08.50

Find the six. One of them is a clock, and it tells you what the sign was actually worth.

6 differences — find them all

{width=6.

6in}

The square at ten to nine in September — The same nine people, drawn twice. One pole is different.

 Track 9.6. A new student, 20 seconds: "I was in the square for twenty minutes. I had the address. I had the map on my phone. The map says you are here, and I was here. I didn't know which street."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think the school should _____, because _____.

Words you can use: street · square · corner · hill · sign · metro · bus stop

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think the school should _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

Rewrite the website, and name the three streets you should not take. The sign and the walking both fix the square. The website is where the student is standing two weeks before they are ever in the square, and it is the only one of the three that is free.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. Ana rewrote the page. She added two landmarks, one line that said it is a steep hill, allow ten minutes, and the sentence there are three streets on the left — ignore all three. In January, twenty-six of twenty-seven arrived.

Then something she did not expect: the students who arrived were less nervous than previous years, not only less lost. The line about the hill had told them that the school knew what the walk was like.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

Twenty minutes of writing fixed something two hundred euros could not. What was actually broken?

Part 12 • Landing ◆ all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

1. _____ left at the traffic lights. (the instruction)
2. _____ go up the hill. (the negative instruction)
3. The school is _____ the church, across the square.
4. The pharmacy is _____ the bank and the hotel. (two things, one on each side)
5. _____ Monday
6. _____ the morning
7. _____ six o'clock
8. _____ foot
9. _____ bus
10. Where do I _____ ? (two words — the doors open and you leave)
11. (Unit 8) She's _____ engineer.
12. (Unit 7) I _____ go to concerts. (almost never, two words)

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Write directions from the nearest station to your home, in six sentences. Three must be instructions, one must be negative, two must contain a landmark, and one must say how long it takes.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

☐ I can give directions somebody can follow. Evidence: 4C, 8D ☐ I can say where something is. Evidence: 3G ☐ I can use on, in and at for time. Evidence: 6D ☐ I can stress a compound word correctly. Evidence: 7C

12D • Replay

Record 0C again. Listen to both. What is different?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

THE PLACES • street • square • corner • bridge • station • church • museum • library • bank • hotel • pharmacy • hill WHERE • left • right • opposite • behind • between • next to • in front of WHAT YOU SAY • bus stop • traffic lights • straight on HOW YOU GET THERE • bus • tram • train • metro • taxi • on foot • by bus • get on • get off WHEN • on Monday • in the morning • at six o'clock HOW LONG • It's about ten minutes.

12F • Next

Unit 10 • What is this worth?

A1.1 • Unit 10 • Thirty-Nine Euros

English Animated • Starting Out • Escola Monte, Lisbon Student's Book pages 204–225 • 22 pp • ~9 hours

Part 0 • The Big Picture ♦ A • THE WORLD

{width=6.

6in}

The shopping street, first of December, ten past five — Fourteen things to find. Three of the four sale signs give the old price. One does not.

What is this worth?

By the end of this unit you can say what you bought, when, and what happened.

◆ A • THE WORLD

A shopping street in December, where the price on the sign is not the price

◆ B • THE SYSTEM

was and were • the past simple of regular verbs • 22 words for money and shopping • ordinals and dates •
the three sounds of -ed

◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

You report something you bought and what went wrong with it

0A • Find it — fourteen things

Find these in the picture. Write the number.

☐ money ☐ a price ☐ a card ☐ cash ☐ a receipt ☐ a sale ☐ a jacket ☐ a shirt ☐ shoes ☐ a bag ☐ a queue ☐ a till ☐ a window ☐ a door

Three of these words are not in the picture. Which three?

change • a size • a colour

0B • Guess it

Look at the four sale signs. Which shop is the busiest, and why? Say one thing. You can use these words:

price • cheap • expensive • sale • buy

0C • Say it

Record. Thirty seconds. Do not prepare.

What is the last thing you bought, and was it worth it?

You will listen to this again on the last page.

Part 1 • Vocabulary Lab 1 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

1A • Meet — one jacket, four prices

{width=6.

6in}

One jacket, five numbers — Four of the five are known. The fifth is the only one that decides anything.

price	The number on the label. It changes four times a year.
cost	What it cost somebody to make. Nobody in the shop knows it.
sale	A different price, with a date on it.
change	What comes back if you pay in cash.
receipt	The only proof that any of this happened.
card	No change, no receipt unless you ask, and a record somewhere else.

1B • Meet — the words

money • price • cost • cheap • expensive • change • receipt • card • cash • sale • size • colour
• shoes • shirt • jacket

Write each word under the right picture.

One shop, in section

Eleven things. Eleven words. The most expensive thing is at the front and the cheapest is at the back.

the window

the jacket · the price · the word SALE

the rails

shirt · shoes · size · colour · and the label on everything

the till

money · cash · card · change · receipt

the stockroom

the boxes · and what nobody tried on in November

The sign is the cheapest thing here and it does the most work

Everything on a rail has four numbers attached to it

Where the only piece of paper in the story is printed

Nothing back here has been looked at by a customer

{width=6.

6in}

One shop, in section — Eleven things. Eleven words. The most expensive thing is at the front and the cheapest is at the back.

1C • Sort — the thing, or the money?

Put each word in the right box. Two of them can go in both. Which, and why?

change · cost · cash · colour · price · shirt · size · receipt · shoes · jacket
THE THING	THE MONEY	BOTH

1D • What you say in a shop

How much does it cost?	The full question. Four words of it are almost silent.
pay by card	by, like by bus . Not with card .
try it on	And the little word can move: try the jacket on .
take back	What you do with it on the second of December.
pay back	What the shop may or may not do.
Can I have a receipt?	Ask before they close the till, not after.

Now say them. Two of these six are about the moment before you buy and two are about the days afterwards. Which are which?

1E • Stretch — the phrases you will need today

How much does it cost? · pay by card · try it on · take back · It's too expensive.

Match each phrase to the moment you need it.

1. You like it and you have not looked at the label. → _____

2. It is the right colour and you do not know the size. → _____
3. You have no cash and there is a machine on the counter. → _____
4. You have looked at the label. → _____
5. It is the second of December and the bag has not been opened. → _____

1F • The hard one

f It's too expensive.

Practise it three times. Three words that end a conversation without offending anybody, and they work in every shop in the world.

1G • Own it

Write down the last three things you bought and what each one cost. Do not write your name. The class guesses whose list it is.

Part 2 • Listening ♦ A • THE WORLD

6in}

{width=6.

The counter, second of December — She has the jacket and the receipt. The assistant has a rule from Monday.

2A • The second of December 🎧 Track 10.1

Before you listen. Lin bought a jacket yesterday in a sale. Guess: will she get her money back?

Listen once. One question. How much was the jacket?

Listen again. Complete the table.

	Before the sale	In the sale	What she gets the jacket

Listen again. True or false?

1. She bought it on the first of December. ☐ T ☐ F
2. She paid by card. ☐ T ☐ F
3. She tried it on in the shop. ☐ T ☐ F
4. The shop gives her the money back. ☐ T ☐ F

Noticing. Four sentences from the recording.

1. I bought it yesterday.
2. It was thirty-nine euros.
3. They were all half price.
4. I tried it on at home.

Two of these have was or were. What decides which one?

2B • Decoding clinic Track 10.2

Twenty seconds of the assistant at speed. Three jobs.

1. Count the past verbs you hear.
2. Tried, asked and wanted all end in the same two letters. Do they end in the same sound?
3. She says a date. Write it the way she says it, not the way it is written.

Transcripts, page 156.

Part 3 • Grammar Lab 1 B • THE SYSTEM

Yesterday

3A • Notice

Look at the four sentences in Part 2 again.

1. Which word is the past of is? Which is the past of are?
2. In sentence 4, what is on the end of the verb?
3. Is that ending the same for I, he and they?
4. How would you make sentence 4 negative?

3B • See

{width=6.

6in}

The box behind now — Everything inside the box wears -ed. Am, is and are become two words only.

3C • Know

was	I, he, she, it	It was thirty-nine euros. I was in the shop at five. were	you, we, they	They were all half price. You were right. regular past	add -ed , and it is the same for everybody	I tried. She asked. They wanted. negative	didn't + the plain verb	I didn't try it on. She didn't ask. question	did + the plain verb	Did you try it on? When did you buy it?

The -ed goes, exactly like the s did. Once did or didn't arrives, the verb loses its ending: Did you tried? is wrong for the same reason Does she checks? was wrong in Unit 3.

Three odd ones, then a rule

First, second and third have to be learned. Everything after them is the same ending.

learn these

first	1st · nothing like one second	2nd · nothing like two third	3rd · almost like three, and not quite fourth	4th · and from here it is just + th
fifth	5th · the v turns into an f
tenth	10th · ten + th
twentieth	20th · the y turns into ie, then + th

then it is a rule

{width=6.6in}

Three odd ones, then a rule — First, second and third have to be learned. Everything after them is the same ending.

the odd three then a pattern
the date, said

the months here

first · second · third fourth · fifth · sixth · tenth · twentieth on the first of May · on the twentieth of March January · March · July · December

Why it matters. Every story you will ever tell is in the past, and this is the half of it that follows a rule.

3D • Use — controlled

Complete with was, were, didn't or the past of the verb.

The jacket (1) _____ thirty-nine euros. They (2) _____ all half price on the first of December. I (3) _____ (try) it on at home. I (4) _____ try it on in the shop. (5) _____ you pay by card? — Yes. I (6) _____ (ask) for a receipt.

3E • Use — guided

Put each sentence into the past.

- I pay by card.
- She tries it on.
- They are half price.
- He asks for a receipt.
- It is too expensive.

3F • Use — open

In pairs. Tell your partner about something you bought that went wrong. Five sentences, all in the past. Your partner asks three questions, all with did.

3G • Check — six items, mark your own

1. The jacket _____ thirty-nine euros.
2. They _____ all half price.
3. I _____ (try) it on at home.
4. _____ you pay by card?
5. × Did you tried it on? → correct it.
6. × They was half price. → correct it.

The past, marked twice

✗ Did you tried it on?

Did is the past of do, and it has already told the listener when this happened. The -ed on the verb says it a second time, and English pays for it once. This is the same rule you met in Unit 3 with does and the s - the helper takes the ending and the verb goes bare.

✓ Did you try it on?

One past marker, at the front, where the listener meets it first and can stop waiting. The same applies to the negative: I didn't try, never I didn't tried.

What the writer thought:
You have just learned to add -ed, and the habit is new and loud. It reaches for every verb it can see. The test is simple: if did or didn't is in the sentence, the verb has nothing on the end.

{width=6.

6in}

The past, marked twice — The past, marked twice

0–3 → Workbook pp. 40–43. 4–5 → Part 6. 6 → page 222.

Part 4 • Speaking ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

4A • Fluency starter — yesterday, in a chain

The first person says one thing they did yesterday. The next repeats it and adds theirs. Every verb must be regular. Stop when somebody uses an irregular one.

4B • The functional core — reporting a purchase

The same complaint, twice

One of them begins with the problem. One of them begins with a date.

the problem first

"This doesn't fit." — no date, no receipt — nothing back

the date first

"I bought it on the 1st. Here is the receipt." — a credit note

Find the six. One of the two got something back. Which, and what is in the first sentence that made the difference?

6 differences — find them all

6in}

The same complaint, twice — One of them begins with the problem. One of them begins with a date.

Language Bank

what happened	I bought it on the first of December. It was thirty-nine euros. the problem	It's the wrong size. It doesn't fit. I tried it on at home. what you want	Can I take it back? Can you pay me back?
the paper	Can I have a receipt? I paid by card.

Information gap. Learner A has the shop's returns policy. Learner B has what the assistant said. Find the two things the assistant said that are not in the policy.

4C • The performance — the complaint

Report something you bought that was wrong. Two minutes. You must say:

when you bought it · how much it was · what happened · what you want

Your partner is the shop and must say no once before saying anything else. Record it.

4D • Observer

One person listens for one thing: did the speaker give the date before the problem?

4E • Two criteria

- ☐ Were all my verbs in the past? ☐ Did I say what I wanted, in one sentence, without being asked?

Part 5 • Reading ♦ A • THE WORLD

5A • Predict

The title is "Eighty-nine, thirty-nine, nineteen." What do you think the three numbers are?

5B • Read — sixty seconds

Eighty-nine, thirty-nine, nineteen

The jacket arrived in the shop in September at eighty-nine euros. Eleven people tried it on. Nobody bought it.

On the first of December it was thirty-nine euros. Lin bought it in four minutes. She did not try it on. The sign in the window said SALE and it did not say what the old price was, and she did not ask.

On the sixth of January it was nineteen euros. The three that were left were sold in two days.

The shop paid twenty-two euros for each one. All three prices made money. The question the shop asks itself is not whether thirty-nine was fair. It is why eleven people tried it on at eighty-nine and nobody bought it, because those eleven people are the ones who wanted it.

5C • Answer

1. How much was the jacket in September?
2. How many people tried it on then?
3. What was the price on the first of December?
4. How much did the shop pay for each jacket?
5. Why does the writer say all three prices made money?
6. The shop is interested in the eleven people. Why those eleven and not Lin?

5D • Vocabulary in context

Guess from the text. Then check.

arrived in the shop • she did not ask • the three that were left • made money • whether it was fair

5E • The counter-text

The receipt
Everything above the line is about one jacket. Everything below it is about every jacket.

CASA VERDE - RUA AUGUSTA 41 - LISBOA

DATE 01/12 17.14

ITEM	SIZE	EUR
JACKET - NAVY	S	39.00
	SALE	-50.00

TOTAL 39.00

CARD * 2208

ITEMS 1

AND IN SMALL TYPE AT THE BOTTOM, FOUR LINES:

1	Returns within 14 days with this receipt
2	Goods must be unworn
3	Sale items: credit note only
4	Credit notes valid 6 months. No change given

Line 3 is the one that applies. It is forty characters long, it is printed at six point, and it was on the paper before she paid - on the other side of the counter, inside the till.

The date. Everything in Part 11 depends on it

Thirty-nine. And the fifty it came down from is printed here, not in the window

Paid by card, so there is a second record somewhere

Line 3 is the whole of the problem

It was printed after the money moved

{width=6.6in}

The receipt — Everything above the line is about one jacket. Everything below it is about every jacket.

Read the receipt and answer.

1. What is the date on the receipt?
2. How much did she pay, and how was it paid?
3. What does the receipt say about returns?
4. Which of the four lines applies to this jacket, and would Lin have read it before she paid?

5F • Two texts

The window said SALE. The receipt says sale items: credit note only.

Which of the two did Lin read? Say one sentence.

Part 6 • Vocabulary Lab 2 ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

Dates, and the three odd numbers

One jacket, six dates
Six panels, six prices. Watch the eleven people in panel two.

1  September: 89 EUR	2  November: 89, and 11 tried it on	3  1 December: 39 EUR	4  2 December: back in a bag
5  6 January: 19 EUR	6  8 January: gone

{width=6.

6in}

One jacket, six dates — Six panels, six prices. Watch the eleven people in panel two.

6A • The ones that catch everybody

first, second, third

three irregular ones, and then the pattern starts fifth

the v turns into an f

twentieth

the y turns into an ie

on the first of May on the ... of ..., and both small words are needed

6B • Say them

first • second • third • fourth • fifth • tenth • twentieth • January • March • July • December

6C • Chunk

1. the _____ of December (1)
2. the _____ of January (2)
3. the _____ of March (3)
4. the _____ of July (5)
5. the _____ of May (20)
6. _____ your birthday? (the question, two words)

6D • Contrast Clinic

Six items. was or were?

1. They _____ all half price.

2. I _____ in the shop at five.
3. The jacket _____ thirty-nine euros.
4. You _____ right about the size.
5. The three that _____ left sold in two days.
6. It _____ too expensive in September.

Part 7 • Pronunciation & Fluency Lab ♦ B • THE SYSTEM

One ending, three sounds

One ending, three sounds

All of these are spelled -ed. Only one of the three groups adds a beat to the word.

/t/	/d/	/ɪd/
after a quiet sound, the ending stays quiet asked looked stopped washed watched your voice is off for /k/ /p/ /sh/ /ch/, so it stays off - and no extra beat	after a loud sound, the ending turns on tried opened called arrived played your voice is on for a vowel and for /h/ /l/ /v/, so it stays on - still no beat	after t or d, a whole syllable appears wanted started needed decided waited two t sounds cannot touch, so English puts a vowel between them - one extra beat

6in}

One ending, three sounds — All of these are spelled -ed. Only one of the three groups adds a beat to the word.

7A • Hear

/t/ after a quiet sound: asked · looked · stopped · washed /d/ after a loud sound: tried · opened · called · arrived /ɪd/ after t or d: wanted · started · needed · decided

7B • Say

Say each group three times. Then say this:

I asked, I tried, I waited. — three endings, one sentence, and they are all spelled the same.

7C • Make it mean something

Say these two:

I want it. — two syllables in the verb? No. One. I wanted it. — and now there are two, because the ending became a syllable.

Only the third group adds a syllable. The other two add a sound and no beat. Which group does washed belong to?

7D • Fluency 20 ●

Twenty seconds: six things you did yesterday, all regular verbs. Three times, faster.

Part 8 • Writing ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

What I bought • 40–60 words

8A • Read the model

I bought a jacket on the first of December. It was thirty-nine euros. [the date and the number, first]

The sign said SALE. It didn't say what the old price was. [the thing that mattered and did not look as if it did]

I didn't try it on. I tried it on at home and it was too small. [what I did not do, before what I did]

The shop gave me a credit note. I am not angry. I am annoyed with myself. [what happened, and then the honest sentence]

Questions about the writer's choices:

1. The date and the price are in the first two sentences. Why not the problem?
2. It didn't say what the old price was. Why is that the most important sentence in the piece?
3. The last sentence is about the writer, not the shop. What does it do to the whole thing?

8B • The anti-model

I bought a jacket. It was cheap. It was too small. The shop was not helpful. I was very angry. It was a bad experience.

Correct English, and it could be any shop and any jacket. Add a date, two numbers, and one thing you did wrong.

8C • Plan

the date and the price → the detail that mattered → what you did not do → what happened, and one honest sentence

8D • Write — 40 to 60 words

8E • Peer review — two things only

☐ Is there a date and at least one number? ☐ Is every verb in the past?

8F • Publish

On the wall, with no names. The class votes on which shop behaved worst — and then checks whether the writer actually said so.

Part 9 • The File ♦ A • THE WORLD + C • THE PERFORMANCE

STUDY FILE • What a year of this was worth

6in}

A year, in section — The hours are the thickest layer. The bottom layer is the only one anybody will ever see.

9A • The September recording

6in}

Two recordings, one year — Five panels. The fifth one is the only measurement in this book that cannot lie.

What you remember	the lessons you missed and the words you forgot
--------------------------	---

What you cannot remember

Why

The only honest measure

not being able to do this the thing you measure with is the thing that changed

a recording you made before you changed

9B • Listen to OC from Unit 1

You recorded thirty seconds in Unit 1 of this book and thirty seconds again in Unit 9. Listen to both now. Write down three differences. Be specific: not better, but what.

9C • Role play — the interview, one year on

In pairs. One of you is yourself in September. The other is yourself now. Ask your September self five questions. Answer as they would have answered.

9D • What it cost

A year of this cost you about one hundred and forty hours. Was it worth it? You now have enough English to answer that question in English, which is itself the answer.

9E • Transfer — before the next book

Record thirty seconds answering: What can you do in English now that you could not do in September? Keep it. You will need it at the end of A1.2.

Part 10 • Mediation & Interaction ♦ C • THE PERFORMANCE

6in}

{width=6.

One jacket, five months — The month with the most sales is not the month with the most money in it.

10A • Relay

Half the class has the prices by month. Half has the number sold by month. Work out which month made the shop the most money, by speaking. Ten minutes.

10B • Simplify — for one person

A classmate asks: What do I say if I want to take something back? Answer in four sentences. Include the one thing they must bring with them.

10C • Online

Write one message to a shop about something you bought. Two sentences. One must have a date and a number in it.

10D • Your language

Does your language say the date in the same order as English? Say the first of December in your language. Which comes first, the day or the month?

Part 11 • The Decision ◆ C • THE PERFORMANCE

Thirty-nine euros

Lin bought a jacket on the first of December for thirty-nine euros. It was eighty-nine in November. She did not try it on. At home it was too small.

The shop will give her a credit note for thirty-nine euros, valid for six months. It will not give her cash, and the receipt says so in small type at the bottom.

She can keep the jacket and give it to somebody. She can take the credit note and buy something else from a shop she now does not trust. Or she can argue, which will take forty minutes and probably fail.

11A • The evidence

The same window, five weeks apart
First of December on the left, sixth of January on the right. Both of them say SALE.

1 December

SALE · 39 · no old price · 9 people inside

Find the six. One of them is the number of people inside, and it is not the one you would predict.

6 differences — find them all

6 January

SALE · 89 crossed out · 19 · 4 people inside

{width=6.

6in}

The same window, five weeks apart — First of December on the left, sixth of January on the right. Both of them say SALE.

 Track 10.6. Lin, 20 seconds: "Thirty-nine euros is not a lot of money. I am not angry about thirty-nine euros. I am angry because I was in a hurry and the sign knew I was in a hurry."

11B • Talk about it

In threes. Use the frame. Everybody says one.

I think Lin should _____, because _____.

Words you can use: money · price · receipt · sale · expensive · size · take back

11C • Decide

Write two sentences. Choose, and say why.

I think Lin should _____, because _____.

11D • Model decision

Take the credit note and spend it the same day, on something she would have bought anyway. The forty minutes of arguing is worth more than thirty-nine euros, and a credit note she keeps for six months is a credit note the shop expects her to lose.

11E • The Reveal

What happened. Lin took the credit note and spent it that afternoon on a pair of shoes she had wanted since October. The shoes were nineteen euros and she lost twenty euros of the credit note, because the shop does not give change on a credit note.

Then something she did not expect: she read the small print on the second receipt before she paid. It took eleven seconds. She has read it in every shop since.

One question. You do not have to answer it out loud.

The jacket cost her thirty-nine euros and taught her something in eleven seconds. What was the actual price?

Part 12 • Landing all three lines

12A • Recycle — twelve items

1. The jacket _____ thirty-nine euros.
2. They _____ all half price.
3. I _____ (try) it on at home.
4. _____ you pay by card?
5. the _____ of December (1)
6. the _____ of January (2)
7. the _____ of March (3)
8. the _____ of May (20)
9. Can I have a _____, please?
10. It's too _____.
11. (Unit 9) _____ left at the traffic lights.
12. (Unit 8) She _____ (work) in a hospital. (every day)

12B • Consolidate — one task, everything in it

Write about something you bought, in six sentences. All six in the past. One with was or were, one negative with didn't, one date, and two numbers.

12C • Can-do, with evidence

☐ I can say what I bought and when. Evidence: 4C, 8D ☐ I can use was and were. Evidence: 6D ☐ I can make the past of a regular verb, and the negative. Evidence: 3G ☐ I can say the three -ed endings. Evidence: 7C

12D • Replay

Record 0C again. Listen to this one, the one from Unit 1 and the one from Unit 9. Three recordings, one year. What is different?

12E • Glossary — thirty-five words, as a map

THE MONEY • money • price • cost • change • cash • card • receipt • sale CHEAP OR NOT • cheap • expensive THE THINGS • shoes • shirt • jacket • size • colour WHAT YOU SAY • How much does it cost? • pay by card • try it on • take back • pay back • It's too expensive. • Can I have a receipt? THE NUMBERS IN ORDER • first • second • third • fourth • fifth • tenth • twentieth THE MONTHS • January • March • July • December THE DATE • on the first of May • When's your birthday?

12F • Next

A1.2 • Getting Around • Unit 1 • What happened at work yesterday?

Answer Key

Open tasks — speaking, writing, discussion — are not keyed. Their success criteria are in the unit, at 4E and 8E.

A1.1 • Unit 1 • The Yellow Building

0B • Guess it The man with the bag still on his shoulder and a piece of paper in his hand. Everybody else has put something down. He has not, because he does not yet know where anything goes.

1C • Sort — people or places?

PLACES — country · city · school PEOPLE — woman · class · friend · teacher · student
NEITHER — name · address The two that are neither: name and address. They are not people and they are not places — they are the words we use to find a person or a place. Accept class and school in two columns if the learner can say why: a class is a group of people and a room, and a school is a building and everybody in it.

2A • Monday morning, nine o'clock 📻 Track 1.1 1 T · 2 T · 3 F · 4 F Listen once — room 3.

Table — First name: Yusuf · Family name: HASSAN · Country: Egypt · Room: 3.

Notice — the word is be. Four forms: am (I) · is (she, he, it) · are (you, we, they) — and the fourth is the one most people miss: there is no fourth. Three forms do all six persons, which is why the verb feels so strange.

3D • Use — controlled 1 is · 2 is · 3 are · 4 is · 5 is · 6 am · 7 are · 8 are · 9 are · 10 are 3E • Use — guided 1 She is not a teacher. → Is she a teacher?

2 They are not in the café. → Are they in the café?

3 I am not late. → Am I late?

4 You are not Brazilian. → Are you Brazilian?

The negative puts not straight after the verb. The question swaps the first two words and moves nothing else.

5C • Answer 1 Yellow.

2 Sixteen.

3 She is at the desk — reception.

4 Because she reads the list on Sunday, before anybody arrives.

5 Two.

6 Who put the tag on the cat. The text does not answer it, and that is the point: a name tells you somebody decided, and it does not tell you who.

5D • Vocabulary in context steep — the street goes up sharply · floor — a level of a building, not the thing you walk on here · tag — a small label tied to something · nobody — not one person

5E • The counter-text 1 Five — Marco at 07.10, Ana at 08.30, Teresa at 08.45, Lin at 08.52 and Chika at 08.55. (Emre signed in at nine, not before it.)

2 Marco, at 07.10, and he works at the café next door.

3 None of the three. The sixth line has no capitals, no family name first and no room number.

4 Open answers. The useful ones ask him rather than guess: a name written wrongly on day one is written wrongly on every list for a year.

6C · Chunk 1 phone number · 2 How old · 3 room number · 4 how ... spell

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 I am twenty. 2 They are fifteen and seventeen. 3 Are you forty? (FOR-ty, not four-TEEN)

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 is · 2 are · 3 am · 4 Are · 5 Brazilian · 6 family · 7 spell · 8 (whichever the teacher says — the test is the stress, not the number) · 9 am · 10 This · 11 are · 12 desk

A1.1 · Unit 2 · The Six O'Clock Class

0B · Guess it Marco. The cafe lights are on, three people are already at his counter and the cafe clock says twenty to seven — so he was here before any of them. The school is still dark.

1C · Sort — a thing you do, or a way you feel?

BOTH — sleep YOU DO IT — drink · wash · work · study · eat YOU FEEL IT — happy · tired · hungry · thirsty The one in both: sleep. You do it — I sleep eight hours — and you need it, which is a feeling: I need sleep. It is the only word on the list that works as an action and as a state.

2A · Twenty to seven 🎧 Track 2.1 1 T · 2 F · 3 T · 4 F Listen once — six o'clock.

Table — Marco: gets up 6.00 · starts work 6.30 · goes to bed 22.30. Ana: gets up 7.00 · starts work 8.30 · goes to bed 23.00. The cleaner: gets up 4.00 · starts work 5.00 · sleeps in the afternoon, 1 to 4.

4 is false because half past ten is early, not late — the text says so.

Noticing — after I, we, they and you the verb is the plain form, with nothing on the end. It does not change at all. (In Unit 3 it changes once, for he, she and it.)

3D · Use — controlled 1 gets up · 2 opens · 3 work · 4 don't work · 5 don't work · 6 Do

3E · Use — guided 1 They don't open at six. → Do they open at six?

2 I don't eat breakfast at home. → Do I eat breakfast at home?

3 We don't study on Tuesday. → Do we study on Tuesday?

4 You don't work at night. → Do you work at night?

5 They don't go to bed early. → Do they go to bed early?

In every one the verb itself does not move and does not change. Only do arrives.

3G · Check — six items, mark your own 1 get up · 2 don't open · 3 Do ... work · 4 study · 5 I get up at six. — there is no am with an action verb · 6 Do you work on Saturday? — once do is there, the verb loses its ending

5C · Answer 1 At half past six.

2 At work — he makes it there and eats it standing up.

3 At five.

4 She sleeps, from one to four.

5 Because it is the only half hour of her day that nobody else is in. The radio is company she chose.

6 Because none of them is ever in the street at the same time as the others. Each of them sees an empty street and calls it quiet, and four empty streets at four different hours add up to a busy one.

5D · Vocabulary in context standing up — not sitting down to it · finishes — stops work · another building — a second one, not the same · with the radio on — while it is playing · he is not sorry about it — he does not apologise for it

5E · The counter-text 1 Half past eight.

2 Half past nine — an hour later than the weekdays, and yes, it is on the sign.

3 Sunday.

4 "The cleaner comes in at 5 by the back door. Do not ring the bell before 8.30 — nobody at the desk." It is for the delivery drivers, and it is written in pen because it was not true when the sign was printed.

5F · Two texts No. The sign says when the school is open to the public. Dona Filipa is not the public; she is the person who makes it possible to be open at half past eight. Opening hours and working hours are two different things, and no sign ever shows the second one.

6C · Chunk 1 half · 2 seven o'clock (or any hour) · 3 every · 4 morning · 5 night · 6 on

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 at night (not in the night) 2 on Monday 3 on Saturday afternoon (a named day wins over in the afternoon)* 4 at six o'clock 5 in the morning 6 at half past eight

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 get up · 2 don't open · 3 Do ... work · 4 at · 5 on · 6 in · 7 at · 8 past · 9 breakfast · 10 to · 11 tired · 12 is

A1.1 · Unit 3 · Eleven Screens

0B · Guess it The one with the map open is working out how to get somewhere; the one whose phone is face down has decided not to be interrupted. Neither of those is "not working". The three looking at the same thing at the same moment are the ones who are somewhere else.

1C · Sort — where does it live?

NEITHER — internet · online IT IS ON THE SCREEN — message · photo · notification · map · app · video YOU CAN TOUCH IT — camera · screen The two that are neither: internet and online. The internet is not in the phone and you cannot touch it; online is not a thing at all, it is a place you are. Everything in the middle column exists only while the screen is on.

2A · Eleven o'clock, at the back 📶 Track 3.1 1 F · 2 T · 3 F · 4 T Listen once — about ten.

Table — Yusuf: thinks 10 · the phone says 96 · first app: messages. Lin: thinks 90 · the phone says 96 · first app: the map.

Noticing — questions 1 and 4 are about you and they, so they take do; questions 2 and 3 are about your sister and it, one person or thing, so they take does — and the verb after does has no s on it.

3D · Use — controlled 1 checks · 2 does · 3 Do · 4 doesn't · 5 puts · 6 don't 3E · Use — guided 1 Which app does she open first?

2 How often does he check his phone?

3 When do they charge the battery?

4 Where does Teresa put her phone?

5 Why does Lin use a map every morning?

In every one: question word, then do or does, then the person, then the plain verb.

3G · Check — six items, mark your own 1 checks · 2 Does ... turn off · 3 don't use · 4 does ... take · 5 Does she check her phone? — does already has the s · 6 How often does he check it? — a question word still needs does after it

5C · Answer 1 In a drawer, from nine until one.

2 About forty times a day.

3 Not for the way — she knows the way. For the time: it tells her whether she is late.

4 Nothing. She takes a photo of her grandson every week and sends it to nobody; the photos stay on the phone.

5 Because the number arrives once a week and he never does anything with it. Surprise without a decision after it is just a feeling, and feelings reset.

6 The person. All four phones can do all four things. What differs is what each person has decided the phone is for — and three of the four have not decided anything.

5D · Vocabulary in context she does not miss it — she does not feel the absence · the real number — the measured one, not the remembered one · anyway — even though there is no need · a long battery — one that lasts · they stay on the phone — they go nowhere else

5E · The counter-text 1 Forty-six hours and fifty-four minutes.

2 Saturday, at eight hours twenty-six — and it is the weekend, not a work day.

3 Ninety-six times.

4 It is the first pick-up of the day: twelve minutes past six. It is the most interesting number because it is the only one that happens before the day starts — before any decision has been made, before the eyes are properly open.

5F · Two texts Neither is wrong. Yusuf is counting the times he decided to look, and that is about ten. The phone is counting every time it was picked up, decided or not. The gap between the two numbers is the whole of this unit.

6C · Chunk 1 How · 2 How · 3 How · 4 say · 5 mean · 6 understand

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 does — one person 2 does — one person 3 does — one person 4 Do — you 5 Does — one person, and take, not takes 6 Do — more than one

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 checks · 2 Does ... turn off · 3 many · 4 much · 5 Which · 6 Where · 7 Why · 8 log · 9 take · 10 charge · 11 get · 12 are

A1.1 · Unit 4 · Eleven Signs, One Building

0B · Guess it The handwritten one. A printed sign screwed to the wall was ordered, paid for and fixed; a handwritten one taped up was written by somebody who needed it said today. The newest sign in any building is always the one in pen.

1C · Sort — a thing, or a rule about a thing?

A PLACE OR A THING — toilet · sign · exit · stairs · lift A RULE — quiet · forbidden · allowed BOTH — open · closed The two in both: open and closed. A door is open — that is a fact about a thing. The school is closed — that is a rule about people. The same two words do both jobs, which is why a sign saying CLOSED is never only a description.

2A · Beside the lift 🗣️ Track 4.1 1 F · 2 T · 3 F · 4 T Listen once — yes. She is staff, and the notice says staff only.

Table — use the lift: she can, and she did not know it. Use the back exit: she can. Leave the trolley in the corridor: doesn't know — nobody has ever said.

3 is false: the line about students with a teacher was added in blue pen by somebody with no authority to add it.

Noticing — 1 and 2 are about a rule (permission and prohibition); 3 is a request for permission; 4 is about a body — four floors with a trolley is not something she is forbidden to do, it is something she cannot do.

3D · Use — controlled 1 can · 2 can't · 3 Can I · 4 Could you · 5 can't · 6 can 3E · Use — guided 1 Can I open the window? → Could you open the window, please?

2 Can I leave early? → Is it OK if I leave early?

3 Can I use your charger? → Could I use your charger for a moment?

4 Can you say that again? → Could you say that again, please?

5 Can I sit here? → Is it OK if I sit here?

Can I...? asks about me. Could you...? asks somebody else to act. Is it OK if...? asks about the rule rather than about the person.

3G · Check — six items, mark your own 1 can't use · 2 Can · 3 can carry · 4 Could · 5 She can use the lift. — can never takes an s · 6 Can you help me? — no to after can

5C · Answer 1 Eleven.

2 The city.

3 Out of order.

4 Four.

5 Because the people who made seven of them have left, and nobody now in the building chose them or could change them. A rule with no author is a rule nobody can argue with, which is not the same as a good rule.

6 Open answers. The strongest ones notice that a rule nobody owns is also a rule nobody defends — so it survives by being unopposed, not by being right.

5D · Vocabulary in context screwed to the wall — fixed with screws, meant to stay · taped — stuck up with tape, meant to be temporary · argues with — questions, disputes · since March — from March until now · too narrow — not wide enough

5E · The counter-text 1 STAFF ONLY.

2 "and students with a teacher" — it widens the rule, so it does not agree with the printed line; it contradicts it politely.

3 Eleven September — with no year on it.

4 Only the first. The printed line is the school's rule. The blue line changed the rule without authority, and the pencil line did not change the rule at all — it named a person to ask, which is the only one of the three that is actually useful.

5F · Two texts The notice is the rule, and it is wrong. A rule that is out of date is still the rule until somebody takes it down, which is exactly why taking it down is the whole of Part 11.

6C · Chunk 1 Excuse · 2 I · 3 you · 4 OK · 5 you · 6 lot

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 sorry — the answer is no 2 excuse me — before you speak 3 excuse me — before you move 4 sorry — it has already happened 5 excuse me — before you speak 6 sorry — it has already happened

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 can't use · 2 Can · 3 Could · 4 OK · 5 Excuse · 6 sorry · 7 are · 8 moment · 9 order · 10 put · 11 often · 12 open

A1.1 · Unit 5 · One Dictionary, Eleven People

0B · Guess it Eleven can sit — there are eleven desks. Ten can sit down comfortably, because there are only ten chairs. And one can look a word up, because there is one dictionary. The number depends entirely on what you think the room is for.

1C · Sort — one, or more than one?

YOU CAN COUNT IT — page · pen · word · notebook · desk · chair · exercise · answer YOU CANNOT COUNT IT — homework BOTH — paper The one in both: paper. As a material it cannot be counted — some paper. As a sheet or a document it can — two papers. Note that homework never can, however much of it there is: it is one of the commonest uncountable traps in English.

2A · In front of the cupboard 📻 Track 5.1 1 F · 2 T · 3 F · 4 T Listen once — two hundred euros.

Table — desks: eleven, enough. notebooks: four, not enough. dictionaries: one, not enough.

1 is false: eleven desks and ten chairs. 3 is false: there are twelve on the list and eleven in the room.

Noticing — what decides is the word after the verb, not the word there. One dictionary, so is; eleven desks, pencils and notebooks, so are.

3D · Use — controlled 1 there are · 2 a · 3 There is · 4 There aren't · 5 any · 6 an 3E · Use — guided 1 There aren't any chairs in the corridor. → Are there any chairs in the corridor?

2 There isn't a clock on the wall. → Is there a clock on the wall?
3 There aren't eleven students in this class. → Are there eleven students in this class?
4 There isn't any paper in the cupboard. → Is there any paper in the cupboard?
5 There aren't any questions on page nine. → Are there any questions on page nine?

Notice what happens to some: it becomes any in both the negative and the question.

3G · Check — six items, mark your own 1 There are · 2 There is · 3 any · 4 an · 5 There are eleven desks. — the verb agrees with the desks · 6 Are there any pens? — a question needs the verb first, and some becomes any

5C · Answer 1 One.

2 Open, face down, on a desk at the back, since Tuesday.

3 She met the same word in a different sentence and did not know it.

4 Seven.

5 Because one meeting never produces a word you can use, in anybody. What she did on Tuesday was normal and complete; what was missing was meetings two to seven.

6 Anything that makes the same word arrive again, far apart and in different sentences: a card, a reader, the word written where she will see it. Somebody has to arrange it, and the person who meets the word is the only one who can.

5D · Vocabulary in context face down — turned over, screen or page to the table · there is no way round it — it cannot be avoided · left to chance — nobody arranged it · a word you have — one you can use, not just recognise · over three weeks — spread across three weeks

5E · The counter-text 1 Eleven.

2 Ten — and no, it does not match. One person stands every lesson, and nobody has written that down anywhere except here.

3 A second dictionary. Two are listed; one is in the room. (Twenty pencils are also listed and there are none at all.)

4 NOTEBOOKS: written 7, crossed out, written again as 4. It tells you the room was counted twice, three days apart, and that three notebooks left the room between the two counts — which is a bigger finding than either number.

5F · Two texts The handwritten column is right and the printed one is a wish. The inventory records what the school believes it owns; the text records what is on the shelf. Four rows disagree, and nobody has signed the sheet, so nobody has to explain any of them.

6C · Chunk 1 boxes · 2 countries · 3 knives · 4 shelves · 5 children · 6 lot

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 is — one 2 are — eleven 3 are — three 4 is — water cannot be counted 5 is — paper cannot be counted, however much of it there is 6 are — two

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 There are · 2 There is · 3 any · 4 boxes · 5 cities · 6 knives · 7 children · 8 women · 9 look ... up · 10 do · 11 Can · 12 many

A1.1 · Unit 6 · Two Streets from the Café

0B · Guess it Because one of them has a small handwritten sign on it and the other has nothing. The tomatoes and the price are identical, so the sign is the only difference — and at seven in the morning a sign is the only thing a stranger has to go on.

1C · Sort — can you count it?

BOTH — chicken · fish YOU CANNOT COUNT IT — water · cheese · milk · rice · bread ONE, TWO, THREE — apple · tomato · egg The two in both: chicken and fish. Alive in a field or a river they are countable — two chickens, three fish. On a plate they are a substance — some chicken, a bit of fish. English counts the animal and weighs the meat, and the word does not change.

2A · Seven o'clock at the stall 📻 Track 6.1 1 T · 2 T · 3 F · 4 T Listen once — two euros twenty.

Table — tomatoes: two kilos, 2.20 a kilo. eggs: six — but there aren't any left. bread: two loaves, 1.10 each.

3 is false: he pays in cash. The market does not take cards.

Noticing — many goes with things you can count (eggs, photos, bottles); much goes with things you can only weigh or measure (rice, time, water). The word after it decides, and nothing else does.

3D · Use — controlled 1 How many · 2 How much · 3 any · 4 a lot of · 5 a bit of 3E · Use — guided 1 How many apples does he want?

2 How much water does she need?

3 How much rice do they buy every week?

4 How many eggs are there in the box?

5 How much bread does the café use a day?

In 3 and 5 the container makes it countable if you want it to: how many kilos, how many loaves.

3G · Check — six items, mark your own 1 How much · 2 How many · 3 any · 4 a · 5 How much rice do you need? — rice cannot be counted · 6 I bought two loaves of bread. — the number lands on the container

5C · Answer 1 Two euros twenty.

2 Nine.

3 The name of the farm and the name of the village.

4 Nineteen years.

5 Because they are old now and they do not need to be anywhere at seven. The stall did not lose its customers; the customers changed their hour.

6 The first one, and no. By the end of the day both stalls sell about the same amount. What the sign bought was not more customers but earlier ones — and the first stall has mistaken the time of day for a victory.

5D · Vocabulary in context side by side — next to each other · a handwritten sign — written by hand, not printed · there are not many of those left — few remain · by the end of the day — when the day finishes · thinks it is winning — believes it is doing better

5E · The counter-text 1 Five euros thirty-four.

2 Six litres — the line says $6 \times 1\text{ L}$, so the amount is in the line, not only the price.

3 Nineteen euros thirty-six.

4 Ten per cent off the next shop, Tuesdays only, before nine. It wants him to come back on the one morning of the week he goes to the market, at the one hour he would be there.

5F · Two texts Yes — about forty per cent more on the tomatoes. But the receipt does not tell you that the shop is open at seven in the evening, takes a card, and is forty seconds from his door, and the market is none of those things. A price is only half a comparison.

6C · Chunk 1 loaf · 2 bottle · 3 kilo · 4 slice · 5 tin · 6 Half

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 many — you can count eggs 2 much — bread is a substance 3 many — you can count apples 4 much — this one is about money, and money is always much 5 many — the container is countable even when its contents are not 6 much — water is a substance

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 much · 2 many · 3 any · 4 bit · 5 loaf · 6 bottle · 7 kilo · 8 slice · 9 run out · 10 all · 11 are · 12 Can

A1.1 · Unit 7 · Friday at Six

0B · Guess it The one watching the game. Three of the four are looking at a phone, which means the park is where they are and not what they are doing. The fourth has chosen to be there, and that is the whole difference between watching and sitting.

1C · Sort — alone, or with people?

ALONE — a book · drawing · a film · running · swimming WITH PEOPLE — football · a game · dancing BOTH — cooking · music The two in both: cooking and music. Both work completely alone and completely in company, and they are the only two on the list that change their nature when you add people rather than just becoming louder. Accept a film in either column with a reason — the point is that most film-watching is now solitary and did not used to be.

2A · On the bench 📻 Track 7.1 1 F · 2 F · 3 T · 4 F Listen once — most evenings, about five days a week.

Table — Emre: loves playing the guitar · likes cycling · hates swimming. Lin: loves cycling · likes watching films · hates running.

1 is false: most evenings is not every day. 4 is false: she hardly ever does — about once a month.

Noticing — in sentence 2 the frequency word is before the verb. In sentence 1 there is no frequency word at all; what follows love is a verb with -ing on it, which is a different question entirely.

3D · Use — controlled 1 playing · 2 usually · 3 hardly ever · 4 never · 5 always 3E · Use — guided 1 I sometimes play football at the weekend.

2 She is always late for the Friday class.

3 They hardly ever go to a concert.

4 We often watch a film in English.

5 He is usually tired on Monday morning.

In 2 and 5 the word goes after is. Everywhere else it goes before the verb.

3G · Check — six items, mark your own 1 cooking · 2 hardly ever · 3 always · 4 running · 5 I never play football. — never is already negative · 6 I like playing the guitar. — like needs -ing after it

5C · Answer 1 Every Saturday at four.

2 Eleven.

3 That she is not very good, which is true, and that she is too old, which is not.

4 Forty minutes.

5 Because the game had already started. Joining something that is running feels like interrupting it, and sitting down costs nothing in the first ten seconds.

6 Because separating them is the point. One of her reasons is a fact and the other is a story, and only the story is stopping her. If she only ever said the true one, nobody could help.

5D · Vocabulary in context nobody organises it — there is no person in charge · if there are enough of them — only when the number is sufficient · out loud — so that others can hear · had already started — it began before they arrived · nobody would have minded — no one would have objected

5E · The counter-text 1 Six o'clock.

2 The film club, with eleven.

3 The book group — nought, and there is no line drawn under it either.

4 Somebody who was not organising the club and did not want to sign a line — the four ticks beside it say four other people felt the same. It is in a different pen because it was added after the poster was finished, which is exactly what makes it honest.

5F · Two texts The football game. It has run for nine years with no organiser, no poster and no names, which means nothing has to keep happening for it to continue. The club needs a room, a teacher and a list, and any one of the three can fail.

6C · Chunk 1 once · 2 twice · 3 weekend · 4 free · 5 days · 6 hardly

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 after — She is always late. (after is) 2 before — They never go swimming. 3 before — I sometimes play football. 4 before — He hardly ever watches films in English. 5 after — We are usually tired on Friday. (after are) 6 after — You are often right. (after are)

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 cooking · 2 hardly ever · 3 always · 4 once · 5 twice · 6 weekend · 7 free · 8 Most · 9 listen · 10 thing · 11 many · 12 are

A1.1 · Unit 8 · What Dona Filipa Actually Does

0B · Guess it The engineer, who is not wearing one. The four uniforms tell you what those people are for, which makes the work visible and easy to judge. The hardest job on the page has nothing to look at — and that is also why nobody thanks the person doing it.

1C · Sort — a person, or a place?

A PLACE — hospital · factory · school BOTH — kitchen · office A PERSON — cook · nurse · cleaner · manager · driver The two in both: office and kitchen. Both are rooms, and both are also the people in them — ask the office, the kitchen is busy tonight. English does this with almost every workplace, which is why the school decided makes sense even though a building cannot decide anything.

2A · Twenty past eleven 📞 Track 8.1 1 F · 2 T · 3 T · 4 F Listen once — she is answering the phone.

Table — Dona Filipa: right now, answering the phone; usually at this hour, cleaning the second building. Ana: right now, writing the job description; usually, at the desk. Marco: right now, washing up; usually, making coffee.

1 is false: she cleans the office at six, not now. 4 is false: her second building is not a hospital.

Noticing — the first two words. I'm and she's carry a form of be, and a form of be in front of an -ing verb always means this minute. Without it you are describing the week.

3D · Use — controlled 1 cleans · 2 is answering · 3 makes · 4 is sitting · 5 isn't working · 6 are ... doing

3E · Use — guided 1 She is cleaning the floor.

2 He is making coffee.

3 They are serving customers.

4 I am answering the phone.

5 We are fixing the machine.

Two pieces arrive in every one: a form of be, and -ing on the verb. Nothing else changes.

3G · Check — six items, mark your own 1 is cleaning · 2 starts · 3 aren't working · 4 are ... doing · 5 She is a nurse. — a job name needs a or an · 6 I am working at the moment. — am needs the -ing form after it

5C · Answer 1 Cleaner.

2 Five.

3 Because there is nobody at the desk between seven and half past eight.

4 Four of the nine.

5 Because she is wearing a uniform and the visitor is looking for somebody in an office. A uniform tells you what somebody does, and then it stops you seeing them.

6 Open answers. The strongest ones pick the phone: it is the one that touches everybody else's work, and it is ninety minutes a day that appears nowhere.

5D · Vocabulary in context the word on her contract — her official job title · nobody asks her to — it is not required of her · without seeing her — not noticing her at all · looking for somebody — trying to find a person · would stop working — would cease to function

5E · The counter-text 1 Cleaner.

2 Five to eight, Monday to Saturday — eighteen hours a week on paper.

3 Four.

4 It means anything else the school needs, and the person who decides is whoever asks. It is five words standing in for ninety minutes of telephone, the delivery drivers, the chairs in room 3 and the radiator — all of it unnamed, and therefore unpaid and unarguable.

5F · Two texts The job description is more useful to the school, because four duties can be checked and advertised. The nine things are more useful to Dona Filipa, because they are the only record that the job she does is not the job she is paid for.

6C · Chunk 1 work · 2 start · 3 finish · 4 break · 5 What · 6 break

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 is making — this minute 2 serve — every Saturday 3 is answering — this minute 4 makes — every morning 5 cleans — every evening 6 is cleaning — this minute

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 is cleaning · 2 starts · 3 aren't working · 4 a · 5 an · 6 work · 7 break · 8 do ... do · 9 break · 10 answer · 11 cooking · 12 many

A1.1 · Unit 9 · Five Minutes from the Metro

0B · Guess it Open answers. The useful observation is that nothing in the square tells them: three of the four ways out look the same, and the one piece of information that would decide it — which street goes up — is the one the phone map flattens.

1C · Sort — a place, or a direction?

A PLACE — hill · station · square · church A DIRECTION — left · right · behind · between BOTH — opposite · corner The two in both: corner and opposite. You can stand on a corner — a place — and you can go round the corner — a direction. Opposite tells you where something is, and the shop opposite is itself a place. Accept left and right in both columns if the learner offers on your left.

2A · In the square 📻 Track 9.1 1 T · 2 F · 3 F · 4 T Listen once — about ten minutes.

Table — first: straight on, past the church. second: left, at the traffic lights. third: no turn — keep going, past three streets on the left.

2 is false: you turn left there. 3 is false: the pharmacy is in the square, at the bottom.

Noticing — they are instructions. An English instruction uses the plain verb with no subject at all, and don't in front of it for the negative. It is not rude: in directions, recipes and signs it is the normal form.

3D · Use — controlled 1 opposite · 2 between · 3 on · 4 in · 5 at · 6 next to

3E · Use — guided 1 Turn left at the traffic lights. → Don't turn left at the traffic lights.

2 Go straight on. → Don't go straight on.

3 Take the second street. → Don't take the second street.

4 Get off at the square. → Don't get off at the square.

5 Walk up the hill. → Don't walk up the hill.

The subject disappears and the verb does not change. Don't is the only thing added.

3G · Check — six items, mark your own 1 Turn · 2 Don't · 3 opposite · 4 on ... in · 5 Turn left at the lights. — drop the you · 6 The bank is between the pharmacy and the hotel. — between needs two 5C · Answer 1 Four hundred metres.

2 Four.

3 Twenty-eight, of thirty-seven booked.

4 Six of the seven.

5 Because five minutes is the time for four hundred flat metres, and these four hundred go up a one-in-eight hill. The sentence is true and useless, which is the worst kind of sentence to put on a website.

6 Because it depends on Ana being free. It fixed September and January and nothing else, and the next time she is busy the problem comes back exactly as it was.

5D · Vocabulary in context flat ground — level, not sloping · a gradient of one in eight — it rises one metre in every eight · look the same — are hard to tell apart · one at a time — individually, not together · nobody has changed it — it is still as it was 5E · The counter-text 1 Rua do Monte 14, 1200 Lisboa.

2 Five minutes from the metro, three from the bus stop in the square.

3 Street names and landmarks — and the hill, because the map is drawn flat.

4 Because somebody already knew people were getting lost and solved it with a telephone number instead of with two more sentences. The size of that number is a measurement of the problem.

5F · Two texts Neither. The number that should change is the number of sentences: five minutes is accurate, and what is missing is the hill, the three streets and the yellow building.

6C · Chunk 1 on · 2 in · 3 at · 4 on · 5 by · 6 off

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 on — a named day 2 at — a point 3 on — a named day 4 at — one of the two that break the pattern 5 in — a long stretch 6 at — the other one that breaks the pattern

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 Turn · 2 Don't · 3 opposite · 4 between · 5 on · 6 in · 7 at · 8 on · 9 by · 10 get off · 11 an · 12 hardly ever

A1.1 · Unit 10 · Thirty-Nine Euros

0B · Guess it The one whose sign gives only the new price. Without the old price there is nothing to compare the new one with, so twenty looks like a decision somebody else has already made for you. The three honest signs invite arithmetic; the fourth does not.

1C · Sort — the thing, or the money?

BOTH — change · receipt THE MONEY — cost · cash · price THE THING — colour · shirt · size · shoes · jacket The two in both: change and receipt. Change is money, and it is also a handful of coins you can drop. A receipt is a piece of paper you can hold, and it is also the only record that the money moved. Both of them are objects whose whole purpose is financial.

2A · The second of December 📻 Track 10.1 1 T · 2 T · 3 F · 4 F Listen once — thirty-nine euros.

Table — the jacket: before the sale, eighty-nine; in the sale, thirty-nine; what she gets, a credit note for thirty-nine.

3 is false: she tried it on at home, not in the shop. 4 is false: a credit note, not cash.

Noticing — the same thing that decides is and are. Was goes with I, he, she and it; were goes with you, we and they. One jacket was; all of them were.

3D · Use — controlled 1 was · 2 were · 3 tried · 4 didn't · 5 Did · 6 asked 3E · Use — guided 1 I paid by card.

2 She tried it on.

3 They were half price.

4 He asked for a receipt.

5 It was too expensive.

Sentences 3 and 5 use was and were; the other three take -ed. Note paid is irregular — it is the one word here that does not follow the rule, and the next book is full of them.

3G · Check — six items, mark your own 1 was · 2 were · 3 tried · 4 Did · 5 Did you try it on? — did already carries the past · 6 They were half price. — they takes were

5C · Answer 1 Eighty-nine euros.

2 Eleven.

3 Thirty-nine euros.

4 Twenty-two euros.

5 Because the shop paid twenty-two, and eighty-nine, thirty-nine and nineteen are all more than twenty-two. Every price in the story was profitable; the sale was never a rescue.

6 Because the eleven wanted the jacket. Lin bought it in four minutes without trying it on, which tells the shop nothing about the jacket and everything about the word SALE. The eleven are the only real information in the story.

5D · Vocabulary in context arrived in the shop — was delivered, came in · she did not ask — she chose not to find out · the three that were left — the three remaining · made money — produced a profit · whether it was fair — if it was reasonable 5E · The counter-text 1 The first of December, at 17.14.

2 Thirty-nine euros, by card — the last four digits are printed on it.

3 Four lines: returns within fourteen days with the receipt; goods must be unworn; sale items, credit note only; credit notes valid six months with no change given.

4 Line 3 — sale items, credit note only. And no: it is printed at six point on a receipt that did not exist until after she had paid. It was inside the till the whole time she was deciding.

5F · Two texts The window. She read the only one of the two that was large, visible and available before the money moved — and the shop printed the other one afterwards.

6C · Chunk 1 first · 2 second · 3 third · 4 fifth · 5 twentieth · 6 When's

6D · Contrast Clinic

1 were — they 2 was — I 3 was — it 4 were — you 5 were — three 6 was — it

12A · Recycle — twelve items 1 was · 2 were · 3 tried · 4 Did · 5 first · 6 second · 7 third · 8 twentieth · 9 receipt · 10 expensive · 11 Turn · 12 works